

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Zellar of Portland were the guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Cooley and family.

Gresham grange met last Saturday in regular session. The officers elect were installed by County Deputy A. H. Black, of Woodlawn, and F. L. Everson was conducted through the mysteries of the third and fourth degrees.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dawes of Portland are the guests this week of Mrs. Clara Kane. Mr. and Mrs. Dawes are recently from Wisconsin where they were intimate with the Kane family more than forty years ago.

J. D. Regner is showing with considerable pride, a photo picture of four generations, in which he is the oldest. Besides Mr. Regner, there are his daughter Mrs. Hattie Cottrell of San Francisco, her daughter, Mrs. Laura Johnson of Portland, and the latter's little son Norman Edwin Johnson.

Attention is being directed to the bad condition of the sidewalk leading to the O. W. P. station. It is the most used piece of sidewalk in the city and is getting in bad shape. Several persons have been slightly injured during the past week while passing over it, and there is danger of a serious accident and a resultant lawsuit.

John Conley has been confined to his home for the past three or four days with a slight attack of lagrippe. Miss Hester Thorpe visited with Mrs. Leahy Bloomquist in Portland, returning home last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie entertained twenty-five of the local grangers at a party Tuesday evening for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Hollenbeck of Heyburn, Idaho. Mr. Hollenbeck is master of the Heyburn grange. The evening was delightfully spent with music and cards. Mrs. Hollenbeck and Mr. Kavanaugh of Troutdale were the winners of the prizes. A dainty two-course luncheon was served at the close of the evening, after which the grange closing song was sung.

The girls of the 7th and 8th grades gave a spread at the school-house last Wednesday noon.

A literary society has been recently organized in the 8th grade of the school.

Revival meetings at the Methodist church continue with much interest, but the attendance has been small on account of the stormy weather. There will be no service Saturday night, but those of Sunday will be of unusual interest. It is expected they will continue next week.

The attendance at the Patron-Teachers' association last Wednesday night was so small that it was decided to postpone the program until next week Thursday night, Jan. 23. The constitution and by-laws of the association are published in this issue of the Outlook.

Aaron Knighton has just taken a two weeks' rest from work, and spent it with his family visiting relatives in various places. They went at first to Pleasant Home where they were the guests of Mrs. Knighton's sisters Mrs. Hutchins and Mrs. Carpenter. The latter part of last week they went by steamer to Houlton, Ore., for a few days' visit with Mr. Knighton's parents. On their return the first of this week they visited another sister of Mrs. Knighton's in Lents. They had a fine time. Their only regret being that they did not take a longer vacation.

Mrs. M. Dauffenbach, one of the teachers in the Gresham school, was thrown from a street car on Saturday last and was considerably shaken up. She was taken to a Portland hospital and on Monday was returned here, the railroad company having taken the responsibility of her accident.
