"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.
Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

THAT DIVIDED FUND.

Division of the fair fund between the Multnomah County fair and the Land Products show of Portland is to be regretted and is considered by many to have been entirely wrong. From all the information at hand it is evident that the entire fund was intended by the legislature for the fair at Gresham.

The Land Products show may be entitled to some support but it was not specifically mentioned. Its claim for the whole amount shows that the county fair is considered to be of small importance compared with an institution that draws its principal support from the railroads and dispenses its premiums all over the whole Pacific coast. It is not believed that the legislature intended to give assistance to any such scheme or to an institution that has no visible property but has to hold its show in a vacant, rented store building on an obscure street.

Then, too, the money is taken from the taxpayers of the county and is intended to be returned to them as premiums for their best endeavors in farming. To give any of it to a railroad promoted exhibition is not very agreeable. What is to prevent the further organization of so-called land shows and a further division of the money in other years?

The legislature is not to be commended for its lack of perspicacity in leaving the matter in such a shape that the money could be diverted from its proper course. A specific mention of one or both fairs would have settled the matter without recourse to formalities or the engendering of hard feelings.

The sum available for the county fair this year will be only about $600 more than was had last year for premiums. That sum will scarcely permit of any great increase in the amounts to be awarded for exhibits and the premium list will have to go out again this year with about the same offers for awards as it announced last year. This is to be regretted, as it was hoped that the whole sum of $5000 would be spent in such premiums.

There will be some changes in the amounts to be awarded, principally on live stock and agricultural exhibits, and there is some satisfaction in knowing that the money will be available for this year's fair.

Forest Grove has a "dandelion day," April 12. Everybody digs the pestiferous weeds out of the lawns and gardens, many of which are used for greens by those who like them. The Forest Grove custom reminds us that the people of Gresham and vicinity could very profitably organize a "gopher day," but then the gophers are not good to eat, although their skins might be used to some extent.

THE OUTLOOK

The Evil of Slander.
"Thou shalt not kill." Have you ever stopped to think that this applies to the good name as well as to the body? We all know the character killers. We always feel shocked when we see a man or woman being tried by the courts for crime, yet we passively, and some times eagerly, listen to one of our neighbors being "killed" by the scandal monger.

When we hear a bit of scandal we should let it die in our memory and not tell it to the nearest friend we meet as a toothsome piece of news. If we do the latter there is not much difference between us and the prisoner being tried before the bar of justice openly for his misdeeds. The prisoner has the advantages in a way, for he stabbed with a visible weapon while we used an invisible one and struck our visitor in the back.

The gossip will not stand in front of one and utter his biting words, and even if he is charged with the offense, he will fall back on some fellow slanderer and say he heard it from that source. The gossip has not the courage to meet his own story. It is a good plan to live our own lives and let our neighbors live theirs, in the sweet satisfaction of attending to our own business. Don't "keep an eye open" for what goes on across the way, and whisper of things you have seen or heard to the next one you meet.

We can't help learning of things not intended for public knowledge, but when we tell of them we are no better than the common pick-pocket. Our own lives are not so well ordered but that others may see some of our own shortcomings. If we "stab" others we must expect them to retaliate. If we kill the good name of our neighbors, somebody may kill ours. The most poisonous reptile in the world is the character killer. The great evil of neighborhood life is slander; a tongue red with the killing of character is as deserving of punishment, as the hand red with the blood of a fellow man and while the books of earthly justice may not so record them, the records by which we must all be judged in the hereafter will know no shadow of difference.

None of us would stand over a coffin, look on the face within it and speak ill of that person; yet the absent one is just as helpless to defend himself as that dead form, yet how often the absent are "killed" by the slanderer's tongue.
W. M.

The untrifled democrats who registered as republicans before the primaries in order to encompass the election of Senators Chamberlain and Lane, are getting it where the bottle got the cork. President Wilson has announced that no democrat who registered as a republican will be appointed to any office.

The last issue of the Mount Scott News came to hand under the management of E. H. Flagg, a well-known newspaper man who will improve the News and give it such a start into life that its readers will be surprised. There is a good field for a local paper at Arleta and the News may be depended on hereafter to fill the bill.

Fair Trip Easily Financed.

If you have the slightest intention of going to San Francisco in 1913, you can finance the trip by commencing today to make small monthly payments at your local bank. Write to or see L. H. Stone, at Portland headquarters, San Francisco Tour Co., 333 Chamber Commerce Building.

List of Letters.

The following list of letters remain uncalled for in the Gresham postoffice for the week ending April 6th, 1913:

Richard Beadle, of Powell Valley, was in Gresham today having his left hand repaired after getting it out of a gasoline engine without losing any fingers.

Joseph Stanley is confined to his home with something like nervous prostration. His case is not considered serious but will require rest and attention for a few days.

When the Outlook took the Farmers' Society of Equity to task a few weeks ago for its attacks on the Oregon Agriculture College it accomplished one good thing in its career. Since then the official paper of the Equity people at Oregon City has not been quite so rabid in its warfare on the O. A. C., although it bristles up a little now and then when it remembers that the college and the grange are on such excellent terms.

County Surveyor Glaze has finished the survey of the contemplated road down the John Day from Cottonwood to the junction of the rivers, about 22 miles. It is said a good grade can be established.—Canyon City Eagle.

The Misfit man of the Albany Democrat observes: "Considering the hurry and hustle of newspaper making, done with a rush, there is probably no more reliable institution in the world. There are probably five times as many mistakes made in the average postoffice in a day as there is in the average newspaper."

At Glendale there is in process of formation a young people's society of religious inquiry, the purpose of which is to make a study of the world's great religions.

The gopher gun continues to take digital toll in Oregon. The Scio News reports Joe Walter of Platt mountain a victim, shorn of two fingers of the right hand.

The Brownsville Times takes the cheerfulness possible view of weather and crop conditions, boasting that they are "in league to produce a great fruit crop this season."

Roll Anderson, a victim of a logging road accident near Bandon, is reported recovering, after many months, thanks to graftings of cuticle contributed by something like a score of his friends.

China pheasants being reported plentiful in the Willamette valley this season, the Woodburn Tribune says something should be done to protect the farmers who have cared for the flocks during the long closed season.

The German bark Mimi, mentioned in the Outlook last week as being on the sands near Manzanita, was towed into deep water on Sunday and immediately capsized. Out of more than 20 persons aboard only four were rescued alive.

For Burns, Bruises and Sores
The quickest and surest cure for burns, bruises, boils, sores, inflammation and all skin diseases is Bucklen's Arnica Salve. In four days it cured L. H. Hafin, of Irondell, Tex., of a sore on his ankle which pained him so he could hardly walk. Should be in every house. Only 25c. Recommended by all Druggists.
