Lewis Shattuck

Pleasant Valley
 Mrs. G. N. Sager, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Kesterson at Kellogg, Oregon, came home Tuesday.
 Farmers are very busy in the potato fields these beautiful days. Friends of Chas. Kesterson are glad to see him able to ride out again.
 Saturday is grange day and the librarians, Miss Fox and Miss Isom are expected out, which means an interesting talk. All are invited for dinner and the lecture hour.
 Mrs. H. W. Snashall is suffering with erysipelas in one eye.
 A party of friends and relatives had a most enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Snashall, on Pleasant View avenue on Saturday last. The guests from out of town, "from Michigan," were Truman Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bateman and daughter Josie Miss Addie Bateman, a niece of Mr. Bateman's, Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Rowe. The time was spent in music and a good time in general, after which they all partook of a fine dinner, prepared by the host and hostess to which all did ample justice. At the close of the day when it was time to depart, one and all agreed they had had as good a time as they had enjoyed since coming from home and were well pleased with Oregon hospitality.

Pleasant Home

H. S. Hill, sheriff of Lewis county, Washington, is visiting with Mrs. Stephens a few days. Mrs. Hill is convalescent and under the medical care of Dr. McKinzie of Portland.
 Mrs. Blackburn of Cottrell spent the day Thursday with Mrs. Markell.
 Mrs. A. Lauderback is convalescent.
 The opening of the new store was well attended, over 300 people called during the day, leaving with many good wishes for the success of the enterprise.
 The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church met with Mrs. Hall and did considerable business. They have enlarged their sphere of work and are glad to welcome members.
 There will be preaching Sunday evening by the newly appointed pastor, Rev. W. L. Wilson.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fisher of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Markell on Sunday.
 The Womens' Civic Improvement club met this afternoon with Mrs. J. A. Stephens to further plans for the booth at the county fair.
 Mrs. S. Waybill is quite ill.
 Jack Frost was a visitor on the 25th and 26th of this month.
 Burrell McKinney has returned from the Country Club where he has been working for the past five months.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them. H. W. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers everywhere.

Melrose

Mr. and Mrs. Crosier of Portland visited Rev. Thos. Wiles and wife this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad are visiting in Linn county.
 Mrs. Richardson of Gresham visited her mother, Mrs. Stafford and sister, Mrs. Wallace several days. The hay baler is still in our community.
 The entertainment was a success. We enjoyed our "Rural Home" gasoline light very much.
 Miss Nellie Jones visited her sister, Mrs. Maud Goshie.
 Wm. Llewelling is visiting in Portland.
 Willie Jones is working in Portland.
 A fine linen shower was given Miss Ethel Mercer last Friday by her many friends.
 Chester Stafford and Miss Mercer were married Oct. 25 at the parsonage by Rev. A. B. Calder. They are two of our most respected young people and we wish them a pleasant and prosperous journey through life.

Springdale

Ben Caston of Seattle, Washington, representing the Oregon Agriculturist of Portland and The Ranch of Seattle was canvassing our neighborhood yesterday and was a guest at Grant Bell's.
 H. Poulsen's aged mother expects to make her future home with her son.
 Mrs. Grant Bell and Mrs. S. Bates made a visit to the school last Tuesday.
 Miss Lena Bell was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. P. D. Gregg, Tuesday.
 H. S. Reeves took a load of apples to Gresham Wednesday.
 A. B. Kerslake is very ill with rheumatism and may have to go to the Hot Springs.
 Mrs. A. L. Maybee made a business trip to Corbett Wednesday.

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, Sept. 27.—One of the best built roads in the county has just been completed from Fairview hill to No. 3 schoolhouse and work will start at once from the schoolhouse west to the city limits, giving a grand road from Fairview to the city and will reduce the travel wonderfully on the Base Line. D. W. McKay has taken considerable pains to build this road and is proud of his work, and has given teams and men steady work for an unusual length of time for road work and there will be some work yet on other roads.
 Our school board has just completed a nice wire fence around the school yard which is a credit to any school. Our school is progressing nicely under Prof. J. B. Lent and Miss Maud Michel. The ninth grade is being taught here this year.
 The city hall is being rushed to completion by contractor Axtell during this fine weather and will soon be occupied by our city dads. It is rumored that Mayor Whitney will give a genuine house warming and if so, ye editor will get a bid.

F. D. Axtell is preparing to move to the Zimmerman house which was just completed before the death of Mr. Zimmerman and has not been occupied since. Mrs. Zimmerman is living with her son in Portland.
 A long felt want is being filled here now by the Sun Dial Milling company, they having established a wood and coal yard and can supply all necessary material for building. They are giving employment to several of our townsmen and can use more men for a short time.
 Miss Nancy Anderson, who is in the hospital and underwent an operation last week is reported to be getting along nicely but may have to suffer another operation before she leaves the hospital. Her school mates are praying for a speedy recovery.
 Grant Shaw will occupy Mrs. Jenkins' place for the next three years. Mrs. Jenkins and daughters have moved to Portland to engage in dressmaking.
 Mrs. Bertha Smith and family will occupy the Ashcraft house which has just been vacated by Elmer Jenkins, who has moved to Portland.
 Wm. Ellison and family, Mrs. Cornett and daughter Ivy, who have been sojourning on Laurel mountain the past 10 days, will return home the end of the week.
 Several of our citizens are taking in the Round-Up at Pendleton.
 Walter and Hobart Schram are going to compete for a prize in the coming fair, with vegetables they grew this season, showing the products that can be grown at Fairview.

Report of Church Work

Rev. A. B. Calder, who has been pastor of the M. E. church at Pleasant Home, returned from conference at Ashland on Tuesday. Rev. Calder was appointed by Bishop Cooke to the pastorate of the Yamhill church.
 Rev. and Mrs. Calder expect to move to their new home in a few days.
 Following is the report of the Pleasant Home charge for the past year: Paid for pastor's salary, $752; for foreign missions, $25; home missions, $25; board of general education, $2; children's fund, $4; Sunday School board, $5; conference claimants, $28; temperance society, $1; Woman's Home Missionary society, $8; Freedmen's Aid society, $3; Layman's association, $5; Wilamette University, $5; Ecumenical conference, $2; anti-saloon league, $12; central office Epworth League, $3; Episcopal fund, $6; paid on Pleasant Home parsonage debt $50.
