LITTLE MISS GRACE LUCINDA GIESE
 Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Giese, who is naturally gifted in elocution will lecture
 Aug. 2, 1912, 8 p.m.
 at Gresham Commercial Club Hall.
 This little miss has lectured in the middle and western states, yet only seven years old, is without a doubt the greatest and brightest child before the public today. You certainly will be pleased if you hear her. Admission 15c and 25c.

FIT FOR A QUEEN.
 Therefore it is Not Too Good for American Women.
 No queen ever used a better one. No American woman should use an inferior one, because nothing is too good for her. This thought governs in the making of Violet Dulce Talcum Powder.
 Violet Dulce Talcum Powder is so impalpably fine as to make it unusually persistent in its clinging qualities. It leaves the skin soft and velvety. It gives forth the dainty, exquisite odor of freshly-cut violets. Its soothing antiseptic qualities help to allay irritation and keep the skin in health. It is cooling, comforting—a delight to men and women who want the best and cleanest.
 Violet Dulce Talcum Powder will in every way please the most exacting woman. That is why we sell more of it than of any other kind, and hear more praise for it than for all other kinds put together. Use it and you will praise its high quality. We are sure of this, and want you to try it at our risk. If it does not more than satisfy you—if it does not delight you—we want you to tell us and get your money back. Price, 25 cents. Sold in this community only at our store. The Rexall Store.

 Portlanders Will Invade Central Oregon in August.
 Pathfinders who went over the route to be followed from Portland to Lakeview for the convention of the Central Oregon Development League August 20, 21 and 22, returned full of enthusiasm for the country found in Interior Oregon. C. C. Chapman, secretary of the Oregon Development League, says that portion of the state is developing rapidly and that the settlers are prospering.
 Secretary Chapman says Central Oregon will welcome the Portland excursionists with open arms when they come to Lakeview in August and each town is preparing a warm reception. He says the journey down through the interior will be one long to be remembered and that all Portland people who want to learn more of their state should participate. From indications, there will be a large party go from the Rose City.

This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Druggists.

Hillsview

Mr. Exley, Sr., had a very narrow escape from serious injury last Monday morning at the home of his neighbor Louis Yunker. They were in the barnyard where Mr. Yunker was milking when a bull, which was loose in the yard, became enraged and attacked Mr. Exley, knocking him down and tramping him severely. Fortunately the animal had been dehorned, or the outcome might have been worse. A doctor was called to attend the injured man, who is now resting comfortably.

The painters are at work painting the interior of the schoolhouse which was badly needed.

Hinshaw Prohibition Chairman

Virgil G. Hinshaw, a lawyer of Portland, has been selected as chairman of the National Prohibition committee. He has, it is said, the strength and enthusiasm of young manhood and has already had enough experience in Prohibition work that he may confidently be expected to develop at once every quality for magnificent leadership. He brings to his high office devotion and courage and a wide acquaintance with the party and its needs.

At the time of his choice as national chairman Mr. Hinshaw was not present, but was in his office in Portland. It was the first time, it is said in the party's history that such a choice was ever made under such circumstances, an unprecedented choice in that three-fourths of the delegates who voted for Mr. Hinshaw had probably never seen his face nor heard his voice.

It will be remembered that Mr. Hinshaw was announced to speak at Gresham on July 4 but owing to later pressing duties found it necessary to be away, but he sent a substitute.

MULTNOMAH COUNTY STOCK LAW

Section 1. It shall, after this act goes into effect, be unlawful for cattle, horses, mules, sheep, goats, or hogs to run at large in that part of Multnomah county, Oregon, which lies west of the Sandy river.

Sec. 2. Any animal enumerated in Section 1 of this act found running at large in Multnomah county, west of the Sandy river, may be taken up by any person, who shall thereupon immediately notify the owner thereof, if the owner be known; if such owner be unknown to the person so taking up such animals, he shall, within one day thereafter, post notices describing the animals, with reasonable certainty, and stating where such animals are kept. Such notices shall be posted in three public places in the vicinity where said animals are so taken up. Said notice shall also be published in one issue of a weekly newspaper published nearest to the residence of the person taking up such animal, which publication shall be in the first issue of said paper after posting of said notices.

Sec. 3. The owner or his agent, may retake possession of his animals from the person so taking them up at any time prior to the sale thereof, as hereinafter provided, by first tendering to such person his charges for so taking them, which shall be as follows: Fifty cents per day for each head of cattle, horses or mules; and twenty-five cents per day for each head of sheep, hogs or goats, to the person taking up the same for the time he has held it, and also the cost of publishing the notices in the newspaper, as in this act provided for.

Sec. 4. After the expiration of one day after notice to the owner, or his agent, in case of personal notice to such owner or agent, or at the expiration of five days next from and after the publication of notice in a newspaper, as provided in Section 2 of this act, the person so taking up said animal shall advertise the same for sale by publishing in the newspaper designated in said Section 2, a notice of sale, which shall contain the same description required to be given in the notices of taking up such animal, or animals, and shall state that on a day and hour named therein, which shall not be less than five nor more than ten days after the date of publication of said sale notice, he will, at the place where said animal or animals have been kept since taking up, sell the same at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand. Said person advertising said animal or animals for sale shall also, on or before the date of publication of said sale notice, post three written or printed copies of said sale notice in three public places in the vicinity where said animals were so kept and to be sold.

Sec. 5. The proceeds of said sales shall be applied to the payment of the charges of the person taking up said animals, as in this act provided, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the county clerk of the county in which the sale has been made, and shall be paid by order of the county court of said county to the owner of the animals so sold, upon due proof being made before said court.

Sec. 6. The person taking up animals, as provided in this act, may become a purchaser at said sale.

Sec. 7. All young animals, under six months old, when accompanied with their mother, are exempt from the operation of this act.

Sec. 8. No suit, action, or proceeding shall be maintained in any court to recover the possession of any animal taken up from the person so taking it up, under the provisions of this act, until the sum of money due under the provisions of this act has been tendered to the party or person taking up the same, nor shall any suit or action be maintained against the purchaser of such animals at said sale, or the heirs or assigns of such purchaser, until the full amount paid by such purchaser for such animal at said sale, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from date of said sale, shall have been tendered to such purchaser, his heirs and assigns.
