

ROCKWOOD FIRE DESTROYS STORE

D. B. Holland's grocery store at Rockwood was burned this morning early, resulting in a total loss to the building and almost a total loss of the contents. The fire was first seen by Miles Grimshaw, who observed smoke issuing from the southwest corner of the building and gave an immediate alarm. The lack of prompt assistance and fire-fighting facilities prevented the saving of very much, although extra hard work on the part of those arriving resulted in saving goods to the amount of about $50 and a few other articles including the cash register, scales and oil tanks.

Mr. Holland and his family were sleeping on the lower floor at the rear of the store and were aroused by Mr. Grimshaw. So rapid was the spread of the flames that they only succeeded in getting their every-day clothes on, all their other belongings being lost. In less than an hour the fire had burned itself out, leaving only the smoldering ruins. The absence of any wind and a dozen small fir trees at the rear of the building served to protect the barn about 100 feet away which was uninjured. An attempt was made to get a stream of water from a pump in the yard by Walker Quesenberry, but the hose was too short and nothing could be done in that direction.

The fire is supposed to have originated in some matches in the corner where the fire was first seen. Mr. Holland had just added a new stock of goods including two gross of matches, which was probably the cause of the fire in some unaccountable manner.

The building was owned by J. H. Richmond, who sold the stock of goods to Mr. Holland only last spring. Mr. Richmond leased the building to Mr. Holland and moved to Eagle Creek. He carried insurance on the structure in the Grange Insurance company, but to what amount could not be learned, probably $700 or $800. Mr. Holland carried $1000 insurance on the stock of goods in the Continental Insurance company, represented by the First State Bank, of Gresham.

Mr. Holland's greatest loss was the destruction of all his household goods which were mostly in the upper story of the building and were valued at over $1000. When he moved down from Eagle Creek he stored his best furniture there, and there the family kept their wardrobe and all other things not necessary to furnish one room and the kitchen at the rear of the store. All was lost and the family is practically penniless and without clothes. They are being taken care of for the present by neighbors in the vicinity.

Mr. Holland, although carrying $1000 insurance, says he will be absolutely broke when all settlements are made, as he had just added largely to his stock of goods and it will take the whole amount to pay off his obligations. He says that he will be unable to engage in business again.

Mr. Richmond had not been informed of his loss this morning and his intentions are unknown, but it is probable that he will rebuild and possibly engage in business, again, himself, as it is reported that he has sold his farm at Eagle Creek.

Rockwood Grange, of which Mr. and Mrs. Holland are members, is considering a benefit dance for next Saturday evening, which will probably be announced early next week, if determined upon.

THE FRUIT AND FLORAL EXHIBITS AT THE MULTNOMAH COUNTY FAIR SHOULD ECLIPSE ANYTHING EVER BEFORE SHOWN IN THE COUNTY.

FRUIT, Flowers and Vegetables are our specialties. We do on the Variety, Quantity and general Good Quality of these in this favored section. There are still some who say, 'Show me.' Fair time is a good time to do this.

One of the most attractive exhibits at the fair to be held in Gresham October 2, 3, 4, 5, will be that of the horticultural department, under the superintendency of H. A. Lewis of Montavilla. Mr. Lewis is one of the best known fruit men in this part of the country and has spent much time and thought on this department of the fair. A long list of apples is named for prizes. The best five boxes all of one variety, will win a silver cup, donated by the Merchants' Produce association of Portland. The second best five boxes will receive $10. The largest prize offered is $50, for the best ten boxes, all one variety, with a second prize of $30. These displays must be commercial pack. First prize of $2 and second of $1 are offered for the following varieties, in box display: Winter Banana, King of Tomkins County, Spitzenburg, Newtown Pippin, Northern Spy, Red Cheeked Pippin, Baldwin, Jonathan, Gloria Mundi, Twenty-ounce Pippin, Oregon Beauty, Winesap, Yellow Bellflower, Wolf River and Wagoner. Prizes on plate displays are 50 cents and 25 cents, and are for the following varieties: Ortley, Arkansas Black, Wealthy, Dutches of Oldenburg, Rome Beauty, Grime's Golden, Fall Pippin, Lady Apple, Hyslop Crab, Yellow Siberian and Transcendent.

A good list of pears for box display includes Buerre de Anjou, Winter Nellis, Fall Butter, Buerre Clargeau, Vicar of Wakefield, Pound Pears, L. B. Jersey and Bartlett. The prizes on these are $2 and $1. Idaho and Buerre Bosc may be displayed on plates, the prizes being 50 cents and 25 cents.

Two dollars for firsts and one dollar for seconds are offered for crate displays of the following prunes: Italian, Silver, Sugar and Pacific. Fifty cents for firsts and 25 cents for seconds are offered for plate displays of Bradshaw plums, Yellow Egg plums, Hungarian plums, Champion quinces, Orange quinces and Meech quinces.

The best display of grapes, four boxes, in crates of five varieties, commercial pack, will win $5. The second prize is $3. The following varieties may be displayed in four pound squares, the prizes being 50 cents and 25 cents: Campbell Early, Concord, Delaware, Eaton, Moores Early, Moores Diamond, Niagara and Wordin.

An interesting miscellaneous list calls for prizes of one dollar and 50 cents, and includes Muir peaches, box or plate display, plate displays of Salway peaches, Lemon Cling peaches, walnuts, filberts and chestnuts, new variety seedling apples, new variety seedling pears, and new variety seedling peaches, also pound boxes cultivated blackberries and strawberries. The best display of fancy dried or evaporated fruit will win a prize of $3.00, second prize $2.00.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Kelly

The death of Mrs. Sarah Kelly occurred early this morning at her home in Portland after a lingering illness of about a year. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Baptist church in Gresham and burial will be in the Gresham cemetery.

Sarah Rook Kelly was born September 14, 1856 on the Rook donation land claim at Powell Valley. Her parents were James W. and Nancy A. Rook, pioneers of 1854 coming from Tennessee. She was married on March 29, 1874, to Samuel G. Kelly, son of Gilmore and Mary Kelly, also pioneers of Powell Valley.

Mrs. Kelly lived in Powell Valley many years, later in Troutdale, where Mr. Kelly kept a store, and about 12 years ago moved to Portland.

She is survived by her husband, two children, Mrs. Nellie Wiencken and Alfred Kelly of Portland. She also leaves an aged mother, two brothers and four sisters: P. H. Rook of Gresham, J. W. Rook of San Francisco, Mrs. Carrie Powell and Mrs. Anna Hale of Gresham, Mrs. Ada Burton of Sacramento and Mrs. Pearl Hawes of Portland.

Mrs. Kelly was well known in this locality and Portland, having spent all her life here. She was a kind mother and wife, active in good work, and will be greatly missed not only by a large circle of relatives but by many friends and pioneer acquaintances.

O You Ball Fans!

The game last Sunday afternoon at Fairview between Fairview and Maccabee Colts was another winner for the home players. Many enthusiastic fans cheered on the boys by their presence and helped the men at the bat run up a score of 12 against their opponents 7. It was an all round good game with enough interesting plays to keep up the interest. In fact it was one of the best games ever witnessed in Fairview.

Next Sunday at 2 o'clock, the Fairview Nine will meet the Studebaker boys. The Studebakers have the reputation of being one of the strongest amateur teams in the county. They have been playing some winning games. It is feared they will give Fairview a close call for the honors. A larger attendance than ever is looked for.

Club Formed for Girls.

The Industrious Girls' club is the name of an organization recently formed under the direction of Miss Clarissa Halle, the Gresham librarian. Girls from eleven to fourteen are eligible for membership. They combine study with fun, and besides learning things of interest to girls, they have frequent outings and picnics to local places of interest. More than a dozen are now members, and others will be initiated at the next meeting. The officers are, president, Hazel Shattuck, vice president, Letitia Pulfer; treasurer, Leta Mathews; secretary, Mabel Michel; library committee, Orel Raney, Winifred St. Clair and Hannah Lane; judge of excuses, Fay Webber. Miss Halle meets with the girls and directs their exercises.

Big Profits in Small Fruits

Eighty-five tons of loganberries from 35 acres in two weeks, is the output of a Brooks, Oregon, farm. It is estimated that two weeks more of picking will bring the average up to five tons per acre for the season. At $1.00 per crate, which is a low average price, the gross proceeds of this little berry patch would be about $14,000 or $400 an acre. Allowing two-thirds of this for expenses, the net profits would be $133 1-3 per acre.

What has been done at Brooks, can be done at Gresham and vicinity. No place can be better adapted for the growing of berries, than this. With the prospect of a cannery here in the near future, farmers could not do better than to plant all the berries of this and other varieties, that they can care for.

Doris Brown is Hostess.

Little Doris Brown played the hostess to a few juvenile friends last Monday afternoon. Harry, Allen and Anna Hamilton, Annie, Ethel and Harry Moffitt, Freda and Eva Barber, attended by their mothers, also Louise Emerson of Troutdale chaperoned by Mrs. Hamilton, were present. A few games were played and refreshments served, and everyone had an enjoyable time.

ORIENT HANDS OUT DIPLOMAS

The graduation exercises of the 8th grade of Orient school, were successfully carried out Friday evening, July 19th.

The hall was beautifully decorated in the class colors of purple and white, the work being done by the class and teacher. During the playing of the march, by Miss Mildred Brower, the class filed in and took their places on the platform under a beautiful arch. The members of the school board and Supt. F. J. Tooze of Oregon City, the speaker of the evening, had places on the platform. "Educational Efficiency" was the subject of the address, which proved profitable and instructive to both young and old. Mr. Tooze held his audience in the closest attention for more than an hour. The address was characterized by its simplicity of language and excellence of thoughts. The speaker proved himself to be a true friend of boys and girls who show themselves to be striving for an education. He made many friends among the pupils, patrons and friends of the school. H. G. Mullenhoff, the district clerk, presented the diplomas. Mr. Mullenhoff asked that the cheering of the last musical number might cease, when he turned to Principal C. M. Quicksall, and with a few well chosen words presented him with the class, showing their appreciation of a beautiful watch fob, the gift of the assistance given by him during the past year.

After the program refreshments were served, and all present enjoyed the hospitality of the boys and girls. They departed at a late hour wishing the class the success always due earnest workers which they have proven themselves to be.
