It seems that the days of the Brownies were not over yet, as the writer discovered the other morning some of their work during the night. They had taken his buggy from his barn, and in its place left an old broken down buggy. After diligent search he finally located his own buggy about a quarter of a mile from his home. Surely the days of mystery are not over.

For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles there is nothing better. Only 25c at all Druggists.

The famous Sunday chicken dinner at the Regal cottage was enjoyed by an unusually big crowd from Portland. The real good country style chicken dinner the Regals serve is like a story that's real good. Lucky Dell!

R. Forbes, our storekeeper at Cedarville, is getting up a petition for a new county road running west from Cedarville along Johnson creek to Jenne station. Mr. Forbes knew what he was about when he got that up. We certainly are much in need of a road likethat as it cuts off quite a distance, and also does away with several ugly hills, and last but not least, means the opening of several large tracts of land. So let's all get together and help the good thing along by stepping lively before it gets cool again.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Moodie and family who were stopping at Springhill farm, moved to Portland Monday where they intend to make their home in the future. Mr. Moodie has a position with the O. R. & N. railway company in the advertising department.

The Springhill farm house is being improved by another addition. Walter Metzler is doing the work.
