Cottrell

When a number of the Cottrell school pupils were skating on a small pond near the school house last Monday morning the ice suddenly broke and several of the girls fell into the water. It was not deep, however, and they were soon on dry land again, but the unfortunate girls confessed it was rather a cold morning to take such a cold water plunge.

Mrs. Elbert Killen and son Amel expect to leave soon for Kent, Oregon, where Mr. Killen went some time ago on account of his ill health.

Guy Hood returned Monday from Albany where he has been spending a short time with relatives. We are glad to see Mr. Hood back in the vicinity again.

Miss Cena VanFleet who has been spending a week's vacation at her home at this place expects to return to her work at Sandy soon.

Rev. E. A. Smith of Oregon City, who has been holding meetings at the Cottrell church for the past week, returned to his home at Oregon City Thursday. Rev. F. M. Burch of Gresham will continue the meetings during the rest of the week.

Injured by Pitchfork.

Ed. Heslin, of Fairview, had a narrow escape from severe injury by a wild pitchfork yesterday, and as it was, he suffered a severe puncture in his left hand. He threw the fork up into the barn loft where it struck on the tines and rebounded, coming back at him like a thing possessed with life. He threw up his hands to ward the fork away from his face and received one of the tines in his left wrist about four inches, requiring a good hard pull to get it out again, and penetrating the main artery. When the tine was withdrawn the blood spurted in a bright, red stream, requiring pressure above the wrist to stop the flow. Although the wound is severe and painful it will probably heal up in a short time unless some complication arises.

MRS. JENNIE BREEDEN.

Oregon county school superintendents in convention at Salem recently took steps to encourage the country life movement among the school children of the state. They asked that the state fair be held later in September to give more time for preparing school exhibits. It was also decided to foster poultry raising and several superintendents will try to get every pupil in their counties to raise not less than thirty chickens or ducks.

Temperance Red, White and Blue.

O Columbia, the gem of the ocean, The home of the brave and the free,

Thy people are sighing and longing From tyrants still freer to be. From the robbery, pillage and slaughter,

Of rum and his murderous crew, That the home, and the son, and the daughter Be safe 'neath the red, white and blue.

Look, Columbia, with tender compassion On mothers now deluged in tears, As they weep o'er the crimes of our nation,

And groan 'neath the burdens of years; In our country they yet love so dearly, While it yields to protecting the few,

Many hundreds of thousands die yearly From the curse that defies them and you.

O Columbia, withdraw thy protection From rumsellers, gamblers and men

Who are fat'ning on blood and corruption, In ergogery, brothel and den;

And extend thy protection to mothers The home and whatever is true, That our ruffeted fathers and brothers Be free 'neath the red, white and blue. —S. H. Schellenger.

If your children are subject to attacks of croup, watch for the first symptom, hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.
