Damascus

Sam Brown has sold his farm and bought two houses and lots in Arleta.

Mr. Mills of Lents bought the Brown farm.

J. C. Elliott has bought a part of the Young farm at Damascus.

Miss Bertha Hoffmaster died of blood poison. She was buried in the Damascus cemetery. There was a large attendance at the funeral and a profusion of flowers, wreaths and bouquets.

Hay harvest was fine, and all the hay housed without damage.

Wheat harvest is on and rapidly being threshed, although the crop is not as good as last year.

The new telephone line from Portland to Estacada is nearly finished.

Mr. Mullenhoff lost a fine horse. The team was frightened and started to run with the wagon loaded with wood, the wagon running over one of the horses with the result that it died.

Right in your busiest season when you have the least time to spare you are most likely to take diarrhoea and lose several days' time, unless you have Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand and take a dose on the first appearance of the disease. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Rockwood

Mrs. D. B. Holland and children are spending a few days with friends in Washington.

Mrs. Frank Dickerson is reported to be quite ill.

Mrs. Miles Greshaw entertained Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Portland last Sunday.

John Richmond has sold his farm at Eagle Creek and expects to move his family to Rockwood in the near future.

R. W. Watson of Portland and R. C. Lovelace spent several days of last week fishing in Tillamook county. Unfortunately their motor cycle broke down and they were obliged to return by rail, but nevertheless both young men are most enthusiastic over Tillamook, and look forward to another trip later on.

Buy it now. Now is the time to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. This remedy has no superior. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Druggists.

More and more the schools of America are passing under the control of woman and she has so demonstrated her fitness to teach that this educational reform will not go backward. Then for the safety of the nation it must go forward, till by her enfranchisement, her fitness to be the teacher of America's future citizens will be completed.—Mrs. Zerelda G. Wallace (mother of Gen. Lew Wallace.)

Powell Valley

Among the guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad, were Dr. East, Mr. Resard and Mrs. Swan Magnuson.

Edna Maybee of Springdale is assisting Mrs. John Palmblad with her housework.

John Hagen of San Diego, Cal., is visiting at the home of J. Palmblad. He was an old neighbor of the family in Kansas. He is delighted with the country here and is talking of making this his future home.

Rev. Jonas Johnson, who has been in South Dakota for the past three years, has returned with his family to Powell Valley, where he has accepted the pastorate of the Swedish Mission church. Mr. Johnson was pastor here for several years before going East, and owns a farm here, which he is now occupying. A reception was given recently in his honor, which was largely attended, and which showed the high regard in which he and his family are held.

Lusted

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Alm have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in their sad bereavement.

R. Lundborn is going to build on his farm on the pipe line soon.

Frank Caddy has the plans for a new house, which he will erect soon.

Mrs. Kittie Wolfhagen and sister Zena Neibauer went to Oregon City last Wednesday to visit their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Malvin Long.

Mrs. J. Iekler visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caddy last Wednesday.

The inspector is around this week in this vicinity testing the cows. He found most of them in good condition.

No Single Tax for Union County.

When conscience is the spur, workers are to be found everywhere and among all classes.

Perhaps that is the reason that Mrs. Matt Mitchell, who lives at Cove, Oregon, is such an ardent worker against what she feels are the pernicious attempts of the Single Taxers to capture the homes of the people of Oregon.

"False trash" is the manner in which Mrs. Mitchell describes the U'Ren propaganda and "U'Ren and his ilk" the campaigners.

Like a modern but aged Joan of Arc, this old lady is organizing the farmers and people of Union county against Single Tax. At her own expense she received books on the subject of the fight against Single Tax and she distributed 200 of these herself over the great county in which she lives.

"It is people who own no real estate," said Mrs. Mitchell, the other day, "who are in favor of Single Tax, also the ignorant class, and those who take no newspaper at all. It is a shame that such men are allowed to vote at all on anything pertaining to taxation, while thousands of intelligent people, who are heavy taxpayers, must have their homes taxed away from them by such ignorant persons."

"Union county is one of the counties selected by that 'wolf in sheep's clothing,' U'Ren, so we will all have to help in the fight. I am an old woman, but not too old to work in the good cause."

Mrs. Mitchell says that the whole of her section is up in arms. Every property owner in eastern Oregon, from the man or woman who owns a lot to the wheat farmer, is fighting what is known to be a confiscation of their homes, declares this old woman fighter for the "common good."

Mrs. Mitchell, despite her years, worked arduously in the campaign petitions, distributed 200 books, circulated Single Tax. She circulated colored cards and gave her time freely. In addition, she expended her own money in the fight.

And when a person is willing to spend real money in a fight for a vital principle it must be conceded there is real enthusiasm for what she knows to be right.
