WOMEN AND BANKING

Women and banking have much in common. Thousands of women are working in banks in the United States. Joplin, Missouri, has a bank run by women. London, England, has a bank run exclusively for women, with Miss May Bateman as its manager. It was in England that the savings bank idea was originated by a woman, more than a century ago.

MANY WOMEN

are numbered among our patrons. We appreciate their patronage and invite others to follow them. Women are generally better savers than men. A bank account puts system into the running of a household, shows where every penny has gone, accumulates a balance for any sudden need, and gives the woman a certain influence not otherwise had. Let us advise you in investments.
