Why He Was Late.

"What made you so late?"
 "I met Smithson."
 "Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
 "I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."
 "Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
 "Sure, that is what he needs."

Newsy Notes of Interest Gathered from Numerous Sources.

Will Hessel had the misfortune to be in a buggy at the Wright bridge, east of town, this morning when the horse backed him over a steep bank. The buggy was demolished, but horse and driver escaped serious injury. This was Mr. Hessel's second accident of the kind within the past week.

The mother's meeting held yesterday at the M. E. church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. was well attended, and was a very enjoyable meeting. Mrs. Sleeth of Portland was the speaker of the occasion. She gave a fine address on the responsibility of mothers and necessity of giving children the right early training. Lunch was served at the conclusion of the exercises and a social time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Honey visited Mrs. Honey's sister in Portland last Sunday.

Miss Edna Vogel has returned to her work in Portland after a few days' visit with her mother Mrs. M. Vogel.

A letter from F. W. Fieldhouse at Manzanita reports that John Parker found one of the bodies washed ashore from the wrecked schooner Mimi. It was turned over to the coroner and Captain Westfall was sent for to identify it.

A special excursion train will come out from Portland next Sunday, bringing a party to Bristol addition, which is a part of Gresham. Several prospective buyers will be in the party and it is thought a number of town lots will be sold.

Frank R. Frost, resident agent for Umbdenstock & Larson at Pleasant Home, was in Gresham yesterday on business and made a call at the Outlook office.

J. C. Stanley has almost recovered from his recent severe illness and is expected to entirely regain his former good health in a short time.

Henry Latourell moved his family here yesterday and is taking up his residence in the Walker house, owned by D. C. Ross. He is preparing to open his garage on Powell street by the first of the coming month.

Mrs. F. W. Fieldhouse and Mrs. Geo. Hale spent Sunday in Oregon City with the former's sister, Mrs. Martins and Miss Emma Wilkie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sleret of Portland and Mrs. C. L. Idelman of Montavilla visited Gresham relatives on Wednesday.

The Women of Woodcraft met Tuesday at Odd Fellows hall, a good number of members being present. Delegates were elected to the district convention which will meet in Portland on June 30. Those elected were Mrs. Minnie Clanahan and Mrs. J. H. Metzger, with Mrs. H. L. Westell and Mrs. Carrie Powell as alternates.

Rev. F. M. Burch's cousin, Mrs. L. Page and two children of Montana, were Gresham visitors one day last week. They were on their way to McMinnville where they expect to locate.

Gresham grange is considering a display at the county fair next September with a view to capturing the first prize of $125. The matter will be taken up with the ladies of the W. C. I. L. at the meeting tomorrow night.

H. L. Goodrich has traded his 10-acre farm northeast of Gresham to Andrew McMillan for the latter's property at Montavilla. Mr. McMillan is building on his property near Grant's butte and will move there soon when Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich will move to Montavilla. The trade was arranged through C. S. Smith, of the Smith Land Co.

A staff meeting of county librarians was held at the Gresham library this forenoon, instead of the main library as usual. After the business of the hour was attended to, all enjoyed luncheon together in the workroom of the library. Those present were: Miss Nelly Fox, head of the county department; Miss Constance R. S. Ewing of Brooklyn; Miss Laura A. Cummings of Montavilla; Miss Mabel Runday of St. Johns, Miss Helen Rawle of Vernon, Miss Alma Schloot of Woodstock, and Miss Clarisse Halle of our own library.

J. N. Faris is rapidly recovering from his recent operation, and returned yesterday from the hospital.

T. H. Dodge has moved his family to River Mill where he has been employed in the power house of the P. R. L. & P. Co. for the past year or two.

Mrs. C. E. Rusher and Miss Hoagland are in Oregon City in attendance at the state Sunday school convention, representing the M. E. Sunday school of this place. Rev. Melville F. Wire, Mrs. Ella Aton and others are expecting to be there a part of the time.

The senior class of the Gresham high school will give their play, "The Rivals," this evening at the moving picture theater.

C. S. Smith expects to move his family soon to Montavilla, where he will be nearer his work. C. M. Zimmerman has rented Mr. Smith's house and will move in as soon as it is vacated.

A joint meeting of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs was held last Wednesday night at which time W. A. Wheeler, grand master I. O. O. F. of Oregon was present and addressed the meeting on the good of the order. Lunch was served and a delightful social hour enjoyed.
