

FROM THE CITY TO THE SANDY

FERTILE POWELL VALLEY

New Town-sites along the Mt. Hood Railway that are to be among the busy centers of the future.

Umdenstock and Larson are promoting these rural town-sites and will build them up as the civic communities of a growing rural population.

With the near approach of full electric transportation the prime factor in the development of this wonderful section will be quick transportation, appealing to every person desirous of easy access to the metropolis.

No section near Portland offers greater advantages for suburban homes for the rich and poor alike.

BASEBALL FANS PREPARING FOR COMING GAMES AT PLEASANT HOME

An enthusiastic meeting of the Pleasant Home baseball fans was held at the store of G. W. Ingram Wednesday evening. Arrangements were made for ground with A. E. Petterson, who has a fine land piece of about three acres just south of his ranch at Scenic. The boys have donated their time and teams for Saturday afternoon, April 26th, when finishing touches will be put on to make it as fine a diamond as there is in the valley. G. W. Ingram has donated balls, bats, etc., and full suits will be forthcoming from another source. From the interest shown this early in the season, all predict something doing before the end of the summer. A dance may be held at an early date to help defray expenses. Announcements later.

G. O. Wynne, our farsighted agent, has recently completed a deal whereby he obtains another piece of ground adjoining his pretty bungalow. Home grown chickens should soon be on the market.

Charles Stonehouse, the popular blacksmith, has recently purchased a fine residence lot through Frank R. Frost, Jr., who represents Umdenstock & Larson Co., in the valley. Mr. Stonehouse contemplates putting up a nifty little home as soon as conditions warrant and already has a first-class blacksmith shop in operation.

Plans are under way for a short order restaurant to be added to our circle. Definite announcement will be made shortly.

The Neighborhood club will meet at the schoolhouse Sunday afternoon, April 27, at 2 o'clock. Current events will be discussed, followed by a literary and musical program. All are welcome.

A gathering of relatives surprised Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Jonsrud Sunday the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Jonsrud, who are both natives of Norway, were married fifty years ago near Albert Lea, Minnesota, on April 13, 1863. They moved to Oregon in 1877 and settled in Clackamas county on the place where they now live in 1878. Mr. Jonsrud is 78 years old, but spry than many a man ten years younger. While in Minnesota he served as senator in the state legislature, and in Oregon was justice of the peace for some 30 years, and is a widely known and respected citizen of Clackamas county. Grandma Jonsrud, as she is affectionately called, is 72 years old and in spite of having one leg crippled by a fall three years ago, does all her work and is characteristically cheerful. May they have many more happy anniversaries.

It is a wise want ad that can keep away from page two.
