"Our Personal Guarantee to all Skin Sufferers"

GRESHAM DRUG CO.
We have been in business in this town for some time, and we are looking to build up trade by always advising our patrons right.
So when we tell you that we have found the eczema remedy and that we stand back of it with the manufacturer's iron clad guarantee, backed by ourselves you can depend upon it that we give our advice not in order to sell a few bottles of medicine to skin sufferers, but because we know how it will help our business if we help our patrons.
We keep in stock and sell, all the well known skin remedies. But we will say this: If you are suffering from any kind of skin trouble, eczema, psoriasis, rash or tetter, we want you to try a full size bottle of D. D. Prescription. And, if it does not do the work, this bottle will cost you nothing. You alone to judge.
Again and again we have seen how a few drops of this simple wash applied to the skin, takes away the itch, instantly. And the cures all seem to be permanent.
D. D. Prescription made by the D. D. Laboratories of Chicago, is composed of thymol, glycerine, oil of wintergreen and other healing, soothing, cooling ingredients. And if you are just crazy with itch, you will feel soothed and cooled, the itch absolutely washed away the moment you applied this D. D. Prescription.
We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this remedy to a skin sufferer here and there and we want you to try it now on our positive no-pay guarantee.

Columbia Grange met in regular session Saturday, Dec. 7th with a fairly good attendance. The forenoon was taken up with first and second degree work. After the usual grange dinner in which an hour was spent in friendly intercourse, grange was again called to order and an hour given over to our esteemed lecturer, Effie D. Sprague, who presented the following program: A talk on degree team work by A. A. Loeb, vocal solo, Alice Rasmussen. Some labor saving devices for the farm, R. P. Rasmussen. A recitation by Clara E. Smith. Mrs. Sprague talked on the subject, "How to secure a better crop of boys and girls," presenting some very good ideas for those who have the care and training of children. This being the time of annual election, the following officers, were chosen for one year: worthy master, R. P. Rasmussen; overseer, A. A. Loeb; lecturer, Clara E. Smith; chaplain, Mrs. George Knierum; treasurer, Peter Anderson; secretary, Walter Knight.

Boring

BORING, Dec 9—J. O. Grove, a saw mill man, has moved his family into Portland.

The open meeting of the L. A. U. held recently was one of the most pleasant affairs of the kind as yet given by the order. The members and friends of the Lincoln began arriving about 8 o'clock and soon dancing was in order. A light lunch, consisting of cake, coffee and sandwiches was served about 11. Then dancing and games were in order till about 12:30 when all present voiced "the best time ever," and adjourned to meet again in open session in four weeks.

The Wright Dramatic company went to Damascus again on Saturday, the 7th, with a play and dance.

Last Saturday "Uncle" Morgan sold his livery interest to Lyndon Richey. Uncle still retains the barn and the theater above, having sold his horses, buggies, in fact, everything but the barn. Mr. Richey has leased the barn for a term of years and will continue it as it has been in the past, one of the best and most popular barns in the county. Lyndon will be in attendance at the barn himself and as he is one of the popular young men of Boring, a good trade is expected.

In our notes last week we gave a write up of the play by the Wright Dramatic Co., and through some mistake we failed to speak of our young friend Art Jonsrud, who did the part of Walleped Pete. Art learned the part at two rehearsals, having no written part, the same being told him by the director, Mr. Wright.

Claud Danielson, one of the operators at the substation was called into Portland last Saturday for one of the "irregular examinations."

The Wright Dramatic Co., go to Orient hall next Saturday with the drama, "Forgiven" with a dance to follow. Excellent music.

Boring School Notes.

School opened again Monday after a week's vacation for teacher's institute and the regular Thanksgiving recess.

This week closed the third month during this time in the upper grades there have been four pupils neither absent nor tardy, Edith Anderson, Edda Dodd, Mildred Foster and John Aeminger. In the intermediate grades only Olive Beebe has a similar record. The primary grades have proved themselves the banner class for there, have been nine there who have come up to that standard. These are Doras Dodd, Elsie Adams, Lena Jonsrud, Ray Naas, Elliott English, Louie Maulding, Loris Child, Sharley English and Fred Brooks.

A few pictures and the curtains have been purchased for the school rooms. As soon as possible the girls will arrange for a sewing bee to make the curtains.

During vacation two windows were put in the west end of the intermediate room and a coat of lighter paint was put on the walls so that now the room is much lighter and more pleasant to work in.

At the last meeting of "The Climbers" new officers were elected after an interesting program entirely arranged for by the program committee. The officers now are, president, Mildred Foster; vice, president, Clifford Goheen; secretary, Albert Johnston. The new program committee consists of Viola Frank, Mattie Brooks and Lela Naas.

For composition work this week the sixth and seventh grades are reproducing "The King of the Golden River."

Melrose

The young people met at the home of I. Wood to practice singing for the Christmas entertainment to be given at the Cedar schoolhouse Dec. 23rd.

It would be greatly appreciated if the people of Melrose would keep them sows off the road, as a certain young lady does not like to sit upon the fence until dark, waiting for some one to drive the cows away.

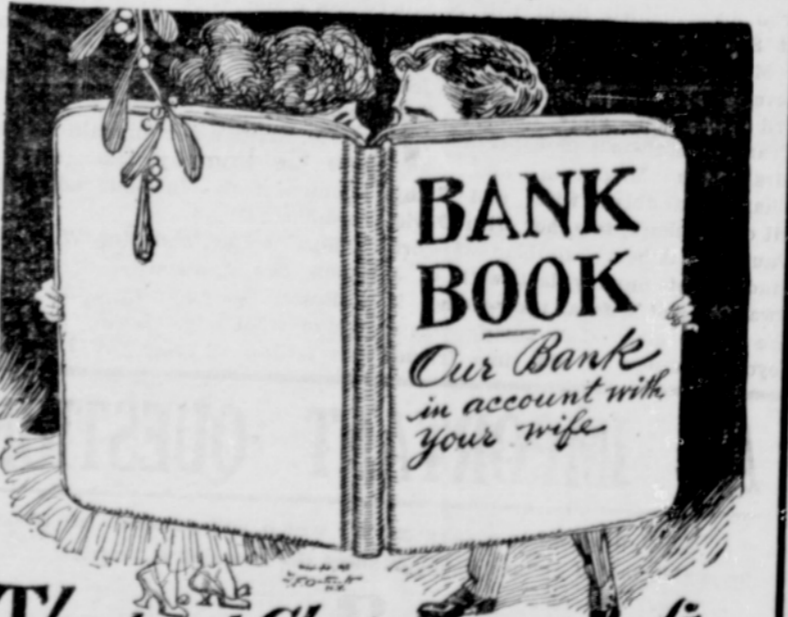

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Watkins entertained the following guests at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Strebin, Mr. Gerstle, Mrs. Watkins, Marion Watkins, and the Misses Henrietta and Ella Gerstle.

The Misses Laura and Nellie Jones, Miss Fathe and Wm. Fritz spent Tuesday evening at the home of F. Kenney.

Cecil Duke, who is attending Business college in Portland, spent Sunday at home.
