Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers everywhere.

Notice.
Notice is hereby given that on the 28th day of August, 1912, I impounded one light colored Jersey heifer (with horns) about two years old, in the city limits, of the city of Fairview, and notice is hereby further given that unless the owner or other person having an interest in same shall claim possession of said heifer and pay all costs and charges of the keeping of same, with advertising thereof, together with the fees, said animal will be sold at auction to pay such fees and charges.

The sale will be held at 10 o'clock a. m., on Saturday the 14th day of September, 1912, in the city pound, east of the schoolhouse, Fairview.

RINALDO HUNTER,
City Marshal.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers everywhere.

A dairy record should be kept of each cow in the stable. In a year's time a dairyman will know by practical demonstration what cows are paying him and those that are not. The Outlook has one of the best monthly record blanks for the purpose. Send for sample and prices.

ITS HANDY TO HAVE AROUND

A Remedy for Many Uses That is Guaranteed by Gresham Drug Co. Something that should be in the medicine closet of every house and in the grip of every traveler is Rexall Mentholine Balm.

We seldom hear of a remedy that can fill so many emergency needs. This is because it is designed especially for relieving pain and as an antiseptic. Menthol, known generally as a reliable antiseptic and anodyne, or pain reliever, is one of the chief ingredients.

If you have Rexall Mentholine Balm in the house you will find it handy in dozens of cases—neuralgia and headache resulting from neuralgia, toothache, chilblains, bruises, hives, insect bites, itching, piles, nasal catarrh, hay fever, asthma of nasal origin, sciatica, to relieve irritation caused by the wind or sun, for use after shaving.

Rexall Mentholine Balm is very soothing and grateful to any sore, inflamed or tender skin or the membranes of the mouth, nose or throat. It is cooling in effect, and penetrating, helping to quiet the irritated nerves and restore comfort. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction—or money back. Price, 25 cents. Sold in this community only at our store. The Rexall Store.

Council meeting tonight.

The library will be open the usual hours afternoons and evenings beginning today, Miss Haile having returned from her vacation. Miss McNeil, who has substituted during the past month, has done efficient service, but the reading room being open only afternoons, and many persons away on vacations, has cut down the attendance and circulation the lowest of the year. It is hoped that interest will be renewed in the use of the books and the attendance during this month.

Harvey Raney distinguished himself recently at Seaside, by going with a boat to the rescue of a drowning woman in the Necanicum river. Another man pushed out a boat to give what assistance he could, but he had no oars, and was thus greatly handicapped. Between the two the woman was saved, but it is certain that without Harvey's prompt assistance she would have perished.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair on Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Raney and children, Harvey and Orel, and Mrs. T. R. returned from Seaside Saturday.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in the M. E. church Thursday, Sept 5, at 2:30 p. m. The annual election of officers will be held. A good attendance at the state fair to attendance is desired.

W. Roger is being assisted in his store in the Regner building, by his brother who came last week from Missouri.

Mrs. Wm. Dahlquist has returned from a summer sojourn at Seaside.

Mrs. Ammerman spent Sunday with her niece Mrs. Sam Carrol east of Gresham.

Mrs. F. W. Honey is entertaining her brother-in-law George Else, his daughter Lois and son Willard from Antler, N. D. Miss Else will remain with Mrs. Honey's family for the school year and attend Gresham high school. She will also take lessons in voice culture in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. German have returned to their home in Cleveland addition. They have been at Bay-ocean all summer for Mrs. German's health. She has been greatly benefitted by the change.

Mrs. S. Binder and daughter Miss Amanda Binder, who recently came from Kalamazoo, Mich., are spending a few days with Cleve Binder.

A fiercely burning flu at the residence of Mrs. Rose Metzger, Sunday night, alarmed those in that neighborhood. A hose cart was taken to the scene to prevent any possible damage.

C. R. Keller started Sunday for Mt. Vernon, Washington, where he will remain for some time.

Miss Susan A. Gearey of Hood River is spending the week with Mrs. C. S. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Schneider have taken rooms over Duke's confectionery store. The studio will not be moved. Mr. Schneider's photographic work compares well with the best. His studio will be open on Sundays by appointment.
