Mrs. L. Yunker has returned from Los Angeles, where she went for treatment for cancer. The treatment was successful and she is feeling fine now. On her way back she stopped with her sisters Mrs. C. M. Morrison at Turlock, California. She stopped with her sister, Mrs. C. W. again.

August Pier made a business trip to Portland Tuesday. The Walsh Bros. were busy last week hauling lumber for Martin Whach.

The development work on the Marlin Winch farm is progressing very fast under the management of Mr. Cleveland. Nine carloads of gravel, and two carloads of lumber were hauled to the farm, a large number of teams being kept busy. One team is hauling tile from the Columbia Brick and Tile Works at Hogan, and a crew of men is digging ditches and laying tile. Several carpenters are busy building poultry houses and sheds for cattle.

Wake Up!

The dreary winter is nearly over. Spring is on the way. Welcome its coming by a new enterprise, a greater enthusiasm, a broader outlook upon life and its opportunities. The Outlook will help you. Orient

The mid term examinations are now over and work of the last half year is being entered into with an earnestness that will bring forth the proper results.

The Patron-Teachers' meeting held last Friday afternoon was well attended and good interest was shown. A good program is being arranged for the next meeting and it is desired that all patrons be present at this meeting, which will be held at the schoolhouse March 7.

Mrs. Breeden made the Orient school a present of a crate of delicious oranges last Tuesday, to express her thanks and appreciations for the kindness shown her during her recent bereavement.

Clifton Hillyard is nursing a severely sprained wrist, sustained while playing at school Monday. Clifton says, "it hurts but, Oh! what fun."

The attendance is showing a decided improvement with the advent of good weather. It is hoped that this will continue as fair weather and good attendance are good friends.

Valentine day will be observed in the usual manner. No doubt bringing its troubles for the teachers. Already some of the amateur artists are busy preparing their master pieces of sly cupid and his darts, and of course this means many wounded and bleeding hearts that must be healed.

Columbia Heights

The Society of Equity held another interesting meeting at the Heights last Monday evening, and a good many turned out. It is encouraging to note that more interest is manifested for the betterment of the condition prevailing among the ranchers. And there is only one way in which it can be improved, and that is by pulling together towards organization and by united effort, form a co-operative system. When this is accomplished, then we are farming on the right scale, and the farmer will prosper. A special meeting was ordered for Tuesday evening, Feb. 11. Come on and join the Equity.

Mrs. Letsinger received a telegraph message last Wednesday night from Summit, Oregon, telling of the severe illness of her daughter at that place. Mrs. Letsinger left for Summit on Thursday last.

The recent storm has played havoc with the telephone posts and wire, and it will take a few days of repairing before the system can be put in working order again.

Miss Lena Bell, was the guest of Miss Margaret Greg a few days last week.

Mrs. Henderson, the proprietor of Chanteclair, has gone to Portland for a short visit with friends.

This is the season of the year when mothers feel very much concerned over the frequent colds contracted by their children, and have abundant reason for it as every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases that so often follow. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and Dealers everywhere.

Catholic services—Mass every Sunday at 10:30 in Commercial hall, Gresham, until church is built. After mass, instruction for the children
