Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad called on Mr. and Mrs. J. Lindquist yesterday afternoon.

A Sure "Catch" of Alfalfa. Drop a card for full information, to L. F. Shinaman, Gresham, Ore.

Cherryville

E. H. Read, who has a nice farm, one and one-half miles west from here, has been growing nursery trees and now has many of the leading varieties of fruit trees. He has recently planted many acres of the commercial varieties of apple trees, and has the largest apple orchard in this vicinity. Mr. Read is a very thorough and practical nurseryman and a thorough farmer.

J. R. Friel left this morning for Portland to see his brother, Jerry Friel, who is at St. Vincent hospital, and has both legs crushed, the result of an accident at a logging camp recently.

News has been received here from Clifton on the Columbia river of the serious accident that befell Jerry Friel in a logging camp at that place last week.

It appears that while working as hook tender the cable slipped and caught him around the legs, crushing both of them horribly. Jerry is now at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. It is not known at this writing whether amputation will be necessary or not.

The youngest son of C. H. Johnson fell from a log while at play last Thursday and dislocated his right shoulder. Dr. Botkins fixed it up, and the little fellow is getting along all right.

Mrs. Dr. Botkins and son James are visiting friends in Portland this week.

Mr. Ten Eycke was a visitor at the home of P. Averill last Sunday.

Unity

Mr. Buck from Portland made a short call at John Palmquist's last Wednesday.

C. H. Wihlon, C. M. Oliphant and S. F. Pitts made a trip to Pleasant Home one day this week.

Mrs. C. M. Oliphant attended the shower given to Grace Lawrence Thursday.

Dorothy Martin is suffering with an attack of the quincy.

J. J. Robertson and wife called on S. F. Pitts and family Thursday.

John Palmquist is very busy tiling and clearing some of his land.

Elf Mabey took dinner with S. F. Pitts one day last week.

For rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Try it and see how quickly it gives relief. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

Pleasant Home

Mrs. Stewart's son and wife from Idaho are here for a few days visiting their sick mother.

Mrs. Rich of Boring was a guest of Mrs. Cannon's Monday.

Mrs. Breeden is in the hospital for treatment.

The townsites is closed with new tents. New homeseekers are investing daily to own a rural home.

Mr. and Mrs. Smullen returned last week from the flooded district in Ohio. They were delayed several days in Indiana. They are glad to be alive and in Oregon.

Mr. Ross from Montreal, Canada, paid the Markells a visit, while on his trip north this week.

The new Electric Boiler, heats a cup of water in three minutes. Ray H. Todd.

Anderson

Fred Heitzman has moved his family into the H. G. Lake house lately vacated by Mr. Drake. He has contracted with Amos & Housh to clear 30 acres of land at $100 per acre. He expects to have five acres ready to plant this spring. Paul Stone sold his team to Mr. Heitzman to work the grubbing machine with.

H. A. Gist has returned from San Diego, California, where he has been for the past eighteen months. He is looking after his place here that he had to take back as the parties who bought it could not make the payments as per agreement. Mr. Gist is planning on improving his place some this summer unless he should make a sale soon.

Why He Was Late.

"What made you so late?"
"I met Smithson."
"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."
"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
"Sure, that is what he needs."

Orient

The Patron-Teachers' association held their regular meeting Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse. An address was given by Supt. T. J. Gary, of Clackamas county, who kept his hearers interested for an hour with his everyday "Boys." All who heard the address pronounce Mr. Gary a very able man for the subject and feel that they were greatly benefited by his remarks.

Refreshments were served after the address and a good social time enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held May 2d at 2 p. m. and addressed by Supt. A. P. Armstrong. All patrons are urged to attend.

The second team played Powell Valley Monday afternoon on the latter's field and closed the first half of the eighth to the tune of 18 to 5 in favor of the Orient boys. A return game will be played at Orient Friday afternoon. The two schools will also meet on the basket ball ground in the near future. The local boys and girls are enthusiastic and anxious for the "conflict" to begin.

The rainy season seems to be very determined and is causing some irregularity in attendance. The grip also remain an unwelcome visitor. It is hoped that spring will open soon and a better attendance reported next month.

Mrs. Breeden was compelled to resign her position as janitor on account of ill health. She is to undergo an operation at Portland Friday. Mr. Takaki and son Max are now in charge of the janitor work.

Columbia Heights

A meeting was held at the grange hall Saturday for the purpose of organizing a good roads club. A fairly good attendance was at hand, and the meeting was called to order by Grant Bell, who acted as temporary chairman with R. P. Rasmussen as secretary. Several interesting topics under the head of good roads movement came up for discussion, in which the ladies took part. The following were elected to fill the offices: Grant Bell, president; F. Lasley, vice-president; R. P. Rasmussen, secretary, and F. Benfield, treasurer.

East Multnomah road improvement club, was the name suggested for the new organization and by a majority of votes it was carried. Under this name the club will start out, with Grant Bell at the lead, on Saturday, April 19, to Mountain View cemetery. Everybody is invited to come out to help the good work, and also to join the club. As many as twenty-five joined the club at the grange Saturday. The club decided to meet the first Saturday in each month at 4 o'clock in the grange hall. The ladies will serve dinner on the 19th to the men, who work on the above named road.

Columbia grange will hold a special meeting on Saturday night, Apr. 12, for the purpose of initiating candidates. All the officers are requested to be present and as many of the members as possible.

The stork made a visit last Tuesday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis at Hurlburt, and left a baby boy. Mr. Ellis was so he joyed over the happy event, that he mounted a prancing steed, and sped around telling his friends of the goods news. We join in congratulations.

W. Salzman came home last week to visit his parents here. W. Salzman is taking a course in book-keeping.

C. Ellidge of Forest Grove moved up here to his ranch last Sunday, and expects to camp here this summer.

George Knerlem, jr., was in the city a few days last week. Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen is at the present in Portland with friends.

Kelso

The neighborhood club will meet Sunday, April 13, at 2 p. m. A good program will be rendered. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. J. Stafford entertained the Ladies' Sewing club last Thursday. A dainty lunch was served and all present spent a pleasant and profitable afternoon.

E. Hutchinson and family arrived from Eastern Oregon last week and have settled down on Mrs. Annie Jonsrud's place which they have rented for a year.

Our school is making preparations for an entertainment to be given at the close of the term. School will probably close the 2d of May.

Save Your Crops

—BY USING— FORMALDEHYDE

By treating your oats, wheat or barley with a small quantity, you may save one-third or even one-half of the yield by preventing smut. For POTATO SCAB, before cutting, soak the tubers one and one-half hours in a solution of one pound to thirty gallons of water. It pays to use it, but when you buy, be sure you get the right strength. WE GUARANTEE OURS.
