GRESHAM

Lee Carmen, of the Herald office at Lents, called on friends here Saturday. Lee finds the Oregon climate very salubrious and has hard work to keep from getting fat.

Frank Axtell, is doing the inside finishing in Jas. Elkington's newungalow in Wallula Heights addition. Mr. Elkington expects to occupy the house about August 1. Mr. Axtell has just finished a large barn for J. W. Ross at Corbett. The barn is 36x80, with full lower story of concrete. It is now being painted by Thomas Bros.

Work will begin soon on Jas. Pounder's new cement block house at Springdale. It will be an attractive and comfortable dwelling.

Frank Axtell will begin Monday making repairs on the former Union Meat company's building at Troutdale. The ranch and buildings have been leased by the Sundial ranch and will be used for stock purposes.

F. J. Shultz and bride of Eagle Creek, visited his mother, Mrs. Emma Shultz, Friday. Mr. Shultz married Mrs. Freida Van Curran at Oregon City, Thursday, July 18. They will reside at Eagle Creek, where they have a farm.

Fay Shultz and family recently from St. Johns, have moved onto the ranch of Mr. Shultz' mother at Eagle Creek.

E. D. Dewey, of the Oregonian mailing department, visited his sister, Mrs. S. T. Crow, and father, E. Dewey, on Friday.

Mrs. Jas. Elkington has as a guest this week, Mrs. Jarboe, of Little Falls, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Crow visited Leslie Crow and family, Mr. Crow's son, in Portland Sunday.

Isaac Smith of Detroit, Michigan, is here on a visit with his sister, Mrs. Mary Cleveland.

Mrs. A. Ammerman is visiting friends in Portland, this week.

The Outlook force is indebted to Mrs. John Palmblad of Powell Valley for some of the most beautiful raspberries we ever saw. They are of the Cuthbert variety, nearly as large as loganberries, and delicious to the taste. How things do grow in Powell Valley!

Miss Laura Bulkeley and Miss Emma Johnson spent a very delightful day Sunday, taking the trip by boat up the Columbia river to Cascade Locks.

Mrs. S. S. Thompson had as guests last week, her nieces Mrs. Jennie Nighkirk of Tacoma and Miss Vera Stockdale of Walla Walla, also the latter's friend Miss Margaret Kiger.

Oscar Gregory and family have gone to Salem where he is in the employ of the Oregon Electric.

Miss Gertrude Eastman is spending the week at Oregon City, visiting with friends.

Ed. Gilman, wife and little daughter are stopping at the Congdon. Mr. Gilman is the new salesman with Lewis Shattuck.

Mrs. Gregory was given a pleasant surprise last Wednesday afternoon, when a number of her lady friends invited her to the Fair Grounds where a delicious picnic luncheon had been prepared. This was given as a farewell party, and in appreciation of her friendship. The participants were, besides Mrs. Gregory and little son, Mrs. M. Nelson, Mrs. R. B. Dixon, Mrs. Clarence Gaffney, Mrs. Jack Morris, Misses Gertrude Nelson and Ruth Dixon, Lowell Nelson, and Harry Isaminger.

Ed. Gilman has a position as clerk in Lewis Shattuck's store. He is a son of S. L. N. Gilman, auctioneer of Portland and is an experienced clerk. Mr. Gilman has a wife and three children and expects to make his home here.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Belt and Chas McColl went Saturday to Garibaldi Beach. Dr. Belt will return in a few days, the others will remain for a few weeks' outing.

E. E. Chipman has returned to work as carrier on route 1 after two weeks' vacation. He has a new canvas top on his mail wagon. Looks quite cozy.

Dr. J. M. Short went last night to Cannon Beach, Ore., for a two weeks' stay with his family.

Miss Ruby Emery completed her nurse's training at Good Samaritan hospital, and is at home for a needed rest before taking up her work. She is entertaining her friends, the Misses Blum and Dunlap.

Those who have been getting mail at the delivery window Sunday morning will find the window closed all day, August 4, and every Sunday thereafter. The only way to get your mail will be to engage a box. The mail will be distributed as usual but the windows will be closed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Webber and children, Charles, Helen and baby Louise, of Portland, Ore., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern Sunday.

Fred E. Todd is painting M. D. Kern's residence.

Mrs. J. J. Wodaage was visiting in Portland, Friday.

Mrs. Max Schneider is making very generous and helpful use of her auto these beautiful summer days, taking some of those usually confined to the house out for pleasant auto rides. Mrs. Linneman was taken Saturday afternoon around town and out in the country where she viewed many of the old landmarks and expressed continual surprise at the changes which are so rapidly taking place. Mrs. Schneider took Mrs. S. B. Johnson over to Damascus for an auto ride and a call on Monday.

Colby Marston made a trip to Bull Run, going up Saturday and remaining over Sunday. One of the wood haulers here says from the Takao sawmill lost a valuable horse at Bull Run Sunday. Coming down he slip to the depot the load crowded forward on to the horses and one horse got a broken leg and had to be shot.

Mrs. and Miss Petry of San Francisco were entertained recently by Mrs. Max Schneider at her country home at Damascus.

Miss Dottle Wirtz is having a two weeks' vacation. She expects to spend part of the time visiting relatives at Tillamook.

Mrs. Jake Farrell and son, Ferdie, of Vancouver, Wash., are visiting Mrs. Farrell's aunt, Mrs. O. J. Trambly.

The Gresham Equity Market has opened offices in the McCord building, and is asking for produce which it will handle on commission. A phone will be installed and farmers can report what they have on hand. This is what the farmers have been wanting and there should be no real co-operation to make the plan a success.

Sterling & Kidder have just put in a gasoline engine and a Fairbanks-Morse water system for Richard Beadle and another is being installed for Paul Bliss.

Miss Eva Knighton is assisting in Duke's confectionery, taking the place of Velma Metzger who is at home on account of her mother's sickness.

Among the guests registered at the Congdon today are, E. B. Welty of Hood River, Mrs. Whalen of Spokane and Mr. Hewin of Bull Run.

J. M. Wright, of Hood River, a contractor and builder, is visiting his old neighbor Frank Caddy, who recently bought the old McDonald place at Pleasant Home.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the M. E. church next Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Drake and daughter of Anderson were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. E. C. Lindsey, today.

Miss Norma Hundley is away on her vacation, and Miss Elizabeth Halliday is taking her place in the office of T. R. Howitt.

Miss Clarice Haile, the Gresham librarian, has been arranging some interesting window displays in the last two or three weeks. At present, last month's magazines occupy one window, with the statement that they are for circulation. The other window contains several books on poultry raising. Miss Haile also calls attention from time to time, to books on certain subjects, by the use of the bulletin board in the reading room. The books so posted now, are on art, painting and sculpture.

Mr. Tripp, who has been Troutdale's barber for several years is opening up a business here in the Cree building. In connection with his shop he will run a pool room and confectionery store and says his place of business will be so conducted that no father or mother need have any fear of bringing their sons or daughters to enjoy a quiet game of pool and eat ice cream. No gambling or drinking will be tolerated whatever.

The St. Elizabeth's home at Elwood is completed, and a few sister's are busily engaged cleaning house in preparation for occupancy by the sisters from Portland. The grounds are being graded, fences erected, and it will soon be a very pretty place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reed of Mitchell, Oregon, old time friends of the Province family, spent several days here. They were royally entertained by auto rides throughout our lovely country and left declaring this was the garden of Eden compared to the sun parched hills of Eastern Oregon.

A very interesting game was played here Sunday and enjoyed by a good crowd. The Portland Mac-cabees, No. 1, Tent, crossed bats with our team and got whipped 7 to 12. Our games are interesting and one noticeable feature is the excellent order. We have no drinking and all are treated as ladies and gentlemen. The managers will not allow anything else and should be encouraged in their work.

What Makes a Woman?

One, hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by all Druggists.
