

LIBRARY, HALL AND FOUNTAIN

With two public buildings going up in Gresham just now and a public fountain in prospect the signs of prosperity are rather in the ascendant.

The new Carnegie library already shows something of its imposing appearance when it shall be completed.

The fountain to be built at the intersection of Main and Powell streets is of lesser importance than the two buildings mentioned but it will be of inestimable benefit when finished.

PATRONS AND TEACHERS MEET

The movement for the organization of a Patron-Teachers' society was launched at a well attended public meeting held last Friday night at the schoolhouse at Gresham.

Following an enjoyable program arranged by the teachers, in which many of the boys and girls took part, including the popular Butterfly chorus, an address was given by Principal G. R. Robinson.

The names of those present were almost without exception signed to a roll of members. There were 56 names.

All parents and teachers were to be considered members and every one interested is invited to attend the meetings.

The teachers were appointed a committee to arrange a program for the next meeting which will be held Friday night, November 15.

PLEASANT HOME, WEDDING BELLS

Wedding bells were ringing joyfully at Pleasant Home last Sunday.

At a pretty church wedding in the afternoon Miss Alice May Stephens became the bride of E. M. Wolters of Tacoma. The impressive service was read by the bride's brother, Rev. F. Claude Stephens, pastor of the Christian church at Kelso, Wash.

A large number of friends and relatives had gathered, when promptly at 3 o'clock Miss Olive Whitcomb of Portland, took her place at the altar and sang a beautiful solo, then played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the minister and contracting parties advanced to the altar. The groom was accompanied by his brothers, Ira and Chas. H. Wolters, and the bride was attended by Miss Maud Smart and Miss Ruth Wolters. Little Dale Altman carried the ring and Margaret Fitzgerald, the bride's niece was flower girl.

Following the beautiful ring ceremony, the bride repaired to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. A. Stephens, where refreshments were served and the couple received the hearty congratulations of their many friends.

Mrs. Wolters has pleasant home with her mother at Pleasant Home for some time and was a favorite among the many young people of the locality. She also has many acquaintances in Portland.

The groom is a son of Mrs. F. A. Davis of Tacoma and has a position as engineer on the Northern Pacific. Mr. Wolter's mother, three brothers Ira W., Mr. and Mrs. H. D. and Chas. H., and sister, Miss Ruth, all of Tacoma, were present.

Among other friends and relatives present were the following: Rev. and Mrs. F. Claude Stephens, of Kelso; Mr. and Mrs. Graham of Prescott, Oregon; Mrs. Groggett, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Altman, Dr. O. S. Murray, Mrs. Harriet Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. McKenney, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lent, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Northrup, Mr. and Mrs. Lauderback, Mr. and Mrs. Markell, Mrs. and Miss Miller, Mrs. Shetterly, Mrs. Geo. Carpenter, Mrs. I. N. L. Shriner, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Hunter, and H. L. St. Clair.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolters took the evening train for Portland, and will spend a short honeymoon at Los Angeles. They expect to make their home in Tacoma.

The Coroner's Office in Gresham

Dr. H. R. Biersdorff, who is the Progressive candidate for coroner, would if elected bring much of the business of his office to Gresham.

Heretofore there has been a monopoly of the coroner's office in the city of Portland, resulting in several disreputable scenes and excessive costs for inquests and burials.

By an arrangement with R. R. Carlson all the coroner's business in eastern Multnomah will be done here, thus saving costs and valuable time and eliminating the professional juror who makes his living out of the business. A vote for Dr. Biersdorff will be the remedy.

(Paid Adv.)

Wednesday, Oct. 30, Dr.

Lowe, Portland's well known optician, will be at Hotel Congdon, Don't fail to have him test your eyes for glasses. Scores of Gresham references.

Sit Up and Take Notice.

The price on the $52.50 Victor Laurel Range in our window is $42.50 this week. No better range made. Sterling & Kidder.

LEPPER, FRIEND OF THE FAIR

Among the candidates on the progressive ticket whom the Outlook can particularly recommend is L. M. Lepper who is running for state senator. He proved himself to be a friend of the Multnomah county fair last spring when in a dozen of the fair directors went down to the court house to ask our county commissioners for $2000. He was one of the principal advocates for the appropriation and had the backing of the East Side business men's club of which he is the secretary. The fair got the money and it was all paid out in premiums and improvements and found its way back into the hands of the people. There is a grateful remembrance of Mr. Lepper's exertions in behalf of Eastern Multnomah, and we here should help to elect him as state senator. He is secretary of the Progressive State Central committee and is still in a position to do us considerable good and we can easily count on his services again whenever needed.

As a member of the state senate he would be aggressive in driving out privilege, equalizing opportunity and be found fighting for equalities of rights, privileges and capacities which should be the aim of legislation.

Erecting More Towers. The P. R. L. & P. Co., has a crew of men at work putting up towers for the high voltage electric lines from the power plant at Estacada. The towers were built along the line except that portion between Barton and Sycamore and a right of way was sought across the intervening country so as to save the distance of nearly four miles around the curve between those two places, but it could not be had and the towers will follow the track the entire distance. The work will be going through Gresham in a few days and will be rushed to an early completion.

methods of employing his talents the distribution of help to work among the people who county pay the taxes. The construction of the new court house and establishment of the county farm near Troutdale have both been accomplished during his incumbency, although his ideas have been in full harmony with those of Judge Cleeton and Commissioner Hart. If re-elected he will remain the same steadfast friend of Eastern Multnomah and our already magnificent roads will be the better for it.
