IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

There will be no preaching services at the Baptist church on Sunday evening on account of the baccalaureate services for the high school. The B. Y. P. U. will meet at the usual hour however and at 11:00 a. m. the pastor will preach one of a series of sermons on the "Life of Christ."

The tin pall social to be held at the grange hall tomorrow night promises to be one of the popular events of the season. Young and old are expected to enjoy a spelling match. Other old fashioned games will be enjoyed.

A constitution and by-laws for the guidance of the Gresham Volunteer Fire Department has just been issued from the Outlook office in booklet form. It was adopted by the firemen of the city and contains stringent regulations for the members to observe. It also provides for fines and other penalties that will tend to maintain discipline among the members when on duty.

Five 8th grade pupils out of the fourteen who took the state examination, passed the required mark. Three failed in two studies only. Those who failed will take the examination in June. The class as a whole did well in all subjects except history and civics, and the questions in those subjects were hard enough for a teachers' examination.

Mrs. M. E. Ordway and Mrs. Worden, the latter president of the Women's Relief Corps, both of Portland, spent Tuesday last with Mrs. V. A. Ammerman at her home here.

C. H. Lane, of Gresham, who is now serving on the circuit court jury, is one of the twelve who will render a verdict in the Daily News libel case now on trial.

E. H. Brannen and his sister, Miss Brannen, recently from Iowa, have taken rooms at the home of Mrs. E. Daly on Roberts avenue and Fifth street.

Harve Metzger will move his family to Jonsrud's mill next week where he has obtained a situation as an employe of the Jonsrud Bros. mill. They will be missed in social circles here, especially the younger members of the family who are very popular in the junior set.

Mrs. S. I. Dailey, of Portland, an old time resident of Gresham, was a business visitor here yesterday.

F. E. Beckwith, the Sandy jeweler, and formerly a resident of Gresham, was here yesterday for a short time.

Rev. M. T. Wire will conduct special memorial services at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. In the evening a baccalaureate sermon will be given by Rev. C. C. Rarick to the graduating class of the Gresham high school.

Miss Echo Jones will render a solo at the morning service, and Miss Lois Elsie will sing in the evening. The choir will render an anthem in the evening also. Sunday school will begin at 9:45 a. m., Junior League at 3 p. m., Epworth League at 7 p. m.

Mrs. O. A. Eastman, accompanied by her son Wilson and daughter Gertrude, will leave next week for their old home in Wisconsin to remain away about two months. Eastman will remain here and keep bachelor's hall during their absence.

Work on the enlarged Gresham sub-station of the P. R. L. & P. is progressing rapidly. When completed the station will be the largest of its kind outside of Portland. The machinery is all here but has not been installed yet. The Mt. Hood division has been electrified as far as Cottrell, and it is expected to have electric cars running that far by the first of June.

The funeral of George Dauphina, who died last Monday, took place this morning with interment in the Gresham cemetery. W. H. Hamilton of Montavilla, had charge of the funeral arrangements. Rev. Father Breunagal officiated at the grave.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leslie entertained the 500 club Wednesday evening. The house was profusely decorated with flowers, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The highest score was made by Mrs. Geo. Stapleton and Mr. Burke. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kardell, Mr. and Mrs. Max Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Elkington, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shattuck, W. R. Burke and Mrs. Alva Hevel. Cake and ice cream was served.

Mrs. J. W. Baily and her infant daughter of Anderson were in Gresham today.

Mrs. Maude Burch Johnson, who is reported to be seriously ill, was taken to a Portland hospital one day this week.

The Industrious Girl's club held a meeting Thursday afternoon with Miss Halle at the library and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: president, Belle Atterbury; vice president, Grace Fieldhouse; secretary, Winifred St. Clair; treasurer, Mabel Michel. The program committee consists of Hannah Lane, Gladys Wright and Ellen Simonson.

Rev. S. P. Roper is here the guest of his brother-in-law Rev. J. A. Hopper and family. Mr. Roper is suffering from a badly sprained shoulder, the result of a severe fall which he recently sustained.

Mrs. Roy Gibbs and Mrs. John Metzger left this morning for Boise, Idaho, to attend the graduation exercises of Mrs. Gibbs' daughter Miss Lella, who has finished her three years nurse's training in the St. Luke's hospital.

Mrs. J. E. Obrist and little son Vernon of The Dalles have been visiting a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davidson.

A recent letter from Wm. Johnston, formerly of the firm of Sterling & Johnston, states that he is in the commission business with the Standard Grain company of Duluth. He expects soon to take charge of the company's branch house in Minneapolis.

Everett Dodge left for Seaside on Wednesday, where he has accepted a position as clerk in one of the largest grocery stores of that place. He worked for the same firm last season.

Some excellent work has been done by Henry Gullickson at the city hall in making the building and its surroundings more attractive.

C. S. Davis is announcing an auction sale at the Eleven Mile House, on the Base Line, for Saturday, May 31. The list of articles includes cows, farming tools and household furniture. A. Watson will be the auctioneer.

Arrangements are being perfected for the firemen's tournament to be held here next month. Departments from the other cities which will be here are practicing for the event especially those at Lents and Saint Johns each of which hope to carry away the most honors.

Floyd Metzger, one of the graduating class of the Gresham high school entertained the seniors at a lawn party last night. It was a pleasant affair and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

There never was a time when people appreciated the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy more than now. This is shown by the increase in sales and voluntary testimonials from persons who have been cured by it. If you or your children are troubled with a cough or cold give it a trial and become acquainted with its good qualities. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

"THE REXALL STORE"

B. O. Boswell claims to be the heavy weight champion chicken raiser of Estacada. He butchered a fry last Saturday that was hatched January 2nd last and after the bird had been headed it weighed just six pounds. There are some who were inclined to doubt the story of the genial "Box" and he promises to prove the truthfulness of his story when he again butchers one of the flock.—Progress.

is but one ticket in the field and very little interest is being taken in the matter.

Klamath farmers are fattening hogs on their surplus potato crops. Ten carloads of hogs have been shipped into that district from Sacramento and if the potatoes on hand can be utilized profitably in this way, other large shipments will be made.

Estacada will have a city election on June 3rd, at which a full set of city officers will be elected. There
