"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon. Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 4, 1911, at the post office at Gresham, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Next Saturday has been designated by Governor West as "Clean up" day in every town and city in the state. This time it is not a moral crusade and to clean up the town don't mean to turn politics inside out.

Elsewhere will be found an article opposing a proposed law which is aimed at free speech in certain cities. It is not clear that the law, if passed, would be constitutional, and a further reason for opposing it is found in the fact that an almost identical law was defeated once before.

Another proposed law would prevent the working people from spending their earnings as they see fit. At least that is the analysis. In other words the boycott would be a punishable offense and a person could not recommend to his neighbors any course of action against those defrauding him.

The state board of Forestry will prepare a map of the state, showing the location of the various classes of timberland. This will facilitate co-operation with the United States Forest service building roads and trails and aiding in fighting fires.

Portland expects to have the biggest potato show ever held in the Pacific Northwest at the Land Show, November 18-23. Many entries are coming in and growers announce they will display ten or more boxes of tubers, each weighing 3 pounds.

The Columbia Brick Works have gone extensively into the making of tiles of various sizes. This will be a great advantage to farmers who use them in draining of land.

The home of A. J. Stout has been sold to W. H. Black. The present owners moved here during last week.

Robert Smith moved into the house vacated by August Hausman. Henry Beers returned from Cottage Grove Saturday evening.

Oregon Prosperous

Neither the coming election nor anything else can disturb the prosperity built upon the solid agricultural growth of the state of Oregon. The value of the 1912 crop in Oregon is fixed at over $126,000,000 by Dr. James Withycombe, director of the Oregon Experiment Station, probably the best authority on this subject in the whole state. The showing is a splendid one and assures prosperity to Oregon people. The estimate in detail follows: Wheat, 21,092,274 bu... $15,819,205 Oats, 14,744,046 bu... 5,602,737 Barley, 4,439,374 bu... 2,663,624 Clover seed, 125,000 bu... 1,050,000 Potatoes, 8,715,685 bu... 3,500,674 Hay, 1,374,201 tons... 12,376,809 Fruit... 6,750,000 Vegetables... 5,500,000 Hops, 85,000 bales... 3,750,000 Miscellaneous products... 9,500,000 Dairy products... 16,750,000 Poultry and eggs... 7,250,000 Wool, 17,500,000 lbs... 2,850,000 Mohair, 1,250,000 lbs... 375,000 Honey... 135,000 Livestock... 33,150,000 Total... $129,764,049

The state's onion crop is about 389 carloads.

The Willamette Valley is becoming widely known as a clover seed section. Four counties will ship seven carloads this year and between $600,000 and $700,000 will be distributed among the growers. The Eastern market takes the most of the Oregon product.

WANTS COMMON JUSTICE.

Working Men and Women of the State Oppose Malicious Laws.

In order to make a farce and a laughing stock of popular government and the initiative and referendum, two measures have been initiated by the big business interests which are deadly opposed to the rule of the common people. One proposed law limits free speech in cities of 5,000 or over, and is so glaring an example of class legislation that it is absolutely revolting to a right-thinking individual.

And the same people who are insistent that free speech should be hampered, are asking the citizens of the state of Oregon to legislate against the people to spend their earnings where and how they please. A direct and clean-cut analysis of the law proves that a farmer could not ask his neighbors to not patronize an establishment in which any course of action is so glaring an example of class legislation that it is absolutely revolting to a right-thinking individual.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS—Meet in Grange hall, Gresham, Sunday at 11 and Wednesday at 8 p. m. Sunday school at 12. Public invited.

The Best Light

AT THE LOWEST COST

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing light.

ELECTRICITY can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore,

ELECTRIC LAMPS can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

NO OTHER LAMPS possess these qualifications; therefore, it is not surprising that

ELECTRIC LAMPS are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.
