GRESHAM SAVINGS BANK BOND ISSUE

L. Dougherty from Portland has taken charge of the Gresham Grill for R. E. Gibson, who has moved to Portland. The statement in the last Outlook that the place was closed was a mistake. Mr. Dougherty who has charge of the business is prepared to meet the patrons of the grill and promises prompt and satisfactory service.

Keith Lyman, who has scarlet fever, is reported to be quite ill. Little Marjory has been suffering for several weeks from complications arising from scarlet fever, and though still confined to her bed, is a little better.

The Ladies' Aid will meet next Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 6, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth. A program will be rendered and refreshments served, both of which will be free. A special invitation is extended to the women who are comparative strangers in Gresham.

Electric radiators and lights have been installed in the Mt. Hood depot.

Last Wednesday evening a party of five went from Gresham to hear Madame Gaski, the world known singer. She is a lovely singer and gave a splendid program. Those who went from here were, Mrs. W. Ott, Miss Gilbert, Miss Viola Mathews, Miss Grace Lawrence and Miss Miller.

The Outlook erroneously stated in a recent issue that Benj. Mathews had gone to Portland for a surgical operation. Mr. Mathews has been in ill health for some time, and it was thought that an operation might be necessary. He is much better now, though not in his usual good health.

Mrs. Stoner has moved from Cottrell to Gresham and taken up her residence in her new bungalow on Wallula Heights.

Miss Emma Johnson spent Sunday with Miss Laura Bulkeley at her home in Montavilla.

The Queen Esther circle will hold its annual thankoffering service in the Methodist church next Friday night. A fine program appropriate to the occasion has been arranged, and a short business meeting will be held, after which light refreshments will be served in the League room. A general invitation to attend is given.

Numerous street lights in the outlying districts have been out of condition for several days. The people have been very patient and are anxious to have the lights restored as soon as possible.

J. C. Stanley has just finished his new house on Stanley avenue and is now living in it with his family, having moved from the Freeman farm where he has been living for several years past.

J. M. Davis has traded his general merchandise store at Terry to J. C. Hazeltine for 85 acres of land in Clackamas county, 12 miles east of Oregon City. Mr. Hazeltine took charge today. Mr. Davis is moving to Fairview where he will go into business with his son, J. O. Davis, who has been engaged in general merchandising there for several years.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith of Ranier visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burke.

Joe Ross and Billie Duffy came home Sunday from Bull Run where they are at work. They came home to vote.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hill are spending a few days at their home in Gresham. They have been at Bull Run for several weeks, where Mr. Hill is employed. He is here to exercise his franchise in today's election.

Depositors in the Gresham postal savings bank are at liberty to convert their savings into United States denominations of $20, $100 and $500 bonds if application is made before Dec. 2. Bonds will be issued in $500, and will bear interest from Jan. 1, 1913, at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent.

Applications for the conversion of deposits into bonds on January 1, 1913, must be received on or before December 2, 1912, by the postmaster at the depository office where the certificates were issued. The postmaster will supply an application form, which must be made out in duplicate. The depositor must indorse and surrender with his application postal savings certificates covering the amount of the bonds desired, for which the postmaster will give him a receipt. The bonds will be issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, and as soon as they are ready will be delivered to the applicants.

The conversion of deposits into bonds at a date less than one year after the certificates began to bear interest forfeits interest in the deposits as in the case of withdrawal for any other purpose.

Postal savings deposits converted into bonds are not counted as a part of the maximum of $500 allowed one depositor, and there is no limitation on the amount of available postal savings bonds which may be acquired finally by a depositor. The exchange is considered as taking effect on January 1, and a depositor who has applied to convert into bonds all or part of the maximum balance of $500 may deposit an additional amount in January, though the bonds may not yet have been delivered.

The depositor's application must indicate whether bonds are desired in registered or coupon form. Coupon bonds are preferable for a depositor who intends to hold them for a short time only and who has ample facilities for their safe keeping. These bonds are payable to bearer, and the title will pass by delivery without indorsement. Interest on coupon bonds is collected by means of interest coupons, which are detached by the holder as they become due.

Registered bonds are preferable for persons intending to hold them for a considerable period, and they differ from coupon bonds.

Interest on registered bonds is paid by checks drawn at the Treasury department in favor of the registered holder. These checks are sent by mail to the postoffice address of the holder, and the hold-
