

SANDY CREAMERY PAYS PATRONS

it succeed? Yes. It is succeeding it is paying. After paying all expenses, farmers are getting 30 cents for their butter fat which is said to be better than the older butter factories are paying, and it is thought this can be made better still for the milk producers of the Sandy valley.

There is every indication that the Mt. Hood Co-operative creamery will be a permanent and well-paying institution and will be of great benefit to all its patrons. Being co-operative in character it can be made a strong organization if each member takes a thorough interest in it.

COUNTY FAIR PLANS MATURE

hibits will be put in the new wing which will be built within the next month.

A better system of arranging the furrow attractions is being planned and the furrow will be well defined from the entrance to the race track gate. The ball ground will remain where it is, for this year at least, and the parade will encircle the flower garden where the livestock comes out.

The two pillars from the Elks' court of honor, which were given the association, will be erected and connected with an arch at the main entrance to the grounds. They have been wired and will be connected up so that the illumination of the entrance will be better than ever it was before.

The racing card of the Driving association promises to give an attractive feature of this year's fair. Several of the best horses in the Northwest are sure to be here and the sport of all sports will be the most interesting feature for three days.

Arnold's shows including the Ferris wheel will be on the furrow this year. There will probably be two merry-go-rounds and no lack of other amusements for every minute.

An effort is being made to reorganize the Gresham Band under the leadership of Dr. H. H. Ott, to furnish the concert music during the fair. Richards' orchestra will be at the dancing pavilion every afternoon and evening.

Altogether the fair offers every promise of being the biggest and best of all. Nothing but a calamity can stop it, although a baptism of Oregon mist would be a dampener on some features. The enthusiasm is growing as the time grows shorter and pretty soon things will hum as never before. "Meet me on the furrow."
