Fairview

FAIRVIEW, March 31.—Saturday was one of the stormiest days of the season here. Not only did the clouds diffuse rain, but at the McKay home, where Mrs. Wentworth Grant entertained during the afternoon, a heavy shower of fine linen fell. Miss Ivy Cornett, a May bride-elect, was the recipient of the downpour. The entertainment of the afternoon was very pleasing. The announcement of the engagement of Miss Cornett to John Doupe, was made by means of cards attached to long pink cord and concealed in different places in the room. The cord of the bride-elect lead into a drawer filled with dainty packages containing pieces of linen. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in making tiny stachel bags for the bride to be. Refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. D. W. McKay, Mrs. J. N. Paris and Mrs. G. H. Shaw. Tiny paper cups filled with candy were given as favors. Miss Ruth Shaw gave several selections on the piano and Miss Cornett sang. The invited guests were Mesdames W. Ellison, G. H. Shaw, E. C. Morrison, J. P. Province, G. R. Shaw, of Fairview, J. R. Hughes, F. H. Powder and Irving Province, of Portland, Misses Frances Bliss, Gladys Holgate, Ghady's Bliss, Ada Robinson, Ruth Shaw, Eva Townsend, Laura Dolph, Jean Lent, Roose Albrecht, Rosalie Luscher, Lilly Luscher, of Fairview, Miss Nellie Paris, of Gresham, Grace Wilcox, of Portland, Lylr Eldridge, of Banks, and Ethel Hogue of Troutdale.

Boring

The farmers near Boring yesterday loaded a car of potatoes for the flood sufferers of Indiana and Ohio.

Dr. Pryffer one of the old timers of this part and in fact of this whole section of the country is now quite sick and has been taken to Oregon city by the G. A. R. of that place. to be cared for by them. The doctor was one of the first practitioners on this side of Portland. In the early days he rode on horseback over this then sparsely settled country. There were no roads and at times the paths and trails were almost impassible by man or beast.

Word came to us at a later hour today that Kelley Collins of Portland and son of Mrs. Collins of Boring was married in Portland to Miss Evelyn Pitts.

Billy and Genevieve Neill, late of San Diego are now with the Wrights. Mrs. Neill is a sister of Mrs. Wright. They are known as the musical Neills and will work in connection with the Wrights during their stay here.

George Saddle, the young blacksmith with Mr. Sonnichsen, was kicked by a mule he was shoeing Monday morning. George was getting ready to shoe the mule, and in passing behind the animal, was kicked in the breast. Dr. Bittner was called and came down on the evening train, made an examination and pronounced nothing more serious than a broken rib. So George will now take a rest for a week or two, when he can again go at his work, providing he does not over exert himself.

Little Wade Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collins, was bitten by a dog a few days ago. The little boy was playing with his dog, when a neighbor's dog came out for a fight. The boy in trying to part the two dogs was bitten on the leg. At first it was feared the wound might be serious as it was more than two inches long by one inch deep. At present the boy is getting along nicely.

Don't be surprised if you have an attack of rheumatism this spring. Just rub the affected parts freely with Chamberlain's Liniment and it will soon disappear. Sold by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.
