AWAITING THE RESULT.

Before the Outlook again reaches its readers, the great political battle will have been fought to a finish and won or lost—perhaps. It is possible that it will only have begun for there is the great chance that there will be no choice for president with three strong candidates fighting for supremacy. Should there be no election the house of representatives would be confronted with the task of making a choice by states, and in the present instance it seems improbable that it will be able to do so. With 22 states represented by democrats and 22 represented by republicans, the other four being divided among the other parties, there seems no way out of the dilemma if there is no majority in the electoral college. In the event of no choice before the 4th of next March Secretary of State Knox will become president until a special election can be held to elect the successor of President Taft, who is not a hold-over.

For the sake of the stability of the country it is to be hoped that one of the three candidates will be a winner of the presidency next Tuesday. While certain interests will be affected by the result, no matter which one wins, it is not likely that there will be any serious results follow. This country is too big and prosperous to suffer in any way, even if there is a complete change in the administration. We know what the policies of Taft and Roosevelt are going to be if either wins. We can trust Wilson because he is an American and a good one. So there is no danger of the country going to the bow-wows if he should be elected or any of them. There will be changes in policies if Wilson wins and hungry democrats will get up to the crib as near as they can to fatten up after their long fast. The rascals will all be turned out and another set put in and the sun will rise upon the greatest nation in the world.

Just as it has been rising ever since it became the leader of them all.

Locally the matter will be settled for two years. Next Wednesday morning we will probably know who is going to have the office and some of us will be glad while others will be disappointed. Or perhaps we will all be partially glad and partially disappointed, for it is not conceivable that any of us are going to vote it straight this time except for president. The big republican majority of Oregon and Multnomah county is going to elect some democrats, but more republicans, so there is going to be rejoicing all along the line. Party ties are drifting, asunder and we of Oregon, especially are becoming united on the great primary law that needs no party to tell us what is best for us. We are the people and the people shall rule.

WHAT IS IT?

No better explanation of what Single Tax means can be found than by reading the following quotations from "Progress and Poverty," by Henry George, the author of Single Tax.

"The truth is and from this truth there can be no escape, that there is and can be no just title to an exclusive possession of the soil, and that private property in land is a bold, bare, enormous wrong like chattel slavery."

And again: "If the land belongs to the people, why continue to permit land owners to take the rent, or compensate them in any manner for the loss of rent?"

Vice-president James S. Sherman died at his home in Utica, New York on Tuesday night last. The funeral will take place tomorrow. His death will not affect the ballot next Tuesday as another candidate will be named before the electors meet in December.

The "400" are the principal opposers of No. 300 on the ballot. Vote for Woman Suffrage.

Just at the close of the last legislative session there was a bill passed which it was almost a crime to hold up by the referendum. We refer to the Malarkey Public Utilities bill. This bill received almost the unanimous vote of all those who attended the session at which it came up. No bill ever passed our Assembly without causing more friction than this, but in spite of this it received 75 of the 90 votes of the members of the two Houses, then the enemies of the public got busy and held the bill up by the referendum. This measure is easily understood. It simply gives the Railway Commission of the state control of all public utilities. No new offices are created, no salaries are raised. The bill adds greatly to the duties of the Railway Commissioners, gives them control of street railways the same as they have of roads. It ought to pass. Be sure and vote 314, Yes.

Mr. McCusker, who is running for congress as an independent, is in fact a republican and is looking to republicans to support him. Opposed to him are two others, Mr. Munly, the democratic nominee, and Mr. Lafferty, who is on the ballot as the Progressive republican choice. There is a growing feeling that Mr. Lafferty is an impossibility on account of his personal interests involved it is claimed in certain legislation and his unbusiness-like ways. Mr. McCusker is a lawyer by education but has been in business in Portland for the past 24 years. He is well known and understands the needs of the people and the great city within the district he seeks to represent and is entitled to the consideration of all voters. He is a friend of the farmer and favors enlarging the postal savings law to permit the government loaning the money direct to farmers and home owners without commissions to the middlemen.

The boy's appetite is often the source of amazement. If you would have such an appetite take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only create a healthy appetite, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to do its work, naturally. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

Boring

BORING, ORE., Oct. 31.—The rally of the regular republican party in Boring on Monday, the 28th was a big affair for this town and precinct. In the absence of J. W. Roots, committeeman, our genial postmaster Billy Morand presided in an able and most satisfactory manner. A crowd greeted the speakers and best of all the majority of those present were voters. After the house was well filled the chairman rapped for order and presented the first speaker of the evening E. C. Hackett, the regular nominee for sheriff, who assured the voters of Boring that he would, if elected, carry out in all his work the will of not only part of the people, but of the great party on whose platform he is running. Good speeches were made by Mr. Ed. Dedmon, nominee for recorder and Mr. Nelson, who is on the ticket for assessor. Undoubtedly the best speech of the evening was by Mr. E. B. Tongue, district attorney, nominated to succeed himself. His talk was logical, masterly and every point, in every statement made was proven to the satisfaction of those present. One of the principal reasons Mr. Tongue gives as to why the voters should place him in office is that during his time in office he has always won his case.

Then Chris Schubel, nominee for representative, closed the speeches of the evening, in a good talk on the needs of better men in the Oregon legislature.

Play and dance following at the Live Wire theater on Saturday, November 2.

The rumor that Joe Lundy and Raymond Ritchie, are to open a barn in Sandy, was well founded. The boys have bought stock and feed and rented the Shelley barn and will at once open one of the best barns in the county.

Several carloads of gravel are in and being placed on the Boring Gresham road.

SCHOOL NOTES.
The second month of the school year at Boring is nearly completed. The enrollment so far is 98 and will no doubt reach the hundred mark soon. The majority of the pupils show their interest by prompt and regular attendance.

The school board is considering the purchase of the Waterbury system of heating and ventilation. Though at first this will be an added expense to the district, it will soon make up for this in the comfort and health of the pupils.

On the evening of Nov. 15, in the Live Wire hall, an entertainment and basket social will be given to raise money for the purchase of material to make the school rooms more pleasant and inviting. The program will be given by the pupils of the several grades and the proceeds divided equally among the three rooms. All are cordially invited to attend and help make it a success and contribute to a worthy cause.

Last Friday afternoon the upper grades organized a literary society. It will give a program every other week and on alternate weeks will drill in parliamentary practice. They will elect officers once a month, that all may receive the necessary training in conducting meetings of this sort. The officers for the coming month are president, Eva Dodd; vice-president, Carrie Gregson; secretary, LeRoy Frank.

The Outlook will visit a relative or friend for you 104 times during the year, brim full of news.
