Miss Dorothy Couper is taking drawing lessons of Miss Lillian B. Averill.

Jas. T. Edgerton of Portland made a flying trip out to his ranch one day last week.

Master Johnny Boyd and Master Georgie Couper went fishing a few days ago and caught two large fish.

A party consisting of Harold Sanford, third baseman on Portland Academy's team, and six young ladies came out from Portland last Tuesday and visited Dr. John H. Boyd and family. While on the way the tire became badly punctured and they rode from near Sandy to Cherryville without any tire—on the rim of the wheel. Master Johnny Boyd and his brother took some of the party in Dr. Boyd's automobile to Boring and the next morning they sent out a new tire to Cherryville from Portland.

Mrs. Wm. O. Rugh and the Misses Genevieve Rugh took tea with Rev. Dr. Runyan a few evenings ago.

Dr. Boyd has named his new home "Chalet Boyd."

John Brown of Gresham has just installed a new acetylene lighting plant in Dr. O. Botkins' new sanitarium.

Master Lee Johnson and Sonny Allen crawled in the back seat of an automobile which was just leaving Cherryville a few evenings ago and went to sleep and before they knew it they were in Sandy. Ed. Bornstedt was afraid their parents would be worrying about them and he hurriedly drove them back to Cherryville and arrived there about 10 p. m. much to the joy of the distracted parents.

Dr. John H. Boyd will preach in the Cherryville M. E. church next Sunday.

John Welsh is confined to his home, being poisoned by eating canned salmon.

Three automobile loads of people came out and visited Dr. John H. Boyd and family last week.

A sacred song service was held at the residence of Mrs. Geo. B. Couper last Sunday evening.

Frank Bell of Portland is visiting Henry Boyd.

Geo. Eden of Logan visited in Cherryville last Sunday.

Indian Killed on Track.
Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often its that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of Grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all Druggists.

School Report Cards.
The Outlook has on hand printed school report cards with envelopes. They are a neat card, printed on finest Bristol, very complete and serviceable. Sent promptly by mail. Prices, 2 1/2c each, complete. Over 100, 2c each. Postage additional, 5c for each 25.

A well known Des Moines woman after suffering miserably for two days from bowel complaint, was cured by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Druggists.

Jenne Station

It certainly kept Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal humming last Sunday. Seems like the good eats that Mrs. Regal put up keeps 'em a coming faster than ever. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Steine, Miss Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Holan and family, Miss Mildred Shloth, Miss Jacobs, Master Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mann and son Maurice, and E. Perkins.

Mr. St. Francis called on Mrs. Floyd at Portland last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang of Portland were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Saturday.

E. C. Perkins of Portland has finished the plumbing on the Springhill farm and is the best and neatest job a person ever laid his eyes on and helps a great deal in the appearance of the house, and also is a great comfort to the people on the Springhill farm.

If anybody has any guinea pigs to sell bring them around to the Springhill farm. Master Maurice Mann says he could use 'em as he just received an order for about 500 from Boston and will keep him hustling to get the required amount.

The demand for the little fellows is great just now. Only a week ago he sold a hundred of them.

Mr. Lewis of Portland has just finished the surveying on the Kimmel place. Henry had a lot of trouble about the lines and thought this the only way out of it to settle the question. Nothing like having is settled right.

Melrose

Mrs. Thos. Wiles is visiting her son in Portland, Mr. Elwood Wiles. Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood are spending their vacation at Seaside.

Mrs. Chas. Tallman is on the sick list.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Cuddiford, August 1st, a daughter. Grandpa Mercer wears a big smile.

A called meeting of the Epworth League will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Capt. Branson, Thursday evening.

The league meeting Sunday night led by Chas. P. Tallman was especially good. The subject was Decision.

Mrs. McClure is recovering slowly from her recent illness.

A long procession followed the remains of the little boy who was killed last Friday, to the Douglass cemetery.

Chas. Tallman's apricots were the best ever this year.

Scenic

Scenic is a very busy place. It is said that even the railroad trains catch the spirit and make a hustling appearance when approaching the place. It became necessary to lengthen the switch at Scenic so we presume there is something in the remark.

Rockwood

Mr. and Mrs. Holland, former merchants of this place, who suffered the loss of their business a short time ago, are sojourning in Portland and may purchase property and relocate here. It is also rumored that as John Richmond has sold his farm at Eagle Creek, he will move back and camp until he can erect buildings on the ground burned over by the recent fire.

Walker Quesinberry finds that time saved is money made and is always looking for labor saving devices. He has just installed an iron shearing and hole drilling or punching machine, and finds it is money well spent.

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters" he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. Its folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at all Druggists.
