Powell Valley

Pupils of Powell Valley school sent representatives to the members of the school board yesterday, petitioning for a vacation for today that they might attend the county fair at Gresham. The board gladly granted their request.

This school is making splendid progress in every way. Music and sewing have been introduced. Miss Mary Harvey conducts a short music drill before the assembled school each morning. Each teacher conducts the sewing class in her own room.

GRESHAM

W. H. Woodard of Gervais was calling on old friends here last Sunday. Mr. Woodard was on the Herald staff here for a year or two.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Hopkins moved to their new work in Portland last Wednesday. Their going is a regret to their many friends.

C. E. Chipman and wife and children arrived Monday night from Houlton, Ore., on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chipman. They will remain here during the fair.

Wm. Green of Salem, brother of Mrs. Geo. F. Hopkins, called at the M. E. parsonage last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton and daughters, Marie and Irma, of St. Johns, former Gresham residents, were visitors at the Fair on Thursday.

We have in our window some beautiful short white spine cucumbers, which were grown by Mrs. J. C. Peterson of Cleveland avenue, Gresham. They are very smooth and almost white in color.

H. L. Bulkeley of Montavilla was a guest of his daughter, Miss Laura, yesterday, and also attended the county Fair.

Rev. M. T. Wire, the new pastor and will take charge of the work of the M. E. church, has arrived. He will preach next Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday school will be held as usual at 10:45 and Epworth League at 6:30 p.m.

Elsworth Raker of Troutdale is attending the Fair today.

Miss Winnifred Osburn will go in a few days to The Dalles, where she is called by the sickness of her sister. Miss Olive McCarter will take her place as telephone operator during her absence.

The regular meetings of both city council and Commercial club were omitted this week on account of the extra work of preparing for the fair.

Miss Viola Mathews has charge of the Outlook booth at the fair. This is also information booth and free check room, and the Outlook's pumpkin ballot box is located in front of the booth.

Several Gresham business houses have fine displays at the fair. Among them are R. R. Carlson, Hesse & Son, First State Bank, Sterling & Kidder and the Beaver Acetylene company.

Notice the attractive offers of enterprising Gresham merchants in this issue.

The special Mt. Hood train brought about a hundred and fifty wearers of the community badge yesterday, from Pleasant Home, Cottrell and Seenic, who enjoyed the fair attractions and partook of a community chicken dinner.

Miss Helen Hoss is demonstrator for the Sherman-Clay music house at their booth in the pavilion.

Our display window is attracting considerable attention. It's not so large, but almost as good as the 'real fair.

The Baptist Ladies' Guild has a large tent just inside the fair grounds, where they are operating an attractive cafeteria which is being generously patronized.

Fair officials estimate the attendance at the fair today at 3000. It would have been larger except for uncertainty as to weather conditions.

D. C. Ashmun of Portland has been visiting the fair and getting acquainted in town. He is an old newspaper man and of course gravitated to the Outlook office. His special interest at present is the promoting of the International order of Kangaroos of which he is supreme secretary. He says it is a working man's order, with industrial, fraternal, and sick benefits. The order owns and operates a factory at Nehalem. Mr. Ashmun was full of praise of the fair and wants others to read what he thinks of it and of Gresham. His signed article will be found elsewhere.

George Preston, of Eagle Creek, an old time Gresham resident, was in town today attending the fair.

Mrs. W. O. Gregory of Salem spent two or three days here this week visiting the fair. She was the guest of Mrs. Harry Pulfer.

Corbett

Mrs. Clara Smith and Miss Iva Reed went to Portland Saturday and spent the day with the latter's mother, Mrs. Myra Reed, at St. Vincent's hospital. The many friends of Mrs. Reed will be glad to know she is recovering from her recent operation for carcinoma of the throat and is expected home the last of the week.

Miss Irene Knapp spent the week end with her mother in the Egypt district.

Dr. Ralph Harris, who recently graduated from the New York Medical College, and is visiting his mother at Lents, came Friday and remained until Sunday visiting old time friends here. Dr. Harris went East seven years ago and has devoted the entire time to the study of medicine and surgery.

Miss Alice Rasmussen came down from Latourelle to spend the week end at home.

There will be preaching service at the Corbett schoolhouse Sunday evening, October 6th.

The school board recently purchased a fine new Webster's dictionary on an adjustable stand and also a new heating apparatus.

Donald Sprague spent Sunday in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Evans and daughter, Mrs. Victor Ellis, went to Mosier Saturday and expect to attend the fair at The Dalles this week.

Mrs. Corbett of Portland accompanied by a few friends spent a few days at her country home here recently.

Watch Us Grow ONE YEAR OLD

The past year has shown advancement in every part of the store. Bigger stock, better service, greater value giving and three times as much room as we started with.

Growth

The store's growth has been marvelous. What has been the cause of it all? Luck? No, indeed, for do you think that luck is the element that builds up merchandising?

Foundation Stones

This business has grown because it has kept faith with the public; because it is striving always to give best dollar for dollar merchandise; because it is based upon four foundation stones—
