Fairview

FAIRVIEW, March 2—A very pleasant meeting of Fairview Grange was held last Saturday. A number of visitors were present. The lecture hour program was very interesting. It was composed of solos by D. S. Dunbar and William Bencke, Jr., a poem by Mrs. C. Shepard, reading by Mrs. J. W. Benecke and Miss Dorothy Benecke, and talks by Rev. Thomas Roberson, J. R. Hughes and Miss Grace Wilcox on the bills being carried through the legislature. Mrs. John Peterson and J. O. Dolph gave short talks.

The neighborhood social held last Friday night was the most pleasing one of the three given. Prof. Beard, of Troutdale, gave a very interesting illustrated talk on the Panama canal. Mrs. O. J. Brown gave several solos, which were well received. Mrs. Brown and Miss Eva Campbell also played some piano duets which were highly appreciated.

The Stone farm is again tenanted and will be used as a dairy ranch. Fifty cows will be put on as a start. The milk is to be cooled here and hauled to Lents where it will be bottled and distributed.

The library and reading room is being furnished with the furniture from Gresham's old library. R. W. Wilcox, the custodian, is greatly interested in the library and uses all his efforts to make the reading room attractive. He should have the hearty co-operation of every person in Fairview in increasing the interest in the library and working up a large circulation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson, of Mist, Oregon, have been spending a few days with relatives here. The Petersons have sold their farm at Mist and plan to move to Portland in a short time.

R. L. Robertson has rented a farm near La Camas and will move his family there soon.

Miss Grace Wilcox was a weekend guest at the home of Mrs. M. C. Cornett.

J. R. Hughes and J. Doupe were out from the city to spend the weekend in Mr. Hughes' home here. Mr. Hughes reports his wife and daughter doing nicely.

A very pleasing entertainment was given by a party from Portland under the auspices of the Artisan lodge on Saturday night. The company drove out from the city and became confused in their route, drove to Sandy River before they realized they were traveling in the wrong direction. They arrived here about 10:30, and after a bountiful repast served by the local Artisans, the visitors gave a fine program.

The Woman's society of Smith Memorial church will hold an all day session at the church next Thursday. The annual election of officers will be made, annual reports read and quilting done.

Mrs. D. S. Dunbar entertained a number of ladies at a quilting for the benefit of the Methodist ladies' society last Thursday.

Mrs. Amanda Clark has moved into the Dr. Briggs' house west of town.

H. Holte has moved his family to Portland.

J. W. Townsend is expected home from San Diego, California, this week, where he spent the past three months. Mr. Townsend is much improved in health.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will go to Multnomah Farm next Saturday night as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson at the motion picture show. The young people will assist in the evening's program.

A Shetland pony will be an attractive prize in the juvenile industrial contest to be held at the state fair this year. It will be awarded to the boy or girl making the best exhibit of livestock and is offered by the Portland Union Stockyard's company. The exhibit must consist of at least one trio, or pen, of chickens or ducks, two pigs and a sheep. There will be many other prizes for which the young farmers may compete.

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when they have colds. Whooping cough, diphtheria, scarlet fever and consumption are diseases that are often contracted when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

Jenne Station

The annual music of thousands of agricultural chemists burying themselves in the fertile soil laboratory of nature will soon resound throughout the state. In most portions of Oregon preparations for the 1913 crop are already far advanced, but here at Jenne station experience has demonstrated that it pays to wait until the Old Lady from whom we all sprang, is in an equable frame of mind before we begin to tickle her in the ribs.

James J. Dyer, better known in this vicinity as "Frying-Pan-Jim," was a Sunday visitor at the Springhill farm. Jim is again taking up his abode at the Ryan place, his duties at that place require him to wear a white cap and apron. He is the cook. Jim is a star when it comes to fixing up her favorite dish called "Mulligan" stew.

It is with pleasure we announce that T. S. McDaniel, a Portland capitalist, is erecting a beautiful six room home in our midst. The house will contain all the modern conveniences. The parking that is contemplated will not be surpassed anywhere. Contractor E. W. Horn of Portland is doing the construction work. Mr. Horn is to be congratulated in the able manner in which he is doing his part of the work.

Mrs. Josephine Regal formally opened up her country club house last Sunday. She had as visitors and patrons several Portland capitalists and professional men with their families. Ten autos stopped for refreshments. It was a grand success and Mrs. Regal was pronounced a champion hostess. Mrs. Regal's early training as an entertainer in the theatrical world will make her a top liner in her new profession.

The wireless is not working as it should at Jenne station, but we expect to get a live wave now and then from the sea of humanity in the future; at least we hope so.

Frank Marasco is erecting some new chicken houses on his small farm and he expects to go into the game a little stronger than before. The Mountain View Nursery Co. is now going at full blast here. They are transplanting some 500,000 new roses, also various shrubs, bulbs and trees too numerous to mention, are being planted or transplanted. This is their second year in the nursery business at this place and it spelled success so far.

The county court is getting ready to open up the rockcrusher at Jenne station and we expect some improvements to the roads around here and also to see the new road running east from Jenne boulevard graveled.

A cousin of Forest Jenne was spending the week-end at the Jenne home.

George W. Duly paid a visit to the Springhill farm last Saturday.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.
