Death of Mrs. Rachel Hilts.

Mrs. Rachel Hilts died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Townsend, at Montavilla, June 10. Mrs. Hilts was 91 years of age. She was born in Iowa, and came across the plains to Oregon in early days, and located at Union, where she has ever since resided. She has been ill for several weeks and came down from Union to her daughter's four weeks ago. She leaves three daughters, Mrs. W. A. Townsend of Montavilla, Mrs. Miles of Salt Lake, Utah, and Mrs. Vincent of Union. There are five grandchildren and five great grandchildren. J. W. Townsend of Fairview is a grand son, and his children, Earl, Eva and Josie Townsend are great grand children.

Pleasant Home

J. B. Kelley and wife of San Francisco, California, are out for a few days.

Mr. Sanders and wife brought their seven year old son here for burial from Alberta, B. C. Mr. Sanders' family were residents of Pleasant Home several years ago before going to British Columbia. They have the sympathy of the neighbors.

Plans are under way for the incorporation of a cemetery association, and for more systematic care of the plot. This will be a matter of interest to all, and should receive hearty support.

Lumber is on the ground at the new town site for a large hardware and furniture store. Parties expect to occupy it July 1st.

Jas. Murray, a veteran of the civil war, who has been an inmate of the Soldier's Home at Washington is on a furlough for a time and visiting at this place. Mr. Murray came to Powell Valley forty years ago and took up a homestead.

Mrs. M. D. Williams of Bellingham, Wash., is the guest of Mrs. Stephens, her sister.

The recent showers proved a benefit to the crops, but somewhat interfered with folks going to the Rose Festival.

A surprise lasting all day and evening was given Grandma Van Fleet on her 76th birthday last Friday. Many neighbors and friends gathered to wish her many happy returns of the day.

The new crossing at Orient proves quite an advantage to those in that vicinity.

Children's day will be observed at the church at 8 p. m. Sunday evening. Election of Epworth League officers will be at 7 o'clock.

At the Baptist chapel in the afternoon exercises will be held for the little folks.

Rockwood

Miss Mamie Burns of Columbia View has just finished her sixth year as teacher of that district, and is highly elated that her entire class of the eighth grade pupils passed with flying colors. The class consisted of Lillian Richmond, John McLin, Alva Lin and Earl Fisher.

The last reports of Joe Schantine and his chum, Tony Niesz, who are out on a run with their motorcycles, was at San Francisco calling on old timers of Rockwood. Geo. W. Hazleton, Edd Dickerson and the Kronenbergs. Joe was fortunate in finding that his cousin, A. Muthauf, in Frisco, had just returned from foreign points. They reported the roads fairly good. They spent one night at Gervais with the parents of Tony Niesz. They spent one short stop at Eugene where a brother of Mr. Schantine is attending the university.

Percy Quesinbery, a former resident of Rockwood, and a brother of our blacksmith, spent Saturday and Sunday night here. He has a lovely home and fine farm at Lookout, Washington. On Monday he went to Portland to attend the stockholder's meeting of the United States Cash Register company of which he is a heavy share holder, and a very enthusiastic member.

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, June 13—F. D. Axtel who has a contract for building a large barn with six foot concrete basement for Mr. Ross, of Rooster Rock, moved his crew of seven men and tools there last Tuesday to begin operations at once. Mrs. Axtel, whose health has been so poorly the past year, accompanied Mr. Axtel and will spend the next few months roughing it.

C. E. Cree is now at work building a house and barn for A. T. Miller of Rose City Park. Mr. Miller has rented his farm to some Japs and after spending several months traveling through the East, has returned perfectly satisfied with Oregon and will take life easy reserving enough land to cultivate to keep his mind easy.

No. our rural carrier has not a new wagon. He was compelled to call for help a few days ago to get home, his wagon breaking down, and while having it repaired the carrier gave it a good coat of paint which causes people to say, see Schrams' new wagon, and this month's salary looks like a six bit piece with a hole in it.
