For the first time in the history of Gresham there is to be a Catholic church established here, according to a report which states that a Catholic priest has rented a house and will organize a congregation. Several prominent families of that faith reside here and it is an evidence of their spiritual welfare that the Catholic organization is to be established here.

A special meeting of the council will be held this evening for the purpose of making the annual tax levy for municipal purposes.

Will Winters of Holbrook and Miss Lulu Pickens of Bull Run were married on Christmas morning at the residence of Dr. Thompson, who performed the ceremony. Those who witnessed the ceremony were Mrs. Roy Gibbs, Mrs. J. H. Metzger, Mrs. Geo. W. Kenney and Mrs. A. Thompson. The newly married couple will live at Holbrook where Mr. Winters is employed in a sawmill.

The Lents Optimist, published by Tuttle & Lessard, has been received as an exchange. It is Lent's new weekly, which was announced several weeks ago in these columns. In general make-up it is excellent and the news items are written in a refreshing style that are always readable.

The Outlook gives green trading stamps for every yearly subscription paid in advance. Ask for them.

Rev. E. A. Leonard will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening. At 11 a. m., his topic will be, "The Sufficiency of the Scriptures." At 7:30 p. m., the subject of his discourse will be, "The Good Young Man." To this service an especial invitation is extended to all men particularly the young men. Rev. Leonard was formerly pastor of the Highland Baptist church of Portland and it was under his leadership that the splendid edifice occupied by that church was built. At present he is making his home in Gresham, having recently completed a neat bungalow on East Powell street.

The Outlook has received a neat calendar from J. H. C. Sorenson, who is a resident of R. F. D. No. 1, and who is engaged in making some of the neatest photos of rural scenes that have ever been exhibited in Multnomah county. The picture on the calendar is a photograph of a lily in its garden, and was made by Mr. Sorenson. The little calendar is a work of art that to be appreciated needs only to be seen.
