The Bill Elks are certainly taking everything at Portland this week. Nothing unusual however, as the "Best People on Earth" never complain along this line, for the best things are always handed to them without reserve. The fellow who put the salt in the Pacific will have to be on guard or they will take it.

Ivan Turner has leased his barber shop and residence and will move his family to Portland. Mr. Turner and F. M. Morgan will operate an auto stage between Portland and Mt. Hood starting at First and Alder street. Mr. Turner is thoroughly familiar with this piece of road and will no doubt be able to secure a good share of the business.

A Mr. Rosenbush has leased the barber shop and has moved his family into the Turner residence.

Cottrell

About seventy people attended the barn party given in Mrs. Shetterly's new barn Wednesday evening. Many games were played and a dainty luncheon was served at a late hour. Everybody expressed themselves as having spent a pleasant evening.

Mrs. A. Ruegg and daughter, Pearl attended the Elk's parade at Portland Thursday.

Road Supervisor Hillyard has men engaged in raking rocks from the graveled road near the Cottrell station. This is a great help to the men hauling cordwood for shipment at the station.

Warren Ball has sold his 20-acre ranch to Mrs. Miller of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ball expect to move to Idaho soon.

The farmers in this vicinity are busy cutting their hay.

Hillsview

Mr. and Mrs. E. Yunker and family of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yunker last Sunday.

Al Peir is building a new barn. J. O. Shigley is helping him.

E. P. Schedeon made a business trip to Gresham last week and while there purchased a mower and hay rake from the implement man, Mr. Hessel.

The Bramhall sawmill resumed work after a short vacation during the 4th. They are cutting mostly railroad ties now.

Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be obtained when on board the cars or steamships. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Pleasant Home

Rev. Thomas Wiles and wife of Melrose visited Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Calder Thursday afternoon.

Arthur Sloop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sloop, while playing at his home last Sunday fell and broke his arm.

At the Pleasant Home Methodist church next Sunday, the pastor, Rev. A. B. Calder, will preach at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 10. The pastor will speak at Iliff Memorial chapel at 3 p. m. and at Boring Methodist church at 8 p. m.

Cedarville

Lloyd Gleze took a deep interest in the balloon ascension at Gresham on the Fourth, as he is considering the purchase of an aeroplane in the near future. He enjoys long evening strolls, but thinks flying from one hill to the other would be more pleasant.

A number of our residents are attending the Elks attractions in Portland.

Mr. Cogswell is talking of building on his lots next month. We can stand more houses.

Cedarville had its share of the 4th. About 125 scholars from the East Portland Free Methodist Sunday schools, celebrated the day in the park, besides other parties.

Mr. Forbes has a young assistant in his store.

This weather is fine for comfort but bad for harvesting.

For summer diarrhoea in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, and a speedy cure is certain. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and all Dealers.
