The Best Light

AT THE LOWEST COST

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing light.

ELECTRICITY can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore,

ELECTRIC LAMPS can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

NO OTHER LAMPS possess these qualifications; therefore, it is not surprising that

ELECTRIC LAMPS are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.

Jenne Station

Everything went along swimmingly at Jenne station last week and we even expected to see a part of it taking a trip to Portland via Johnson creek. Frank Morasco had started to build a raft ready to load with provisions in case of emergency, but says he will not use it this year he hopes.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Lang enjoyed an evening last week at the Springhill farm. Mr. and Mrs. Lang have just returned from a visit abroad, taking in the principal cities and countries in Europe. On the return trip they visited the Isthmus of Panama and many important places in the United States. Mr. Lang says many places in America are lovely, but Jenne station has got his goat when it comes to some real beauty of nature.

Eugene Jenne is still improving things on the place, his latest act along that line is a cement walk around the house.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Jenne station Improvement club with E. S. Jenne as president, the secretary, John M. Mann, proposed to have a hall built of sufficient size to be used for dances as well as social meetings. Owing to a disagreement as to the location of same, we do not expect to see it for awhile, yet unless things turn out more favorable at the next meeting.

Word comes from John G. Brady that his mother is seriously ill. Mr. Brady being well known around this vicinity, makes us feel rather blue regarding his mother's illness.

Anybody that has more guinea pigs than he know what to do with, can send 'em around to the Springhill farm. Maurice Mann needs several to fill his order of 300 of them. He has been handling them out right and left during the past three months and has about exhausted the supply.
