

EQUITY SOCIETY WILL MARKET

During the fore part of this week a deal was closed between the Gresham Equity Market and The Co-operative Supply House of Portland whereby the latter will take all the farm produce which the Equity has to offer during the coming year.

This house is a new concern beginning business in Portland and will occupy a large concrete structure in East Portland.

One of their principal departments will be the produce department by means of which they are planning to handle for farmers' organizations large consignments of produce on a very reasonable commission.

The deal has been so arranged that the Equity will have a man in this department to look after the farmers' interests and the Equity officials feel quite confident that it is by far the best arrangement they could possibly make at the present time for the disposition of produce.

No agreements of any nature whatever have been entered into to buy manufactured goods or supplies from this house and whatever benefit the supply house gets along this line must come from the individual farmer on account of fair treatment and low prices for goods that are what they are represented to be.

The Gresham Equity Market has been incorporated under the cooperative association laws by a few farmers and is an adjunct and the financial agent of The Farmers Society of Equity which has a membership in this section of over two hundred.

The plan at present is to admit all members of the Farmers' Society of Equity as members and to increase the Equity membership not only in this section but in the whole Northwest.

An auto truck will be put on between the upper country and Portland which will take goods from various points daily. An office and storeroom has been rented in Gresham, the McCord Building or Powell street, for temporary quarters. The officers plan to be ready to take goods for transportation as early as Monday, July 29. Loads of goods are wanted for the return trip from Portland and will be transported at reasonable rates. Several stations will be established at convenient places where farmers can meet the truck or leave their produce to be picked up later. A complete list of these together with other information is being prepared and will be sent to all members next week.

The starting of this enterprise is only the first step along important lines which the Equity organization plans to carry out. The long-talked-of cannery will be the next under consideration and many questions of considerable import in connection with its establishment are now under consideration, among which, and of no little interest to the general public, is the location. This question will have to be decided before many months in order to get it in operation before another berry season.

Some interests in this vicinity have suggested that the farmer would injure local business by entering into the first mentioned deal but others are taking a more liberal view of the situation and encouraging the project with the more sensible view that more produce marketed at home and paid for in cash will give the people more money to spend at home, and most people spend their money where they get it and at the town or store where they unload their produce.

This move on the part of the farmers to sell in union is growing everywhere and meeting with more and more favor every day.

It is a time and money saving plan and will if properly managed be the best thing from a business standpoint for the community in general that has been accomplished in a long time.

The officers of the Gresham Equity Market are, C. R. Keller, president; A. R. Lyman, secretary; Theo. Brugger, treasurer. These officers have been appointed a committee to negotiate these deals and perfect the plans and arrangements.

Miss Mae McArthur of Spokane visited this week with her cousin, Mrs. J. N. Mewhirter.

Mount Hood Is the Mecca for Summer Tourists

Exodus to the Mountains Is Chief Feature of Local Activity at Present. Fishing, Berry Picking and Mountain Climbing Attract.

Seaside Draws Large Numbers of Vacationists. Gresham People Have Cottages and Entertain Friends at Favorite Beach Resorts.

Elk Horn Lodge at Welches Home of Ed. Roberts.

When the long hot days come, when the farmers have their hay harvested and the women are through canning berries and cherries, half the population of Gresham and vicinity yields to the lure of the mountains and seashore and hies away in quest of coolness and rest. No place could be better favored than this. With several popular beaches within four or five hours ride by train, with half a dozen mountain resorts easily accessible by auto or stage, it is not difficult to find a place suited to ones tastes.

Already the exodus has begun, and for the next six weeks there will be a continual going and coming. The mountains and seashore have about equal charms for our people, and many summer homes are owned by Greshamites. Sleret Island at Welches is occupied by three cabins belonging to John, George and Ed. Sleret. Mrs. Lewis Shattuck owns a part of the island, and expects to have a cabin there in the future. Other owners of cabins at Welches are J. W. Shattuck, John Roberts, Chas. Gedamke, E. E. Welling, Theodore Brugger, Andrew Brugger, H. E. Davis and W. W. Cotton.

A. E. Lindsey and D. M. Roberts have property there and are planning to build cabins. It is reported that Dr. J. M. Short will build, on his ranch adjoining Welches, a commodious bachelor's hall for the midwinter accommodation of himself and his gentlemen friends when they shall go in search of rest and big game.

Besides Welches, there are other popular mountain camps, among them being Rhododendron, Salmon river, Toll Gate and Government Camp. The hills are covered with blackberries and huckleberries, and the streams abound with trout and other fish.

For many, nothing can equal the Mountain Home of Arthur Larkins.

CHANGE IN PERSONEL OF GRESHAM FIRM

A. E. Lindsey has withdrawn from the firm of Shattuck & Lindsey, having sold his interest to Lewis Shattuck. This is the oldest merchandising house in Gresham which started in 1893 as Shattuck Bros. In 1903 Lewis Shattuck became sole proprietor. Mr. Lindsey bought a half interest two years ago. His withdrawal is said to be purely voluntary and under protest of the other member of the firm.

Bert Lindsey is well known here as a thorough business man and he and his family have made many friends.

So far as is known Mr. Lindsey has formulated no definite business plans for the future.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for their help and sympathy in our recent bereavement. We also wish to express our appreciation of the beautiful flowers given in such abundance.

MR. and MRS. IRA BROOKS.

FAIRVIEW BALL TEAM LOSES TO ARBOR LODGE

A surprise was in store for the Fairview team last Sunday when they crossed bats with Arbor Lodge on the home grounds. The visitors put it over the Fairview boys to the tune of 3 to 1. There was a reason. Fairview was weakened by the loss of Heslin, who is laid up with a sprained hip, and Townsend, who generally keeps 'em guessin' was handicapped by a split finger.

Next Sunday, July 21, the Portland Maccabees will give the Fairview boys something to do to hold their honors and it is expected a large number will watch the game which promises to be a rattling good one. No better or cleaner amateur ball playing can be seen anywhere, and the increasing number of those who turn out to the games shows the friends of the games are beginning to appreciate it. The games are called at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Fred Beckwith, who has been ill with tonsillitis for a few days, is recovering.

GRESHAM LODGE GIVEN CHARTER

The Gresham Lodge, No. 152, A. F. and A. M. was duly constituted last Saturday night by the Grand Lodge of the state of Oregon, Grand Master, Geo. Burnett of Salem. W. C. Bristol of Portland as deputy Grand Master, J. R. Robinson as Grand secretary, and D. G. Tomasini, Grand Marshal, of Portland were the members of the Grand Lodge present.

After the formal exercises the visitors gave interesting talks on features and fundamentals of Free Masonry.

The Gresham lodge was under dispensation for about two months and is thought to have made a record in the time of getting a charter. There are twenty-three charter members. Meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month in the Odd Fellows hall. The lodge already has considerable work ahead.

Goodrich and Others.

Back in the days when James C. Goodrich was an oiler on a steamship at $50 a month he was dissatisfied not so much because of absolute insufficiency of the 50 per cent living was not so high then as now—as because of his longing to experience the good feeling of being worth more. Yes, he enrolled for an I-C-S Course in Steam Engineering. Where now? Chief Engineer in the Hotel Astor in New York City. How much? $200 a month. Moreover, his employer is not only satisfied but delighted with the excellent service he is rendering.

Few would have thought themselves able to qualify for anything better had they been in Leroy A. Davis's boots. At the age of twelve Mr. Davis left school and went to work. It was up to him to make a living, and he did it. Naturally, being a native of the West, he followed the lead of his elders; and at the time when he became a student of the correspondence schools he was working as a herdsman for $36 a month. There are today thousands of young men with every facility for study—and standing still. Why? Because they will not do as Mr. Davis did—give their spare time to study. So far as education was concerned Mr. Davis had practically nothing at the start. But this did not discourage him any more than the fact that he had no place to study. He persevered; he got out his Instruction Papers and worked over them by the light of the camp fire. Today he has an education, a good position as electrician with the Western Pacific Railway, his pay has been more than doubled, and he says and proves that you can produce a great deal by adding hard work to ever so meager an education.

For full information regarding any course, drop a card to the I. C. S.; Scranton, Pa., or to G. T. Judd, manager, 152 Third street, Portland, Oregon.

W. W. Cotton, Mr. Steele and Earl Thompson went today to Welches to remain over Sunday.

FAIRVIEW VOTES $4500 BONDS

At the special election held yesterday the town of Fairview voted to purchase the H. S. Stone property for a city park, issuing bonds to the amount of $4,500 for the purpose. It was also voted to adopt the new plan of street assessment whereby the first 50 feet of property along an improved street shall be liable for one-half the cost, the second 50 feet back from the street shall be liable for one-third the cost and the next 50 feet for the remainder or one-sixth the cost. This measure carried by a vote of 35 for and 6 against.

The purchase of a park site and issuing bonds called forth 43 votes, 27 for and 16 against. While there had been considerable difference of opinion on this question, it was carried by a good, safe majority, the vote standing nearly two to one in favor of it.

The property thus ordered purchased comprises two blocks fronting on Harrison street, between First and Fourth. One of these blocks is a beautiful natural park. The other is cleared and in cultivation. The property belongs to Mrs. H. S. Stone and family and the price for the two blocks will be $4500. The issuance of bonds in this amount is authorized.

The city officials think it is a good buy both from a financial and from a civic standpoint. The property is located one block north of the electric line and can be made an attractive and beautiful park. It has been stated by some that the cleared portion would make a fine ball park, but the officials deny having any intention of using it for that purpose.

The judges and clerks of election were as follows: Judges, Wm. Butler, D. S. Dunbar, R. W. Wilcox. Clerks, Wm. Ellison, Irving Province, W. S. Loser.

It seemed almost in celebration of the passage of these measures, which are thought to mean much for the advancement of the town that the electric lights were turned on last night for the first time. Fairview is now electric-lighted with 20, 80 candle power lights, well distributed over the town. This is an event the utility of which all will admit.

Birthday Surprise for Mrs. Paul Bliss.

Mrs. Paul Bliss was given a delightful surprise at her home at Bliss Acres, last Tuesday, July 16, the occasion being her birthday. Despite the busy season and the hot weather, many turned out to do Mrs. Bliss honor. A sumptuous luncheon was served in the spacious dining room which was decorated with sweet peas and nasturtiums. All had a very enjoyable time.

A brief special session of the council was called for Wednesday night to canvass the votes of the special election held on Monday. The results were given in Tuesday's issue of the Outlook. The new territory voted into the city comprises about 20 acres of the finest residence property in this part of the county. Steps will be taken at once to supply this property with city water.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the many friends and patrons who have shown me courtesy during my connection with the firm of Shattuck and Lindsey.

A. E. LINDSEY.

Would you like to start a bank account for your child? If so, you will be given an opportunity to do so by taking advantage of the plan submitted by Regner and Co. A silver dollar will be given to every child under five years whose parents present him at Regner's store for that purpose. Moreover, if this is done on Saturday, July 20th, a card will be given which will entitle the holder to a free photo by Schneider. With every purchase from Regner and company discount slips will be given which may be turned in as money, at the postal savings bank. Any one holding these slips may turn them to the account of any child who is a patron of the "Tad System." If you are interested in this plan, visit Regner's store Saturday and learn further details concerning the matter.
