Boring

BORING, May 5—W. A. Morand has again begun work on the new drug store and postoffice. From now on Mr. Morand will push the work till the last nail is driven and a complete drug stock is opened.

The Wright-Neill Company have ordered 500 quarter sheet dates at the Outlook office. This company is now making arrangements for several short trips to neighboring towns. They will go out for two to five days at a time, returning in time each week for their regular bills on Saturday nights in this neighborhood.

Uncle Morgan says ties are coming into Boring now at such a rate that he has about all he can do to load the cars and keep the docks clear.

The Boring hall team cleared something like 30 on their entertainment last Saturday night.

The Boring ball team did a little practice at home last Sunday. The boys are a little too swift for most of the teams in this section and for that reason it's not so easy to get a match. The boys say they are ready to meet any team in this neighborhood.

The Wright-Neill company went to Sandy last Saturday. A good house greeted them and the band has invited the company to come again in the near future. The company goes to Orient this week Saturday with the play Rip Van Winkle, to be followed by a dance.

On last Friday evening the many friends of Miss Ruth Gregson and Elsie Dodd met at the home of Mr. John Myers, ostensibly for an evening of pleasure. The friends began arriving at the Myers home about 8 o'clock and a most enjoyable evening it was to each one there. The real object of the evening, was the linen shower for the two young ladies. Miss Elsie Dodd was sick and could not be present so her part of the linen shower was bestowed on Roy R. Danielson. Of course, Roy blushed and looked foolish, what man couldn't, when the gifts were bestowed on him. The presents were many for each of the young ladies, consisting of table cloths, napkins, towels, dollys, the very useful articles that mean so much to the ladies. At 12 the party came to a close, each one wishing many, many happy days for the two young couples. John Meyer and daughter Nora went to Portland one day last week to purchase a piano.

The entertainment, basket social and dance given recently in favor of the Boring base ball boys, by the Boring base ball boosters club, was well attended. The entertainment lasted about two hours. The baskets sold well and everyone enjoyed the dance.

Claude Cross, Mrs. Goheen and son Clifford, and Bruce Stone were in Gresham one day last week.
