

E. W. AYLSWORTH

The Gents' Furnishing Man. The Store with UP-TO-DATE Goods. Our stock is certainly great. All the New shapes and styles of the Florshiem, Packard and Selz Dress Shoes, at a Very Moderate Price of $3.50 to $ 5.00

Call and Judge for yourself. We have a fine line of Ladies' and Children's Shoes, and late cuts. We are closing out our White Canvas Shoes for $2.15 and Newbuck for $3.15. Extremely low prices while they last.

HATS! HATS!
We have the Conqueror $1.50 and $3.00 hat and a large amount of hats to choose from, making it convenient for you to get most any style you like and wear the Best Hat on the Market

FURNISHINGS
Herman Wile Guaranteed Clothing, Ready-Made Freshman Cut, Every suit Guaranteed Lamm & Co., Tailors, head-quarters at our place. Exact measurements taken and when this is done the suits certainly fit.
Shirts, Pants, Underwear, Collars, Ties, Sox, Suspenders, Belts and Gloves.

HEADQUARTERS for Stall & Dean Athletic Rough Neck Sweaters, heavy weight sweater for $6 and Everybody is wearing them. Extra heavy weight sweaters for $6 and $6.50.

GRESHAM

J. A. Brande, who came last summer from Minneapolis, started yesterday for his former home, where he has old position as bookkeeper for a large grain dealing firm. Mrs. Brande and daughter Florence will return later. Mr. Brande retains his interest in the Outlook farm owned by Brande Bros., and C. W. Albertson.

A. M. Wilkinson has installed electricity in his house in Regner's addition.

C. A. Hoffman, who is now living in one of the Cleveland houses on Main, is building a fine modern bungalow on Cleveland avenue. It will have four large rooms down stairs, with hall and bath and two rooms and sleeping porch upstairs. There is an acre of ground, with a good well. Water will be pumped into a tank and the house will be fully piped. Mr. Hoffman is pressman for Peaslee Bros., in Portland and goes back and forth each day.

Col. E. D. Evans and wife of Portland visited with T. H. Dodge and family on Sunday. Col. Evans is depot master at the North Bank depot in Portland.

Mrs. Jas. Elkington, Miss Grace Hessel and Mrs. Elkington's friend, Mrs. Jarboe of Little Falls, Minn. are spending the week at Seaside. Word comes from them that they are having a delightful outing.

W. K. Hamilton sold two acres of his land in Whitehead's addition to Miss Isabell McGregor a teacher of Hood River. The tract has a small house on it which the owner will rent for a time, but later expects to build and make her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Manning returned Friday from a delightful trip to Tillamook. Mr. Manning took up his duties as mail carrier yesterday.

Mrs. W. E. Wood is in Portland visiting with Mrs. Mabel Meade. Burton Meade is here, staying with Grandma Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton and daughters Marie and Irma were in Gresham yesterday calling on old friends. Mr. Hamilton's family were formerly residents of Gresham and have a wide circle of friends here. They are moving to St. Johns from Wanatchee, Wash., where Mr. Hamilton recently sold his business.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood are camping at Bull Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McKinney and daughter Alice, and Harry Truitt were down from Bull Run to spend Sunday.

Mrs. Lillie Wheeler and children of Yocolt, Wash., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colby Mars-ton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Emerson of Troutdale, spent Sunday with Mr. Emerson's sisters, Mrs. W. K. Hamilton and Mrs. Geo. Moffitt.

W. K. Hamilton recently bought two lots in Whitehead addition adjoining his property, which gives him six lots.

The following are among the guests registered during the past three days at the Congdon: J. C. Friendly, Benj. L. Smith and family, R. J. Grundy and wife, Emon Chaloupka, John Reid, all of Portland, also Miss Norma McCallum and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McDougal, of Lents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Todd are spending a few days at Seaside.

Mrs. A. Robinson and daughter, Lula, who have been visiting Mrs. Robinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Holliday, have returned to their home at Toronto, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brash of Walla Walla have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Holliday. Mrs. Brash is Mrs. Holliday's sister.

Word was received by O. Thomas, of the death this morning, of L. C. Palmer at his home near Vancouver, Wash. Mr. Palmer was a brother of O. A. Palmer formerly of Boring, both men being well known lumber manufacturers of Bridal Veil, Boring and other points. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday at his late home.

It is reported work will soon begin on the new library building on Main street.

Plans and specifications for the new city hall are in the hands of the committee and a call for bids will be made in a few days, when they are finally passed on by the council.

A paragraph in the daily paper reported the death of a George Parker at Marshfield, but there is every reason to believe it is not the George Parker who recently moved from here to Marshfield.

Bert Lindsey's store shows a new departure in window decorations, that is, an attractive price pinned on attractive displays.

It is reported that Mrs. Wilkie is very sick at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wright are entertaining their son from Wisconsin at their home in Whitehead's addition.

J. H. Hoss lost a valuable horse Sunday.

Miss Winnifred Hopkins is visiting with friends in Seattle. She is enroute to Aberdeen, S. D., where she expects to spend next winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair took dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Calkins.

Lester Spencer and children Harry and Bertha are away on a ten days trip by team to Tillamook and return. They are having a fine time and are expected home the latter part of this week.

D. C. Ross and wife have returned from a trip to Rockaway beach.

Miss Marie Remp of Minneapolis spent Sunday with Miss Eva Anderson.

The Ladies' Aid will meet for work next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Emma Shultz. All women interested in the work of the church are invited.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet next Thursday afternoon at the Baptist church. Large attendance is desired as it will be the last meeting before the national convention to be held in Portland Oct. 19-25. The Union has voted to contribute a dollar a member toward the expense of entertaining the convention. Anyone desiring to help may hand contributions to Mrs. S. S. Thompson, treasurer, or Mrs. Gust Larson secretary of the local Union.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hartley and Mrs. E. Thompson returned last night from Seaside where they had spent a very enjoyable week. While there they bought lots at Cannon Beach which they expect to improve.

E. G. Kardell, who has been ill for the past week, is slightly better today.

Mrs. Gilman is assisting as clerk in Shattuck's store. Many features are beginning to show feminine taste.

Miss Grace Lawrence went to Seaside Saturday for an outing.

Harold Kern and Harry Wirtz returned last night after a week's outing at Long Beach, Washington.

Miss Lenquist of Pendleton is a guest of Mrs. J. J. Wodeage. The ladies are visiting friends in Portland today.

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters" he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. Its only to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at all Druggists.

Jenne Station Is Blessed

Continued from page 1.

tract of land and have the largest and best appointed nursery and tree yard on the Pacific coast. Welcome, Messrs. J. Feser and O. Griesel to Jenne Station and we trust you will prosper.

Walter Metzler, the superintendent of the Springhill farm, left his post Saturday to visit his uncle and friends at Kalama, Washington. He expects to return Tuesday.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

Ask the cook which range she likes the best, Her answer will without a question be the

LAUREL

BEST by TEST

Sterling & Kidder's

Hardware Store
In the Gresham Investment Company's New Building.
GRESHAM, OREGON

NEW LIST OF BIG

AUCTION

Now in Preparation

$5000 WORTH OF STOCK

Implements and Furniture added to former list.

20 Hogs and Pigs.
15 Cows and Calves.
12 Fine Horses, Mules.
$500 in Draperies.
$3000 Fine Furniture.
$500 Electric Fixtures
$2000 Automobile. $1000 in Carpets and Rugs.
Stoves, Sewing Machines, Incubators, Brooders, Buggies, Harness and Hundreds of other things.

Send for list

Auction Sat., Aug. 24 9 a.m.
Merrill's Rose Vista Farm
Terry, Ore., Base Line Road

dent of the Springhill farm, left his post Saturday to visit his uncle and friends at Kalama, Washington. He expects to return Tuesday.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.

J. B. Sommer, of Long Beach, California, was out looking over the country, with a view of establishing an up-to-date grocery store carrying groceries, confectionery, ice cream and small drug sundries. He says that Jenne Station looks good to him. He could hardly believe there were so many people got off the cars here on a Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and Jon Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, of Portland, spent the week and at their country home, the Springhill farm.

Dell Regal worked overtime Sunday feeding the multitudes at his little up-to-date country hotel. Dell is becoming famous for his chicken and crawfish dinners. Among those served yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and the Misses Jean, Esther and Beatrice Tyler, Messrs. F. V. Ford, L. D. Schmidt, Martin L. Peters and John D. O'Dell. They all partook of a chicken dinner, and when they left in their autos they all began to "crow," which Mr. Regal thought was very "fowl."

At a meeting of the Jenne Station improvement association recently it was decided to recommend to the county court that the residents of this section desired the new concrete bridge across Johnson creek at Jenne station, be named the Lightner

bridge, in token of our appreciation of the efforts and thought of Mr. Lightner as county commissioner, has given this section in caring for the roads, bridges, and the oiling that has been done in the past. The members of the Jenne Station Improvement association do not believe in keeping the alabaster box of love and friendship sealed until their friends are dead, we want to fill their lives with sweetness now and speak approving cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier. The flowers they may have had coming for their coffins we send them now, we annoint our friends before hand. Post mortem kindness does not cheer one when he's dead.

Plato Jenne, Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne and Miss Belle Beard, were callers at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal Sunday.

Edward Holman and family of Portland were visitors at Jenne station last week, and are so impressed with the country and the generosity of the people living here that they expect to purchase a small tract and erect a country home.