

FRUIT EXHIBIT TO BE FEATURE

Fruit growers of eastern Multnomah and eastern Clackamas will lead it to their advantage and read carefully the list of prizes and awards to be made for all classes of fruits at the fair next week.

Superintendent H. A. Lewis, of the horticultural department is very anxious to have a large exhibit and is urging every orchardist to get busy with boxes and plates for a display that will show our visitors what can be done right here at home.

Mr. Lewis calls particular attention to the big premium of $50 and $30 for first and second awards to be given any ten boxes of one variety commercially packed apples. To the end that the displays shall be made, he offers, if the fruit is on hand by the 27th or 28th to have an expert do the packing for which the owners will have to pay about 10 cents a box and furnish standard boxes. The fruit must be entered with Secretary Kardell.

Mr. Lewis will do the rest so that the judges may have every facility for doing his part understandingly. To make ten boxes a few extra boxes should be brought along as the expert will find some culls. The lucky winners of the first and second prizes will get fancy prices for their apples besides the cash awards.

Those having apples to exhibit, or any other kinds of fruit for that matter, may report by telephone or otherwise to E. L. Thorpe, who is assisting Mr. Lewis for a few days to get the biggest fruit display that was ever seen in Gresham.

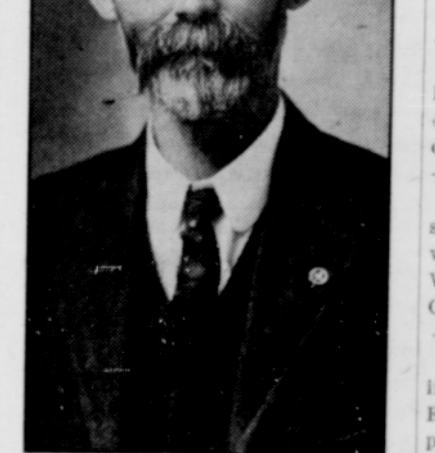

Mr. Thorpe will visit some of the fruit growers but cannot get to all of them which is the more reason that all fruit growers should get busy and look up their fruit trees before it is too late.

CLACKAMAS CO. PROHIS CONVENE

C. W. Clark, secretary Clackamas county Prohibition committee, has given out the following report of the Clackamas county Prohibition convention held at Oregon City last Saturday afternoon. Dr. T. B. Ford was elected chairman of the Prohibition committee and a full county ticket was named.

B. Lee Paget, the former chairman, sent in his resignation on account of his candidacy for United States senator. Inspiring and instructive addresses were given by Dr. Milliken, Dr. Ford, Attorney Hicks, Prof. Bowen and others. O. A. Stillman, candidate for congress, spoke at the convention in the afternoon and made a stirring public address in the evening.

The convention adopted the following resolutions: "The Prohibition party is the only truly progressive party as evidenced by its broad platform utterances of the past, by its forty years of uncompromising preaching and practicing of political righteousness it has made possible the present progressive wave and demand for national purification.

"Therefore, we give our unequal-

WANT SCHOOL DIST. AS IT IS

At a meeting of the Commercial club on Wednesday evening a resolution was adopted disapproving of the division of several school districts for the purpose of forming a new one. The proposition to take a slice from the Gresham, Sycamore and Lynch districts and to form a new district with Linneman as the center was mentioned in the last issue of the Outlook and met with instant disapproval on the part of the many who favor the consolidation plan of districts as being better in every way than so many small districts.

During the session of the club it was brought out that there is a movement in Portland to get before the legislature a bill to make all of Multnomah county one consolidated school district. This idea met with opposition from the club as it was believed that such a condition would be to the disadvantage of the country and all in favor of the city.

Concerning the Agricultural high school the club announced that if the people here want the proposition on the ballot at the November election they still have about two weeks in which to get 1500 names on an initiative petition.

There will be a meeting in Portland tomorrow, Saturday, which will be attended by representatives from Gresham. It will deal with all these school district matters and the ideas of eastern Multnomah will be presented in accordance with the views of the club.

Another matter brought to the attention of the club was a proposition from C. S. Smith to go to the Minneapolis Land show in November provided the Commercial clubs of Gresham and the other towns around would pay his actual car fare. He would go in the interests of this part of the county and take along such literature as might be provided. The proposition was favorably received and it is believed that Gresham will raise $50 toward the expense. The civic associations of other places near here will be asked to co-operate that all may share in the benefits of the propositions.

PLEASANT HOME ASKS POSTOFFICE

Two petitions to the postoffice department have been sent to Washington by the people of Pleasant Home and vicinity, one of which, if granted, will have considerable effect on the postoffice at Gresham. The other petition concerns rural route No. 2 and will make some improvement which will benefit the carrier and several of his patrons.

The first petition asks for the establishment of a postoffice at Pleasant Home, to be followed by the organization of a rural route which will cover considerable new territory never before supplied by carrier. It will also take several miles away from route No. 2, from Gresham, necessitating a reorganization of the routes here and possibly the elimination of a route.

The proposed changes in the present No. 2 rural route would cut out three repeats, one of which is served also by Boring, No. 1. Another repeat is known as the Wilson hill service and is so fierce during the winter time as to necessitate the carrier going over it on foot. The third repeat is a small one and has only one box to serve, hence it can be taken off without hardship to anyone, especially as the patron can move his box to another equally near point.

To make up for the loss of distance it is proposed to take in a little new territory around by the homes of Ralph and Theodore Nebauer and establish a repeat from the Lusted schoolhouse to the home of J. W. Robertson. The change in the rural route will probably be granted before winter, but that of establishing a new postoffice will wait until there is better service on the Mt. Hood line, when a mail contract will probably be given the company and several other post-offices will be supplied in a more direct manner than at present.

CITY HALL GOES TO JONES & CO.

Plans for the new city hall, prepared by the firm of Baker & Baker, architects, were approved by the city council and the contract was let on last Saturday evening to E. T. Jones & Co., for the sum of $2510. The specifications call for the completion of the building by December 14, except that the upper story which is destined to be used as an auditorium and general meeting place, for the fire department will not be finished under the present contract.

The building will be 30x40 feet, with a frontage on Roberts avenue. The basement will consist of three cells with steel doors and a wardrobe with a corridor running through. The walls are to be of cement blocks up to the second story; above that the structure will be of stucco on steel lath.

The main entrance is to be from Powell street, the lower floor to be divided into two parts. One side will contain the council chamber and recorder's office and entrance to the jail in the basement with a stairway to the upper story. On Roberts avenue the entrance to the engine room will serve the fire department for the fire fighting apparatus.

The perspective view of the structure shows a well proportioned building and one that will not only be an ornament to the city but well arranged for municipal purposes. It will be finished just in time for one last meeting of the present city council before the change in city officers to be chosen at the forthcoming election early in December.

In this connection it may not be amiss to state that only three of the present set of city officials will hold over another year.

Excavating for the basement of the structure began on Wednesday and is progressing rapidly. It will be ready for the cement work some time next week.

FAIR NOTES; AMUSEMENTS

Claude Smith, proprietor of the Gresham moving picture theater signed up with the Fair association yesterday for five more shows for the fair. This action on the part of Mr. Smith entirely eliminates all others from entering the grounds as amusement caterers, except the merry-go-round, which will be here again under the management of Mr. Glover, and such other free acts as the fair management may decide to provide.

Thomas Bros. will paint two new banners to be stretched across Main street at Powell and Division streets. Other advertising schemes are being considered, including the fronts of the Portland street cars.

A covering of thin muslin will be spread over the flowers in front of the pavilion as a protection from frost. It will be allowed to remain until the fair opens.

The art room is receiving a renovation and a new ceiling is being put up. The room will be lighted by the Beaver Gas plant this year for demonstration purposes.

The contract for moving the ticket office and setting up the pillars for the archway at the entrance has been let and the work will be done at once.

Death of Mrs. W. E. Wood

Katherine Brainard was born in Indiana, Sept. 13, 1856. She moved with her parents to Ohio when quite young, then to Illinois. Jan. 7, 1877, she was married to W. E. Wood, who survives her. They made their home in Okalahoma for some time, and about six years ago came to Oregon. Nearly all of that time has been spent in Gresham. To them were born four sons, all of whom were with her almost constantly during her last illness, and who, with the husband did everything possible for her comfort. The sons are Guy C. of Montavilla, Harry K. and Roy M. of Sandy and Wilbur W. of Troutdale. Mrs. W. R. Dallas of Damascus is a sister of Mrs. Wood. Besides these relatives, she leaves her aged mother-in-law, Mrs. E. B. Wood, who has made her home in the family for some time.

The death of Mrs. W. E. Wood, while not unexpected, brought a shadow of sadness to her many neighbors and friends in this vicinity. Her kindness of heart and charitable disposition won for her many friends who join in sympathy for the bereaved family.

The funeral service was held this afternoon at the family residence, by Dr. A. Thompson. Interment was in Gresham cemetery.

Rockwood

Rev. J. H. Wood will preach in the M. E. church at Rockwood at 11 a. m., next Sunday, Sept. 22.

Mrs. Shane and her son Clarence who have lived here for the past year have moved to Montaville. They have made many friends while here and will be greatly missed.

SANDY AFFAIRS ARE REPORTED

SANDY, Sept. 16.—Mr. Osborn, of the Forest Service, spent several days in Sandy this week on his way to the planting project on the Zig Zag. This is the biggest project of this kind the government has undertaken in this forest. Two camps are to be maintained, one in Cougar canyon, near the head of Roaring river, which is a tributary of the Clackamas, and one on Lost creek near Zig Zag mountain. An all about 16,000 acres are to be seeded with Douglas and Noble fir (red fir and larch). At present there are about 120 men at work and a carload of mules. R. S. Shelley is in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith had as guests last week Mrs. Beckwith's sister, husband and child, of Montavilla.

Miss Alice McGugin is spending the week at Mollala, the guest of her sister.

R. E. Esson is moving into his new store in the Shelley building.

Miss Nell Shelley was a Sandy visitor over Sunday. Miss Shelley enters Pacific University at Forest Grove this week.

An auto truck carrying grain to camp 5 broke through the bridge at Bull Run Monday and delayed traffic for several hours. Fortunately only the front trucks went through and no serious damage was done.

Now the east wind no longer blows we can again remember our benefits and forget our discomforts.

Guy L. Anderson, who is connected with the Portland office of the O. R. & N., was a Sandy visitor Sunday.

R. T. Dittert, the harness maker, made a short business trip to Portland and vicinity, on Tuesday.

Harvey Keres, who has spent the summer in and around Marshfield, Oregon, was in town Wednesday and Thursday shaking hands with his old friends here. He left Thursday for Okalahoma where he will enter Christian University in the second year of that institution's course of study for the degree of doctor of medicine.

An automobile party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Wolf, and Mrs. H. N. Schminky and Miss Wanda Hoffman, A. Bell, M. A. Deaton and Bruce Schminky spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christenson near Gresham. Mrs. Christenson, who was recently married is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf.

Theodore Bornstedt has taken a job of hauling gravel with his team for the county near Mayberry station on the Mt. Hood railroad.

Rev. F. M. Burch of Gresham, was a visitor to Sandy on Monday.

Roy Woods, the barber, has traded his Pope motorcycle for an Indian machine.

Dr. W. J. Ott, the Gresham dentist, was in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. George Williams, who has been ill for some time, and for the past month has been a patient in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland, is reported much improved.

Arrangements have been made for a dance in Shelley's hall on Saturday evening. This is one of a series of dances to be held there this fall and winter.

Work is progressing in the new camp of the Firwood Lumber company on the James DeShazer place. The machinery is being removed from their old camp on the middle Cherryville road and installed at their new location.

The deposits of the Clackamas County Bank are larger than at any other time since this bank started in business here nearly two years ago.

Lumber has been placed for the construction of a new platform in front of Donahue and Bell's livery barn.

W. James of Estacada, a supervisor of the county schools, was in town this week. He visited the schools of Sandy, Dover, Sandy Ridge and Firwood. Mr. James covers the territory that last year was in charge of C. F. Anderson, who is now principal of one of the public schools of Oregon City.
