HOT WEATHER WEAKNESS

Overcome the Debilitating Effect of Hot Weather With this Guaranteed Tonic.

Hot weather is weakening to most people, and has a very debilitating and devitalizing effect on many. The heat increases exhaustion and results in a greater strain on the various organs of the body, often impairing the health of some one or more of them.

To help renew your bodily strength to assist in restoring energy and vitality to the various organs of your body, to correct the run-down, listless, weakened condition brought on by hot weather and other causes, we have a remedy that has been tried and proven time and again in similar cases that have come under our observation. It is Digesto-Malt Tonic. We do not hesitate to guarantee that it will prove efficacious in your case—or money back. If it does not help to make you feel good, vigorous, stronger and more energetic, if it does not improve your appetite, your sleep and the condition of your blood—your money back. Price, 25c. Sold in this community only at our store. The Rexall Store.

Pleasant Home

Bramhall Family Reunion.

A reunion of the members of the Bramhall family assembled at the home of John Bramhall Saturday, Aug. 19. This being the first occasion of its kind when every member of the immediate family was present.

The main feature of the day was a chicken dinner, which was heartily enjoyed by twenty-five persons.

Musical selections were rendered throughout the day, games were played and contests held. Officers were elected and committees appointed to complete an organization of an annual reunion.

The officers are as follows: John Bramhall, president; Wm. Bramhall, vice president; Mrs. Thos. Owens, treasurer; Miss Lyda M. Bramhall, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Bramhall, chaplain.

Those present were: Mrs. M. A. Bramhall, Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. John Bramhall, Pleasant Home; Mrs. Thos. Owens, Manor, Wash.; Mrs. Jos. Wood, Manhattan, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bramhall, Battle Ground, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Bramhall, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gotham, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bramhall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bramhall, Troutdale; the Misses Lyda M. Bramhall, Chrystal, Lillian and Faith Bramhall, Florence and Marie Bramhall, Willma and Grace Gotham, Masters Carl Bramhall, Lloyd and Kenneth Bramhall.

A very pleasant surprise was given at the home of Joe Albel last Saturday evening. About twenty young people were present and spent the evening in games and music and were also much favored with several recitations given by the Misses Canning and Leo Canning. A delicious luncheon was served. The guests departed at a late hour after having spent a most enjoyable evening.

Several hundred people were viewing the new townsite Sunday. Many made the first payment on their future home.

About thirty young people were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bankus on Tuesday evening in honor of their son John who is spending the week with his parents before returning to Berkeley to resume his work there. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing games and a delicious luncheon was enjoyed by all.

Miss Kate Banfield was the guest of Miss Ida Miller. She was a former resident of this place.

Mrs. Martin Lenartz made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mrs. Stevens made a recent business trip to Portland.

Duncan Relatives Reunite.

The home of J. R. Duncan was the scene of a very happy family reunion last Monday. There were present Mrs. Duncan's mother Mrs. A. Frank of Portland, her brothers A. Frank of Nicaragua, and Tom Frank, her sisters, Mrs. Zingshiem and Mrs. Tyrrell of Portland, Mrs. Young of Elmwood, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Rose Behrens of South Bend, Washington. A brother-in-law Mr. Tyrrell of Portland and a sister-in-law Mrs. Alice Frank of Neelsville, Wisconsin, were also there, and the following nieces: the Misses Iva Young, Effie Tyrrell and Helen Behrens. Especial interest was aroused by this reunion from the fact that two of the guests, Tom Frank and Mrs. Alice Frank, were unexpected, and they did not even know where the brother was. Mrs. Duncan's home was beautifully decorated, the dining room with golden banded lilies and ferns, and the parlor with pink and white roses and baby breath. It goes without saying that a sumptuous dinner was served. It was a reunion long to be remembered.

Miss Zena Neibauer returned Sunday from a visit to her brother, Melvin Long of Oregon City and sister Mrs. Ormsby of Portland.

Wm. Bell and sister Mrs. Anna Jonsrud of Sandy were visitors at the home of J. R. Duncan Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Jack visited Mrs. Shetterly and family Sunday.

Mrs. B. C. Altman came home from Bull Run while the weather was so rainy, but returned Monday to finish her outing.

Mr. and Mrs. DeHaven were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Day Sunday.

Indian Killed on Track.

Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it is that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of Grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all Druggists.

Cottrell

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ball were Gresham visitors Saturday.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the Barnum & Bailey circus held in Portland Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Griffin of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beers here latter part of last week.

J. Taylor of Pleasant Home and W. Carpenter of this place left Saturday for Mt. Hood where they expect to spend some time fishing and hunting.

Mrs. James Spier returned Sunday from Woodburn where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elbert Killen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Goger spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Duncan of Scenic.

Glenn Rusher of Gresham is visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Robert Lansdowne.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Jack of Scenic were the guests of Mrs. E. Shetterly Sunday.

The farmers around Cottrell are certainly glad to see the smiling face of old Sol once more.

Mr. Halfpenny of Portland and Mrs. Brown of Ocean Park were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Craswell Sunday.

Mrs. Doughton and daughters, Elsie and Bertie and son Ellis are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ruegg.

Though the farmers in the neighborhood complain that the recent rain did some damage to their grain, they say it has helped the fall potatoes greatly.
