GRESHAM LOCALS

Ed. Cofer of Portland is assisting Rev. F. M. Burch in evangelistic meetings in the Baptist church this week. Mr. Cofer is very successful as an evangelist, having been in this work during the past year or two and will be welcomed here again by all who heard him a year ago. It is hoped many will attend and assist in the services.

W. J. Hollenbeck, who with his family has been visiting relatives here, has returned to his home at Heyburn, Idaho. His wife and two children will remain here for a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern.

A letter received on Sunday from R. H. Carlson, who is with his wife at Los Angeles, stated that they had ripe strawberries fresh from the vines, and that a gentle mist was falling, reminding them of Oregon. Both are in good health and will continue their stay for several months yet.

Miss Laura Dolph of Fairview spent Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Miss Hester Thorpe and attended the picture show and skating rink.

The many friends of Mrs. Walter Winters will be glad to know that she is recovering from her severe illness of last week.

Mrs. Ella Aton has returned from Portland where she has been for the past two weeks nursing Miss Nora Meyer of Boring in Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. Anna Bates is visiting Mrs. S. T. Crow.

T. M. Brown and wife of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kern on Sunday.

John Bertschinger and wife recently moved from Lents to the Wegman farm at Linneman junction. This is a 14 acre fruit ranch, planted to different varieties of orchard and small fruit.

Mrs. Crow had an enjoyable visit last Friday from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Annie Dewey of Portland.

Harold Kern has been confined to the house with grip, but is improving.

Miss Ethel Merrill is assisting at the C. C. Store in the absence of Miss Hazel Wirtz, who is taking a short vacation.

Mrs. H. L. St. Clair made a business trip to Portland yesterday.

Dr. Jas. Moore preached a strong sermon at the M. E. church last Sunday night, and held the second quarterly conference of the church last night at the parsonage.

The library association of Pleasant Valley will hold an entertainment at the grange hall, Friday evening, Jan. 24. There will be a good program consisting of music, will also be a New England supper speeches and recitations. There will be everything to make it a real success. Ladies in costumes are requested to come and give a helping hand and enjoy a pleasant evening.

Miss Emma Johnson spent Sunday with Miss Laura Bulkeley at the home of her parents in Montavilla.

A telegram was received yesterday by Mrs. J. N. Faris announcing the death of Mrs. R. E. Balch at Lerna, Coles county, Illinois. She was the wife of Mrs. Faris' brother and was about 40 years of age. She left two children.

Mrs. Susan Jane Lake died in Portland on Sunday last, aged 71 years. The funeral took place today from the Gresham Baptist church, interment being in the Gresham cemetery. Mrs. Lake was one of the early pioneers of this valley. She leaves four sons and two daughters all of whom reside in Multnomah and Clackamas counties.

The Beaver Acetylene Gas machine works has in contemplation the erection of a new building to meet the increasing demands for gas plants. A line of small machines is now being made for demonstration purposes and orders are being filled in every direction. Inquiries for literature are being received from other states and Canada and several agents are reporting great interest in the machines.

B. F. Bauer and family were the guests of E. J. Heseltine and wife at Terry Place on Sunday last.

Begin the new year with a subscription to the Outlook.

What Makes a Strong Bank?

In judging a bank, always remember that it is Capital and Surplus that give security to the depositor, because that money is what stands between you as a depositor and any possible shrinkage in the securities held by the bank.
