Mrs. B. W. Emery spent Tuesday afternoon in Portland with her daughter Miss Ruby Emery where they celebrated the latter's birthday.

Services for the coming Sabbath in the Free Methodist church will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., morning service, beginning at 11, will be held under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, with Mrs. Ethel C. Hight, the president in charge, will have special songs. Evening service at 8. Everyone will be made to feel at home. Edwin W. Hight, pastor.

The Willing Workers club, composed of seven little girls, with the librarian Miss C. H. Halle, made a very enjoyable excursion to places of interest in Portland last Saturday. They spent considerable time in the Art museum and the main library, and went through the post-office. The members of the club are: Gladys Wright, Ellen Simonson, Hannah Lane, Belle Atterbury, Mabel Michel, Grace Fieldhouse and Winifred St. Clair.

W. H. Johnson, of Portland, spent last Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Johnson. This was the fifty-first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who have spent practically all of their married life in this part of the country. They have lived in Gresham for more than ten years.

Mrs. C. A. Hoffman, who went about two weeks ago to Lewiston, Mont., to the bedside of her mother who was seriously ill, writes that the mother is much better. She expects to return with Mrs. Hoffman in a short time.

C. M. Congdon, whose home is at Estacada, is acting as depot agent at the Gresham station of the O. W. P., while George Page is absent on his wedding trip.

Rev. E. W. Hight will preach at Corbett schoolhouse next Sunday morning at 11. Regular services will be held here as announced.

McDougal & Olson have closed up their blacksmith shop here and dissolved partnership. Mr. McDougal has a position with Twoby Bros., of Portland, and will go to work for the company on their Coos Bay line. Mr. Olson is at work at Bull Run. Mrs. McDougal and children will remain in Gresham.

Services as usual at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday. The hour of evening service will be changed to 8 o'clock. Dr. H. H. Ott will render a cornet solo at the evening service.

Mrs. M. A. Wilkinson is quite ill but is reported to be improving today.

Cleve Binder has his new meat market all ready for business and will open tomorrow with a complete stock of selected meats, government inspected and kept in sanitary condition. Glass cases, with meats on ice will be an unusual feature of meat markets in a country shop, but they will be found at the new sanitary meat market.

TWO GIRLS ASSAULTED NEAR LINNEMAN

Two young men are being looked for by the sheriff's office for assaulting two girls near Linneman on Wednesday evening. The screams of the girls attracted two men in an auto who took the girls in their machine, leaving the two young men, who were known to the girls, to follow on motorcycles. The occupants of the auto were later attacked by the two toughs, and the windshield was broken by a rock which knocked the chauffeur's hat off. It was learned that the two couples came out from the city on the motor-bikes, the assault occurring after dark. The young men had not been caught at last reports.

Hallock-Syverson.

A pretty wedding took place at the farm of C. P. Syverson, the bride's home, on Cooper Mountain, Thursday, May 8, at 12 o'clock. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Clara Syverson, and the groom by Mr. Ray Syverson. There were about thirty-five guests present, among them being E. E. Chipman and wife of Gresham. Rev. Robert Gray performed the ceremony. The newly married couple will make their home in Portland.
