

LOCAL POLITICS IS SIMMERING

Caucus Puts Strong Ticket in Field. Move for Good Government.

Gresham may have the distinction of being the first woman officer in the state under the new suffrage law. There will probably be one or two other places where city elections will be held ahead of the one to be held in Gresham, but they may all be won by women. At any rate a woman has the honor of being the first nominee of her sex in Gresham since the women have gained the right to vote, and her candidacy is being supported by the promptness in Governor West's proclamation of the suffrage law. It is said that she is making every effort to make her name known to the voters before the first of December, a date which will give her the right to vote in all the city elections after that time. Miss Minnie Clananah was nominated on Tuesday evening at a meeting of the office of city clerk in opposition to J. H. Harter. By a rule of the caucus it was decided that in all nominations the two having the highest vote should be the nominees, and Mrs. Clananah stood next to Mr. Metzger in the final ballot. The two were declared to be the nominees.

The meeting was called to order by Recorder D. M. Roberts, as provided in the ordinance, and the place as permanent chair, Mr. Emil G. Kardell was chosen secretary. There was a good representation of municipal voters, the highest number voting being 147. The choice of candidates for city marshal. This number is less than one-half of those who voted at the general election, when 241 votes were cast on the prohibition question. The result of the mass meeting was as follows:

Mayor—Lewis Shattuck, E. Lindsey.
Recorder—D. M. Roberts, H. Elkington.
Marshal—H. Gullickson, W. Emery.
Treasurer—J. H. Metzger, Minnie Clananah.
Councilmen—M. D. Kern, E. Kardell, Bert Metzger, H. L. Clair, L. L. Kidder, George W. Emery.

Three councilmen are to be elected at the next election will be held at the city hall on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 3. Following are the officers of election: Judges—W. H. Bond, George W. Emery; clerks—Roy W. Emery and W. C. Burch.

Some dissatisfaction with the nomination made last Tuesday evening resulted in the formation of a "good government" league which announced another meeting for Tuesday evening. The causes for the alleged defection are said to be the evident preparation of a caucus before the mass meeting was held to order and the participation of several women, who, it is charged, voted illegally on the nomination.

Another cause of dissatisfaction is the proposed consolidation of the offices of city marshal, street commissioner and water superintendent. Mr. Gullickson's nomination was rejected by some who would defeat him, if he is to have all these offices. The salary such an officer would get is sufficiently large to cause a scramble for the place.

From unauthorized sources it is learned that some of the proposed candidates include Charles Cleveland for mayor; A. Meyers for recorder; Jas. McKinney for marshal; Mrs. Minnie Clananah for treasurer; and W. R. Biddle for one of the councilmen.

Tomorrow night promises to be an interesting time in city politics.

A home talent concert under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary society will be given Tuesday evening, Nov. 26, at the M. E. church. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Program will be given later.

A large petition is being circulated by the patrons of the Cleone office asking that the office be changed to the new city hall where a fine large airy room has been provided, as it is within the limit and will incur no extra expense whatever it is fully believed the prayer will be granted.

Gresham School Notes

The two German classes of the Gresham high school have organized a club, the officers being: president, Miss Margerite Michel; secretary and treasurer, Miss Lois Else. The object is to learn to converse in German. The society is going to meet once a month and are to take up subjects. They also have decided to send letters to Germany to be answered in German. Each member has adopted a German first name and the society is deciding on a surname, which they will all adopt thus forming a family.

The music instructors of the Gresham high school was at the school Friday testing and arranging the voices in their respective classes. She intends forming a chorus in the high school.

Bert Hoss is again at home.

Flagged Train with Shirt

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at all Druggists.

ORLAND ZEEK SEEKS HOME AT LEBANON

Orland Zeek and family started Wednesday morning to drive to their new home near Lebanon, Oregon, where they have purchased a farm of 320 acres which is all under cultivation. George Leslie and Alva Hevel accompanied them to assist in driving the stock and getting them safely through. Mr. Zeek expects to make a specialty of stock raising and dairying. He procured a load of chopped feed from the Gresham mill a few days before he started, expecting to feed it to his stock on the long trip, but some low down thief stole the whole load of 15 sacks from the wagon in Mr. Zeek's barn.

Thimble Party.

A social event of considerable interest was the thimble party given yesterday by Mrs. O. A. Eastman and Mrs. Jas. Elkington, at the latter's beautiful new home on Wallula Heights. As suggested by the name, the ladies brought their fancy work, and whether they did much work or not, they certainly had a good time.

Each lady was instructed to bring something which she very much disliked. An alarm clock evidenced one lady's antipathy to early rising. Live spiders, and a stocking very much in need of darning were some of the other things displayed. Luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Those present were Mesdames Jas. Lawrence, C. E. Rusher, C. M. Zimmerman, L. L. Kidder, Ed. Metzger, Nina Belt, W. R. Biddle, J. N. Clananah, L. Osborne, Portia Laver, Jas. Sterling, C. W. Albertson, R. F. Walters, C. S. Smith, J. C. Hessel, Mrs. Haskell, Misses Mina Gilbert and Mabel Thomas.

Porto Rico's New Wonder.

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barceloneta, writes "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles there is nothing better. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. ## J. W. DAVIS' LONG CAREER CLOSES

The funeral services of the late J. W. Davis whose death occurred Tuesday evening, were held yesterday afternoon at the Baptist church, with burial in the Gresham cemetery. Pastor F. M. Burtch spoke briefly from the words, "What is your life?" He referred to the deceased's long pilgrimage of over 84 years, and told of his active part in battles of the civil war and in the course of temperance in Kansas.

Mr. Davis was born in Shelbyville, Ky., April 7, 1828. He married Rebecca Lynn in 1850 at New Salem, Ill. Both were neighbors and acquaintances of the Lincoln family. Mr. Davis was a member of the Baptist church and for several years choir leader in Illinois. He moved to Missouri in 1860 and to Kansas in 1861.

His second wife was Mary Lansdown whom he married in Jefferson county, Kansas, in 1879. His third wife, who survives him, was Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw, whom he married in Kansas in 1887. Mr. Davis was an active worker and lecturer in the prohibition cause in Kansas in the early days. He came to Oregon in 1906, and has since resided at Gresham, having built a small house near the home of his son H. E. Davis.

Mr. Davis was a volunteer in the Home Guards of Kansas as a defender, and helped bury the dead after the Quantrel raid at Lawrence, Kansas. He was a member of the G. A. R. He had also been a member of the Masonic order for nearly 50 years and of the grand lodge for 35 years. He was a respected citizen and is honored for his long and useful life.

The services at the grave were conducted by the Masons in the presence of a large number of people. The floral offerings more than covered the large casket. In spite of the heavy showers, the services were largely attended and were very impressive.

Mr. Davis is survived by his wife and the following children: J. N. Davis, an attorney in Portland, H. E. Davis of Gresham, J. M. Davis of Portland, C. H. Davis of Lawrence, Kansas, Mrs. Bell Smith of Seattle, and Mrs. Nettie Townor of Portland. He also leaves fifteen grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The widow and children of Mr. Davis wish to express their heartfelt appreciation of the many floral offerings and sympathy of neighbors and friends in connection with the sickness and death of their loved one.

Dr. Lowe, the optician of Portland, will be at Hotel Congdon, Tuesday, Nov. 19. This may possibly be Dr. Lowe's last visit to Gresham. Therefore, if you desire to have him make your glasses don't fail to see him. Don't forget the day and date.

STOCKYARDS EXHIBIT INVITES

All Eastern Multnomah Must Attend the Big Shows Next Monday.

A visit to the building at East First and East Morrison streets yesterday, where the land products show will be held all of next week, revealed a busy scene of preparation in arranging and decorating the various booths that will be the attractions for thousands of visitors from all over the northwest. The entire floor space has been taken, covering 65,000 square feet. The show gives every promise of being a success, as the crop productions this year have been exceptionally good, and the farmer is rapidly becoming a student of conditions that produce good crops so that he now has something for the world to see and is gratified to be given the opportunity of showing it.

The managers of the East Side business men's clubs are highly elated because of the fact that for the first time in the history of the city a really large exhibition is to be "pulled off" on the east side of the river. When funds for the enterprise were being solicited the east side people gave liberally, and while they are not claiming the exhibition as all their own, they are correspondingly jubilant because the management has at last recognized an "east side" and has made it necessary to require the west-siders to pay homage to their brethren on this side of the river.

In commemoration of the honor conferred upon them the business men's clubs and all other similar organizations have through the "mayor" of East Portland, designated next Monday as a holiday. This action was prompted because of a second honor that befell them: The dairy show at the Union Stock yards will also be held on the same dates as the products show, both commencing on Monday next. To the end that suitable recognition may be given both of them "Mayor" G. E. Welter, of East Portland, has issued his proclamation, and has also arranged for an excursion to the Union Stock yards for Monday morning which will leave Union avenue and East Burnside streets at 10:30.

Mr. Welter announced yesterday that special cars would be in readiness for all who can go and to a representative of the Outlook extended his invitation to the whole of Eastern Multnomah, or at least to those who are interested. A good, free lunch will be served and a profitable day may be spent among the very best dairy herds the northwest can produce.

As a climax to the enjoyment of the day "mayor" has decided that the evening be spent at the land products show, and here again the invitation to Eastern Multnomah holds good.

Those of our people who can get away should attend one or both of these functions. If the special cars are missed there are the regular schedules of the St. Johns or Mississippi avenue cars which will transfer to the stock yard cars. Let everyone go who can and reciprocate as far as possible the interest shown in our fairs by the East Side people.

Sir Thomas Lipton, of tea fame and the would-be owner of the American cup, is in Portland this week. He probably came to settle a recent campaign dispute which made a noise something like this: "Which is right, Lipton's T. R. best, or Lipton's tea is best?" Such a ghastly pun could only have one answer and it came on election day.
