Boring

The residents living on the Main street are very much up in arms over the reckless manner in which one or two owners of automobiles delight in showing how fast they can drive through town. It is not unusual for them to drive at a speed of thirty or more miles per hour and nearly every day some child has a very narrow escape from being run over. Unless this practice is stopped drastic measures will follow.

Two cars loaded with ties while being shifted on the siding near the depot passed over the derailing switch which wrecked both cars to some extent and making it necessary to bring out the wrecking crew from Portland.

Charles Chapman left last week for San Francisco where he will spend the summer.

Owing to the rain the Sunday school picnic which was to be held at Gladstone on June 21 was postponed until next Friday with no change in the program.

F. M. Morgan spent Friday in Portland as also did Lynden Richey, S. E. Card and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wagner.

J. W. Roots-transacted business in Portland Saturday.

W. Brooks, an employe of the Bramhall Logging company, was seriously injured last week. He was using a peavy to roll a log when it slipped, striking him on the ankle. It was thought the bone was broken but after being taken to the hospital in Portland the doctors pronounced it badly sprained and bruised.

O. D. Roe's son Charles was severely burned by the explosion of a can of powder which he was playing with. While it is thought that he will fully recover, his eyes and face were badly burned and his eyesight temporarily injured.

Mrs. W. Yerkes of LaClede, Idaho, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer.

John Jonsrud received the information last week that one of his horses that strayed away about three months ago was to be sold at Oregon City. It required some very active work on Mr. Jonsrud's part to get there before the sale and claim his property.

The rains of late have interfered with the road work to some extent, but Supervisor Roots will start his crew at work again the first of the week.

Born, June 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ritzer, a son. Lew is about the proudest man in town, says the boy weighs nine pounds and can make more noise than the whole Taft delegation put together.

Boring and Eagle Creek played ball on the home grounds Sunday. Eagle Creek being defeated by a score of 14 to 4.

Mrs. John Meyer was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

O. A. Palmer of Portland was here Tuesday looking after property interests.

Messrs. Fred Werner and John Richey made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Whooping cough is still prevalent in Boring. Both old and young are affected.

Thomas Fields, living near Boring caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of J. W. Struken, also living near Boring on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. In the action before Justice Horberg the defendant was discharged on account of insufficient evidence.

There is one medicine that every family should be provided with and especially during the summer months; viz, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed. It costs but a quarter. Can you afford to be without it? For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and All Dealers.
