GRESHAM LOCALS

The Woman's Home Missionary society will have a business meeting at the home of Miss Mabel Thomas Wednesday, Feb. 12, at 2:30 o'clock. Members and friends are invited to be present.

Mrs. E. Daly has returned from St. Johns where she has been for the past month nursing a friend.

Will Bostic is laid up with a sprained ankle.

J. J. Wodaego has entirely closed out his plumbing here and will leave tomorrow for Pendleton, where his wife now is, and where he will go into business again.

E. D. Holgate is having about five acres cleared on his farm near the Cleveland gravel pit. It will be in readiness for a crop this year.

Court Gresham, Order of Foresters, has issued posters for a dance in the Commercial club hall on Saturday evening, Feb. 22.

Steelhead fishing has been quite good in the Sandy river for the past two or three weeks. Good catches are reported at the mouth of the Bull Run and at Revenue's.

Lovers of dancing are looking forward to the Masonic ball next Friday night. About 300 invitations have been issued.

The W. C. T. U. will meet this week in Gresham over Sunday and Monday attending to his business interests here and renewing old acquaintances.

Sabin Alexander of The Dalles was in Gresham over Sunday and Monday attending to his business interests here and renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. A. W. Shipley is here with her daughters Misses Laura and Mabel Shipley, while Mr. Shipley is moving their stock and household goods from Corbett to their farm near Bull Run.

Revival services are now in progress in the Free Methodist church. You are cordially invited to attend each and every meeting. Bishop Pearce will be here Friday, the 14th and will remain over the 23d. Song service at 7:30. Preaching at 8.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hartley, who were burned out on Friday morning last, are staying at the home of their daughter, Mrs. S. S. Thompson. They are desirous of expressing their appreciation of the efforts made by the firemen and citizens of Gresham in saving their property.

The Gresham skating rink has just received 50 pairs of new roller skates and is preparing for a skating carnival in the near future.

Harry Huxley, who was reported to have been stricken with paralysis last week, is improving somewhat and will probably recover in a short time. He is at the home of O. J. Neal.

The fire in W. T. Hartley's house last Friday has been traced to defective wiring. An examination showed that the heavy joists had been burning for a long time before the fire spread to the roof. Only the circumscribed space without a draft kept it smouldering before it broke out so as to be seen.

Ex-Co. Superintendent Robinson was in this vicinity today meeting old friends. He is now connected with the New York Life Insurance company and has offices in the Lewis building, Portland.

A Portland orchestra will furnish the music for the Masonic dance on Friday evening next, with selections given at the Masonic dances there. There is every prospect that the occasion will be the greatest event of the present social season in Gresham.

Word has been received of the arrival of a 9 pound boy in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Metzger of Damascus.

Lester Spencer and Arza Smith have been enjoying a visit from Mr. Gleason, an old neighbor of Bickleton, Washington.

Mrs. Hollenbeck, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern, and her children, started Saturday for their home in Heyburn, Idaho, after several weeks' visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Maulding have moved from A. H. Gould's house in Thompson's addition, to their new house on Second street.

Mrs. Oscar Erickson and baby of Warren arrived today for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey and other relatives.

Ed. Gilman, for over a year past in the employ of Lewis Shattuck, has resigned his position there and moved back to Portland. He will go on the road as a traveling salesman.

The meeting of the Gresham Council of Women Voters, which was planned for last Friday evening, was postponed to tomorrow evening, Feb. 12. An old fashioned spelling school will be the feature of the evening. Mrs. Elkington and Mrs. Clanahan will sing a duet. Refreshments will be served. A special invitation is extended to members of the Commercial club and their ladies, and to anyone who is interested in civic improvements.

Harry Wood, who has an interest with his brother Guy in a barber shop at Montavilla, spent Sunday at his home here.

A successful economy sale is being conducted at the Novelty Store on Powell street, where W. R. Bidde is selling off a large stock of goods in his line at such low prices that every buyer can save money by purchasing now, before the sale closes on the 15th. Every price has been cut in two for this occasion.

Two enlarged pictures in the window of Max Schneider's studio represent Marshal Gullickson and the late Ford Metzger with their hunting dogs as they appeared several years ago. The pictures were made by Mr. Schneider and are remarkably familiar, as well as genuine works of art.

Over a hundred head of horses are quartered on Fred 5 Merrill's farm at the Twelve-Mile corner, where they are being taken care of and are being trained for different kinds of work. They are all high grade animals; some of them being noted racers. There is a movement on foot to reopen the place as an amusement resort the coming summer.

Good Shooting.

The Gresham Rod and Gun club held a shooting match at Cleveland field on Sunday, last the targets being clay birds sprung from a trap. Five members participated, D. N. Roberts scoring the highest per cent. Following is the score:

Name	Shot at	Killed
D. M. Roberts	25	20
C. Crowley	75	53
L. Shattuck	75	50
W. J. Ott	75	49
J. J. Halligan	50	32

Ray Metzger, who has been seriously ill, is now able to be out, and the family is out of quarantine. Ray's ailment resembled diphtheria, and health officers from Portland pronounced it such, but no other member of the family nor anyone of the many friends who called to see him took the disease. It is seriously doubted if it really was diphtheria.

Ship otherwise all right but without a human being on board discovered at sea; furnishing a fine hint for some story writer.
