Mr. and Mrs. Gust Carlson were guests at the Erickson home, Powell Valley, Sunday.

Mrs. P. M. Miller entertained the Baptist Ladies' Aid society at her home last Thursday. The attendance was good notwithstanding the disagreeable weather. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Geo. Lusted's in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Peterson Sunday.

Pleasant Home

A Hallowe'en social was given in the Mercantile's company's hall, under the auspices of the Epworth League. About a hundred and fifty showed their interest in the League by participating in the events, and all voted it a success. The peanut race was won by Lloyd Shriner and the young men's potato race by Jas. Hillyard. Other attractions were for tune telling, candy booth, fish pond and animal show. Pumpkin pie, cake and coffee were served. The proceeds amounting to about $20 will be used for the purchase of Epworth League topic cards and literature. Much credit is due the president, Mrs. Robt. Lansdowne for the success of the social.

The Ladies' Aid met last Wednesday with Mrs. Brower.

Mrs. Geo. Hale has returned from an extended visit with relatives in the East.

Frank McCarty and family of Brimfield, Ind., are visiting with Mrs. McCarty's brothers, Emil and Kale Nasshahn.

Dale Northrop has organized a chorus of young people to meet at his home each Wednesday evening. They will study the rudiments of music and practice hymns to be used in the services at the Methodist church.

BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN GRESHAM.

Local people are surprised at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, the German appendicitis remedy. Johnson Drug Co., states that this simple remedy antiseptizes the digestive system and draws off the impurities so thoroughly that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY.

Boring

BORING, Nov. 7.—The dance given in the Live Wire hall on last Wednesday was a success in every way. The crowd was not so large as on most other occasions, but what was lacking in numbers was made up in those in attendance. Cake, pumpkin pie and coffee were served and everyone expressed himself as more than pleased and anxious to know where the L. A. U. would have something doing in the near future.

The Live Wires have ordered an ante room placed at the top of the stairway of the theater. This room is almost necessary for the L. A. U. society that uses the theater every Wednesday night.

The play "Wanted, A Wife," by the Wrights on Saturday night was greeted by one of the biggest houses of the year. No doubt the rain and mud kept many away and had the night been a pleasant one, the house would have been overcrowded. The dance following the play was the biggest and best in every way, of any given during the past six months. There was a good, jovial, happy dancing crowd of youngsters and some not so young. The best of order, and music second to none, thanks to Hazel Rich and Claud Danielson.

We want to again remind all friends of the school entertainment and social are Friday, the 15th.

The drill team of the L. A. U. of Boring, Ruth Gregson, Mabel Kimbley, Florence Shepard, Art Jonsrud, Albert Kimbley, Edgar Brooks, Leonard Goheen and Carl Gregson, went to Fairview on Monday night to help in initiatory work in the Lincoln lodge of that place. The work of the team is very good and the favorable comments on their work in the lodge room, were heard on all sides.

Boring School Notes.

Last Friday afternoon members of the seventh grade debated on the following question: Resolved, that the Indians were treated fairly by the English at the time of the settlement of the colonies. The affirmative was supported by Marguerite Tacheron, Clifford Goheen and Vearl Pitner, while Mildred Foster, Esther Anderson and Ward Wilmarth opposed them. Though it resulted in a victory for the affirmative the contestants on both sides showed much interest and ability. After the debate the society, organized the previous week, chose a name. "The Climbers" was chosen as being representative of the spirit of the members.

On Hallowe'en some of the enterprising youths of Boring spirited the clapper of the school bell away, thus causing some little inconvenience and much sport to those most interested. It was restored to its accustomed place on Monday.

Tuesday being a legal school holiday there was no school.

Remember the entertainment and basket social given by the school at the Live Wire hall, Nov. 15, 8 p. m. The pupils are working hard on the program.

Mattie Brooks, who has been sick for some time, has returned to school.

Ruth and Alice Olson lately come to Oregon from Minnesota have entered school this week.

The Schwartz children have left school as their parents are going to move from Boring.

Up to the present time 102 pupils have been enrolled in our school.

The Outlook has on hand printed school report cards with envelopes. They are a neat card, printed on finest Bristol, very complete and serviceable. Sent promptly by mail. Prices, 2 1/2 c each, complete. Over 100, 2c each. Postage additional, 5c for each 25.

Welches

WELCHES, Nov. 21.—The Hallowe'en social at Welches schoolhouse Thursday evening was the first social event of the season, and was attended by everyone; young and old participated in the games and amusements of the evening, like those old-time games, "Fig in the parlor," and "Miller Boy." The program commenced with singing "America" by all of those present, then songs and recitations by the pupils of the school, under the direction of Miss Lewis, our able school teacher; next was the gladius parade, then the old witch, and her broom and cat. To those wishing it, the witch told their fortunes, which were generally comical. Then a dainty luncheon was served by the ladies, which was appreciated as a fit ending to the festivities of the evening. The school room was tastefully decorated to suit the occasion.

W. B. Steele has nearly completed his new summer cottage on his acre tract adjoining Dr. J. M. Short's new summer bungalow recently completed at this place.

The hills round about are snow-capped and winter-like again.

A 500 card party was given Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Roberts as a farewell party Saturday evening. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Welch and daughter, Lute; Miss Lewis, Price Jones, Mr. Waterman, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Roberts returned to their home at Gresham Monday.

Billy Welch, Jno. F. Roberts, Robt. Haunn, Virgil Waterman, Edd Roberts and Price Jones made a hunting trip to the first cabin on Salmon River last week; result no game. If it had not been for the prowess of Billy as a fisherman, the crowd would have gone hungry for fresh meat as he caught 16 greyling, without stopping to catch his breath, so he says. Barring the large game, the hunt was a success.

Cottrell

Mrs. I. Hart, formerly of this place, died at her home in Portland last week. A number of friends and neighbors from this vicinity attended the funeral services held at the Mt. Scott cemetery Monday afternoon.

Rev. Wright, secretary of the Baptist association of Portland, preached at the Cottrell Baptist church last Sunday morning.

Many of the farmers had the good luck to get their potatoes dug before the rainy weather set in. Others who have not dug their potatoes are wishing old Sol would show his face again.
