Frank D. Hunt, Jr., who has been employed at the depot here as helper for the past few months, resigned his position Saturday and returned to Portland where he will enter college in the near future. Frank is the son of F. D. Hunt, traffic manager of the P. R. L. & P. Co. A Mr. Raney of Gresham is assisting here now.

A social party was given in Ritter's hall Saturday evening. About 40 young people were present and the evening was spent in games and dancing after which all returned home at midnight.

J. W. Roots has left for Seaside to spend a few days with relatives who are camping there.

The "Lincoln Annuity Union" lodge was organized here last Friday evening in the Live Wire hall by District Organizer Mrs. E. E. Wright and Mrs. Bessie Rehberg. The following officers were appointed to serve the remainder of the year: Speaker, Claude F. Cross; vice-speaker, Carl Gregson; clerk, Miss Eva Dodd; treasurer, Roy McKClung; past speaker, Robert McCarroll; chaplain, Inace L. Jones; inside doorkeeper, W. Miller; physician, Dr. S. P. Bittner. About 20 members were taken in and tomorrow night a large class is expected to be initiated. Meetings will be held every Wednesday evening in the Live Wire hall.

Mrs. Amy L. Morand and mother, Mrs. E. Roots returned home from Seaside last evening where they have been for the past few months. Owing to the increase in business an addition is being built on the Boring restaurant and confectionery store.

Many Driven from Home

Every year in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take the safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough, and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

pany has added several thousand more shrubs and plants to their nursery stock and will add many more thousands as soon as the land is cleared for more space which is being done at present by a party from Portland.

Mr. Howerton occupied most of his time last week by hauling potatoes to Portland. Mr. Howerton reports having an exceptionally big crop this year.

The Regal cottage was crowded to overflowing Sunday. Twenty-two guests were served a-la-Regal.

Master Maurice Mann, proprietor of the guinea pig farm shipped 75 of them to Oklahoma last week and has an order for 150 more from Nebraska, to be shipped the latter part of next week. It keeps Maurice humming to fill the many orders which have been coming in lately.

It is rumored that a party from Portland was out looking for a suitable spot for a grocery store recently. It would come in mighty handy here.

Sandy

SANDY, Sept. 15.—F. E. Beckwith the jeweler, was in Portland yesterday on business.

W. J. Wirtz, the hardware and furniture man, spent Sunday in Gresham.

The painters are at work on the new German Parochial school.

E. R. Ernberger and W. S. Van Kuren, with their wives, and Ray VanKuren, composed a party that spent the afternoon and evening last Friday in Sandy. Mr. Ernberger is president of the Multnomah Central railroad and Mr. VanKuren is financially interested in the same company. The object of the visit to Sandy was to make the final settlements to the right of way for the railroad.

Willis Davis is on a ten days' outing at Government Camp and vicinity.

The Sandy subordinate Grange held their regular meeting last Saturday. A profitable and enjoyable meeting was held and lunch was served.

Mr. Curtis, manager of the Mt. Hood Co-operative Creamery, was in Portland on business Saturday.

Out of respect to the late Emperor of Japan, all work at the Takao brothers' mill on the Marmot road, was suspended last Friday. On Saturday they did not resume operations on account of the high wind. It being dangerous to work in the woods. On account of this temporary suspension, there were quite a number of visitors to Sandy from this camp, the latter part of the week.

C. W. Howard returned to Portland Sunday evening.

P. H. Garrity and David O'Donnell of the engineering corps of the Multnomah Central railway, spent an enjoyable week end in and around Portland.

During the past week considerable threshing has been going on in the neighborhood. While the grain is not up to the usual high standard the ranchers are well pleased considering the wet weather of the past month.

During the illness of Miss Netsell, Mrs. Cooper is assisting at the Sandy hotel.

On Saturday afternoon, the American Brought company of St. Louis, Missouri, brought suit against H. V. Edwards of Sandy to recover on a contract. The jury found a verdict in favor of the American Table company and assessed the costs against the plaintiff. It is generally understood that Mr. Edwards will carry this to the higher court.

The creamery has a larger shipment of cream today for their churning tomorrow, than they have had since they started operations.

The camping ground at the foot of Meinig's hill near Cedar creek, is becoming a favorite resort on Sunday afternoon. Besides some otwnspeople there were twelve automobile parties from outside.

The price of the Laurel Range in Sterling & Kidder's window is $49.50 this week.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah.

James McLeod, Plaintiff, vs Alma McLeod, Defendant.

To Alma McLeod:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from August 27th, 1912, the date of the first publication of this summons and if you fail to answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, for a decree of the court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the said plaintiff and yourself and for an absolute divorce. This summons is published and is served upon you in pursuance of an order of the Honorable Robert G. Morrow, presiding judge of the above entitled court made on the 24th day of August, 1912, directing the same to be published for six consecutive and successive weeks in the Gresham daily Outlook, a weekly paper of general circulation printed and published in Multnomah county, Oregon, the date of the first publication being August 27th, 1912, and the date of the last publication October, 8th, 1912.

Jenne Station

O. Rowling, Dr. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland and the Misses Anna and Nelly Mann of Portland were visitors at the Springhill farm Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McCoon of Portland were callers on Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Jenne Sunday. They were greatly surprised at the improvements here as they haven't been at Jenne station for several years.

Frank Gillgrist is busy now days building fences around his 27 acre tract which he bought recently. He also contemplates building a five-room cottage in the near future. Frank says while he really doesn't need a house of that size, he thinks it's best to have it big enough in case of emergency.

This is the season for county and district fairs. These are worthy institutions and should be liberally patronized. They will encourage better husbandry. Patronize your local fair.

Sunday being the first real nice day for almost a month, has caused people to flock out from Portland to enjoy the fresh clean air in the country, and Jenne station's picnic grounds had its share of them.

F. G. Marasco is building a new cellar to hold his crop of potatoes which is unusually large. The cellar will be 12x14, 6 feet high and will be of lumber, double walled, with sawdust between the walls.

Henry Kimel is doing some fall plowing. He believes in getting an early start.

Jim Dyer, otherwise known as "Pancake Jim" is cutting the winter's wood for Dell Regal. Jim is always a handy man with the saw and ax, as he had fifteen years' experience along that line in lumber camps on the coast.

Hide your money in our Bank: it will be safe there.

The best place to hide money is where they have vaults for safely protecting it. Every week we see newspaper accounts of people having been robbed. Sugar bowls, rag-bags, under the carpet, behind pictures, and all those other places where people conceal money, are well known to burglars. Hide it in OUR BANK, then you know you can get it when you want it.
