Elkington, E. G. Kardell, C. Merrill, Roy Kern and A. Hevel. Mrs. Eastman won the prize and Mrs. Schneider received the consolation prize.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McKeever of LaCamas, Wash., have returned home from a week's visit with their daughter, Mrs. David A. Hood.

David A. Hood, who has recently visited many places in Washington and Oregon, reports the potato crop badly damaged by blight, in some places, it being almost a failure.

Miss Pearl Jones has returned from a two weeks' visit in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon of Montavilla called on Miss Laura Bulkeley at the First State Bank last Tuesday. Mr. Dixon is the proprietor of the Montavilla drug store.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sunday, it being conference Sunday. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 and Epworth League at 7 o'clock as usual.

Daily and Sunday Oregonian and Twice-a-week Outlook, special combination, 1 year, $7.75. (Regular price for Daily and Sunday Oregonian, $8.00.)

Lindsey Leads

Additions to our window display this week include a large crookneck from Mrs. B. W. Emery, a carrot summer squash, an Acorn squash from R. W. Calkins, and a display of several big American Wonder potatoes from J. Choido west of Gresham. Four of them together weigh 8 pounds. Another weighs 3 pounds, 2 ounces. E. C. Lindsey beats this however with one weighing 3 pounds, 12 ounces. We understand there are some four pound potatoes in the country, but we haven't seen them yet.

Troutdale

TROUTDALE, Sept. 18—An effort is being made to form a union high school here, combining this district with Nos. 8, 25 and 10. Seven pupils have already registered for the high school and it is expected to work up quite a large class in both the 9th and 10th grades. The public school opened on Monday, the 16th, with an enrollment of 51. Miss Ethel Hogue and Mrs. D. W. Grant are in charge.
