News Notes of Interest Gathered from Numerous Sources.

A mistake of 10 years was made in the statement concerning the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs.
S. B. Johnson, in the last Outlook.
They have been married 61 years, not 51. They are expecting to celebrate many more anniversaries.

Mrs. Laura Barnes of Cottrell made a business trip to Gresham Saturday and was a welcome caller at the Outlook office.

The Woman's Home Missionary society will hold its May meeting at the church Wednesday, the 14th, promptly at 2:30 o'clock. It is the mite box opening time, and would also like all dues paid. The Queen Eathers and Mother's Jewels, have a special invitation, and all members and friends of the church are urged to be present. Light refreshments will be served.

A new arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Schantin yesterday weighed ten and one-half pounds. It is a boy.

Wilson Eastman is going around with a bandaged eye, the result of a shot from an air gun. Two other cases are reported of air gun shots that only missed doing serious damage by a close margin. Too much carelessness should be prevented by drastic measures, if necessary.

Mrs. Claude Clute was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital last week for treatment and care, suffering from puerperal fever. Reports from the hospital this morning give small hopes of her recovery.

A. S. Kincaid, of Troutdale, let two horses go astray on Sunday and found them this morning in a Gresham livery stable. Someone had picked them up and stabled them without notice. They were located after a search all over the country.

Gresham library was well represented in the exhibits at the Convention for the Conservation of Human Life at Reed College. Interior and exterior views of the library, the clean-up bulletin and several other bulletins were shown.

Rev. E. A. Leonard will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. In the morning the pastor will preach one of a series of sermons on the Life of Jesus. Any and all made welcome to these services.

Mrs. George Else, of Antler, N.
Dak., and daughters Mabel and Florence, came last week for a visit of several weeks with her daughter, Miss Lois Else and her sister, Mrs.
Mrs. W. F. Honey.

A bulletin board in the library has been reserved for town notices of educational value. Lectures and musical entertainments of local interest will be posted. Pay entertainments will not be excluded.

Eagle Creek grange will hold its sixth annual picnic next Saturday in the cedar grove near the grange hall.
There will be music by the Currinville band. The program begins at 1:30 with an address by Hon. James Wittycombe, followed by songs, music and recitations. There will be a dance in the evening at Eagle Creek, music by Beers' orchestra.

In the list of teachers for the Gresham school, published Friday, the name of Miss Hope Anderson was overlooked. She was re-elected as one of the instructors for the coming year.

The firemen's basket social and entertainment tomorrow evening gives promise of being a successful affair. All ladies are requested to bring baskets and the men their spare change. It is for the benefit of the fire boys and they need the money.

Mrs. B. C. Altman was a Gresham visitor on Saturday.

V. H. Read is constructing a cistern at his home on Gresham butte.

Miss Marian Robertson has been re-elected teacher at Lusted for the coming school year. Her work during the past season has been very satisfactory and the school board never hesitated in securing here for another term.

Best Medicine for Colds

When a druggist recommends a remedy for colds, throat and lung troubles, you can feel sure that he knows what he is talking about. C.
Lower, druggist, of Marion, Ohio, writes of Dr. King's New Discovery:
"I know Dr. King's New Discovery is the best throat and lung medicine I sell. It cured my wife of a severe bronchial cold after all other remedies failed." It will do the same for you if you are suffering with a cold or any bronchial, throat or lung cough. Keep a bottle on hand all the time for everyone in the family to use. It is a home doctor.
