"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.
Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 4, 1911, at the post office at Gresham, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

SUFFRAGE AND SUCCESS.

The equal rights wave which is sweeping over the world is sure to bring about domestic changes. It will affect the home more than any other institution, not because the women are merely going to vote, but because there will be new problems presented to them that they have hitherto had no conception of. The study of politics alone, which so far only a few advanced women have indifferently mastered, is going to be a disquieting element henceforth but the adjustment will be brought about in a generation or so when all women have taken an interest in the new order of progressiveness that is being opened up to them.

In this country more than any other women should to some extent, cultivate a spirit of independence. They should acquire a knowledge of how business is transacted, of the relation between capital and labor, skilled and unskilled. If they chance to be left alone widows, or orphans possessing means, they would be saved from many vexatious experiences by knowing how to transact their own business. This the present day schools is teaching them, but they should know more than the schools can teach to meet the exigencies of the new order of things that is to be thrust upon them. If they are not properly taught woman will not be able to teach the coming generation and there will be no progress. The women of the present must work and study and learn, for idleness, frivolity and ignorance can only be put down by education and employment. In the last resort the spirit of evil becomes teacher and taskmaster.

Remember the Outlook's holiday edition on Dec. 17. Send in anything appropriate to the occasion a week before. Our regular correspondents are requested to make an extra effort and have their copy here several days ahead of time. Good prosperity stories are wanted.

Sheriff-elect Tom Word has announced that there will be no more road houses in Multnomah county, which is in accordance with his promises before election. Management of the licensed saloons in the municipalities he will probably leave to the police of the cities unless they become too obstreperous for the local authorities, in which event the new sheriff and Walter Evans, the new district attorney, can be depended upon to hold them in check under the state laws.

This issue of the Outlook contains two articles bearing on some phase of the political situation, sent to us by readers with the request that we publish them. One signs himself "Old Stupid," and is in poetic form. Now old stupid is one of our successful farmers, now retired, and he shows a grasp of the situation in a wide field of politics—both local and national. His view is that both business and politics are on a surer, better footing than ever before.

Another article represents the republicans as selling out a lot of 'old junk and its style if not its implications will appeal to many readers who are quite familiar with the auctioneering method. We would rather have direct original matter pertaining to local affairs from our correspondents than clippings, and are glad to give space to short articles. We would insist again as in the past that we cannot use matter that reflects on the character or moral standing of any one or is written in a spirit of spite. Also anything that the author is not willing to have his name signed to should be withheld.

The proposition to make J. N. Teal the secretary of the interior may be a good one for the Pacific coast or for Oregon in particular, and the Pacific coast is certainly entitled to a member in the cabinet. Yet it might be that someone else better fitted for one of the other positions could be found here, and it is not necessary that the office of secretary of the interior should be considered the exclusive property of the Pacific states. One is minded to think that if President Taft had named C. W. Fulton as his attorney general instead of Ballinger as secretary of the interior, things might have been different and a good scandal avoided. The cabinet offices should be filled by men of influence and breadth equal to that of the president himself, and no particular section of the country should be favored in selecting them.

Hard Times Come Again No More.

Hard times is in the fore, I hear the standpatters cry Wilson is elected, the votes for him went high. Taft he is defeated, don't you hear him cry?

The Bull Moosers raised the devil, And that's the reason why The Oregonian is in mourning And the editor is quite blue Because Wilson is elected And Lane's elected, too. Tom Word, he the sheriff, And Portland breweries wail For they know Tom will never stop Till he puts them all in jail. The saloons and the gambling halls Will now be put on the run They don't have Sheriff Stephens Who let them have their fun. It's now the laws shall be fulfilled, And crime will have to stop, And murderers shall be hung And West's policies will drop, For the criminal law will be fulfilled.

Don't matter what they say And if Mr. West don't hang them We will hang him on that day. Cheer up, all you good people, Good times there's going to be And we people shall be safe Through good Democracy. —Old Stupid.

Good apples, good cider, a good fire in the evening and the weekly Oregonian makes life on the farm a pleasure. It and the Outlook one full year for $1.75.

Republican Junk on Sale.

Our lease with Uncle Sam having practically expired and having decided to retire to private life, we, the undersigned, will offer for sale, at our residence, National Capitol, Washington, D. C. March 5, 1913, at the following property, to wit: One elephant about 49 years old, and has foot rot; one set of injunction and high cost of living, old enough to weep, sired by Goldbugs and damed by everybody; one republican platform, good as new, only been used for campaign purposes; a large number of planks from the democratic platform have got mixed but they cannot be distinguished and they will go with the lot; one big stick, somewhat worn from over use; one republican machine, somewhat out of repairs; one financial system, well supplied with clearing house certificates, with a little cash; a large quantity of old dinnerpails, grandpa hats, coon skins, Teddy bears, Taft smiles and other things too numerous to mention.

This sale will positively take place on the above date regardless of the weather and everything must be closed out on that date.

Toasted crow will be served by the Old Boy's Republican club. Everybody regardless of past political servitude invited. This stuff must be cleared away.

Terms — Cash before removing property. Joe Cannon, Auctioneer. Col. Rockefeller, J. P. Morgan, Vanderbilt, Managers. Teddy Roosevelt, Clerk.

El Campo (Texas) Citizen. Sent to the Outlook by Nels Rodun, R. 4, Gresham, Oregon.

Don't waste your money buying strengthening plasters. Chamberlain's Liniment is cheaper and better. Dampen a piece of flannel with it and bind it over the affected parts and it will relieve the pain and soreness. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

We Want Everyone to read the Outlook. We ask you to subscribe, if you can, but read it any way, if you have to borrow it.

The Best Light

AT THE LOWEST COST

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing light.

ELECTRICITY can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore,

ELECTRIC LAMPS can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

NO OTHER LAMPS possess these qualifications; therefore, it is not surprising that

ELECTRIC LAMPS are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.
