 "The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.
 Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

CLASS LEGISLATION.

An amendment was made to the sundry appropriation bill last week in congress expressly providing that no part of the $300,000 appropriated to pay for prosecutions under the Sherman Act should be used against labor unions or farmers. Just why it is wrong for a business or professional man to violate the law, and all right for a working man is a large puzzle to the ordinary citizen, says the Weekly News Letter. Apparently the average congressman is very much afraid of the "labor vote." Business men should take this lesson to heart, and so organize and act that the demagogue in politics would be put to know what to do. At present, he is playing the only game open to him. But if employers were as well organized as the employed there would be a different story, and our business men would at least receive a respectful hearing, and such legislation could never pass.

MILK DEALERS TO LAUGH.

It is now the opportunity for the milk dealers in Portland to laugh. Their assertions that the milkmen could never get together were correct. Being farmers they have lived up to the tradition that they cannot organize for their own improvement or benefit. They had a brilliant opportunity but only a few of them were able to seize it when it was within their grasp. Thus it is with the farmers everywhere, and they are led to the slaughter by the exploiter from the city. The farmer is the "fall guy" of the middleman, and he has only himself to blame in most instances for the position he is in. Some day he will know better but the present generation will be too old to benefit by the knowledge.

Representative Lafferty attained the distinction of being the last congressman to ever officially address "Uncle Joe" Cannon as "Mr. Speaker," and when the latter announced that the request was granted his voice had been heard for the last time in a body in which he had served for 38 years. As a mark of respect to the former Speaker he had been asked to preside for ten minutes just before final adjournment.

Oregon will observe Salmon day on Friday, March 14. It is expected to make it a state-wide event and the governor and public officials have been invited to attend a special observance in Portland. President Wilson has been sent some Oregon salmon with a request that he have it served on the White House table on that date. It is expected this will become an annual event, ranking in importance with California's Raisin day.

Oregon's best babies may have a chance to be exhibited at San Francisco's world fair in 1915. Provision has been made for an exposition of eugenics at the state fair next fall with the idea of getting the best babies of various ages which may later be entered in a national contest at San Francisco. Other states are taking similar steps.

Sherman county is giving up its former one-crop idea and is growing more chickens and hogs than ever before. Farmers are taking up dairying and this movement toward diversified agriculture is the most hopeful sign in that district. Those who have branched out from wheat raising are finding it profitable.

Oregon fared well in appropriations from congress. In the rivers and harbors bill a total of $3,123,800 is given over to improvements in this state, which is divided between the Columbia and Snake rivers and the different harbors. Also $1,139,000 is appropriated for this state in the public buildings bill.

A KNOCKER.

Uncle Rube sits and whittles at the cross-roads store.
 Quite a good deal.
 Some folks may know lots—but he knows still more.
 By a good deal.
 He'll criticize people that's done all they can,
 Because they aint stuck on adopting his plan;
 And from running a slot to this mountain ball,
 He's sure he can do the things better than all,
 By a good deal, by a good deal.

I ketch myself wondering what he will do,
 Quite a good deal.
 When lifing is done and he's hid from our view,
 By a good deal.
 I guess he'll sit whittling 'roun Paradise
 Till Peter or some one in power he spies,
 Then from pure force of habit he'll say with a leer,
 "Don't approve of the way you're running things here,
 By a good deal, by a good deal."
 W. M.

Walter Metzler's little poem in this issue comes within the scope of brevity and is, in our estimation, a meritorious production. Our rule to exclude poetry is not iron clad, but poems must be short and interesting to meet with our approval and consideration.—Ed.

The Oregon City Commercial club is making an investigation into the profits in sheep raising in that section of the Willamette Valley. While not a new industry there, it is thought it is one that is capable of large expansion.

This is a busy world and a hustling age, but the cigarette will help one along just a bit quicker than he realizes if he leaves things to natural methods.

The hook-worm is older than a modern woman's shirtwaist, but it can't be taught to hook up the woman's dress. That job is left to the woman's husband.

Men will not have to buy an Easter hat next week, but many of them will have to pay for one.

NOTICE.

To Victor Halter, J. N. Mewhirter and B. F. Rollins: You are hereby notified that I will give you until next Monday morning, Mar. 17, to begin work on the completion of septic tank on my property in Cleveland's addition. If not begun by that time and finished up at once I shall finish the work myself and deduct the cost from your account on the same.

Mr. Multhauf and family of Rockwood are moving this week. They have rented Ralph Neibauer's farm for one year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hamilton entertained last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lent of Cleone, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Davies. The latter has just returned from Curry county and told some very interesting stories and said that deer were so tame they could be seen at all times. He also had the pleasure of visiting Fred Wostell, who has been their several months.

Mr. Ingram of New Pleasant Home were in these parts last Tuesday circulating a petition for a postoffice at that place.

I noticed in the Pleasant Home

Items last week that Alfred Hamilton and wife are living with his folks. This is a mistake. He has not been here since he went to work in Portland last December.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hamilton who has been staying with their parents several weeks, have moved into their new house which they recently built.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Davies of Sandy and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hill of Gresham visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Davies last Thursday.

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing light.

ELECTRICITY can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore,

ELECTRIC LAMPS can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

NO OTHER LAMPS possess these qualifications; therefore, it is not surprising that

ELECTRIC LAMPS are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.
