PORTLAND'S NEW GOVERNORS.

Portland's commission form of government will begin next month, the whole municipal machinery having been placed in the hands of five men, a mayor and four commissioners.

It is noticeable that the men chosen are practically new men in municipal affairs, especially in the city government of Portland, which is an indication that the former course of those in charge—Rushlight and his councilmen—has been entirely repudiated by the voters of the metropolis.

H. R. Albee was elected Mayor to serve for four years. The commissioners are Will H. Daly, R. G. Dieck, C. A. Bigelow and W. L. Brewster. Their political affiliations are unknown, although it is hinted that all are republicans in politics; but politics are entirely eliminated under the new method.

The preferential ballot system was given a severe test and has proved to be what its sponsors claimed for it—safe, sane and desirable.

The success to be attained by Mayor Albee and his cabinet will be closely watched, and if it proves to be desirable there is a strong probability that the movement will go further and that the commission form of government will be adopted by the state and many of the counties.

Several lengthy graduating programs have been received, all of them after the exercises were past and over several days. All of them were excellent and would be pleasant reading to those interested but as we could not publish them all we decided not to give any of them.

Those Pullet Eggs.

B. O. Boswell has produced sufficient evidence in the form of a dozen pullet's eggs to at least convince the writer that "Bos" assertion regarding the laying of eggs by birds hatched out last January is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Further more we have never heard of any one ever questioning the veracity of Mr. Boswell, we simply made it appear that there were some who did so that "Bos" would come across with the proofs and he did. We ate the evidence last Friday morning for breakfast.—Estacada Progress.

It would be easier to train up a boy "in the way he should go" if the father walked in that way himself.

And many a man with a weak intellect is headstrong.

The home a woman marries for is hardly worth the price.

Don't look up to people; it encourages them to look down on you.

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE TO MRS. MARY C. CLUTE

At a meeting of Rockwood grange held on Wednesday evening the following memorial was approved as a tribute to Mrs. Mary C. Clute, a member of the grange recently deceased:

In due time a day of solemn ceremonial came, when they, who for their sister held in trust the rights that transcend the highest heritage of mere humanity, presented their charge at the inner gate.

And through the inner gate to a higher degree was directed the pathway of our sister. There, at the altar of life everlasting, she will once again renew the vows of a matron in the fullness of her destiny, under the guidance and direction of the Supreme Steward who doeth all things well.

And we who are yet in the harvest field, awaiting the call from the inner portal, are conscious of a loss; yet we know that she who has preceded us to the heights of that greater degree is resting in fields of peace and bowers of glory with a smile of welcome ever ready for those who are yet to follow her into its innermost shrines.

Thus we, the members of Rockwood grange, No. 323, do hereby express our sincere regret that our worthy sister was taken from the ranks of fidelity in the first proud fullness of her early motherhood; and we hereby direct that this expression of our esteem and regret be placed upon the minutes of this grange, and a copy be sent to Claude W. Clute, the husband of our worthy deceased sister; and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

(Signed) Mrs. Y. A. Lovelace, Mrs. Mary Richmond, E. L. Thorpe, Committee.

Still Investigating.

Dr. Albert J. Ochsner, of Chicago, whom the Outlook quoted some weeks ago concerning the alleged Friedman cure for tuberculosis, has written another letter to H. Ruhl of Gresham in which he says: "I spent a week in Washington and while there I investigated the progress of Friedman's Cure and it really looks as though it would turn out worthless. However, I wish to continue to watch it carefully and if the impression of those who have seen the most of it changes, I will let you know."

Shows Defects in Farm Butter Making.

Four main defects in farm butter as compared with creamery butter are pointed out by O. G. Simpson of the dairy school at the Oregon Agricultural College. He says:

"The main defects in farm butter, as compared with creamery butter, are bad flavor, staleness or rancidity, too many shades of color, and unsuitable packages. The flavor is of the highest importance, and no matter how good the butter is in other respects, if the flavor is wrong it is classed as an inferior article.

"No matter how skillful the butter maker is, it is impossible for him to make a strictly first-class butter out of poorly flavored or tainted cream. Cream may become tainted from four causes: bacterial infection, absorption of flavors, food eaten, or disease in the cow. The bacterial infection may come of unclean cows and stables, unclean condition of milkers, unclean utensils, or keeping the cream in unclean surroundings, especially in a temperature above 60 degrees.

"Absorption of flavors takes place with remarkable rapidity when milk or cream is allowed to stand in an atmosphere where odors are present, especially when the milk is warm. Foods that have strong tastes and odors, such as onions, decayed silage, old stalky kale, or turnip tops should not be fed within a few hours of milking. Experiments have shown that milk will not possess the flavors of such foods if not drawn for eight or twelve hours after feeding. Cows that are abnormally heated or excited before milking give a tainted milk. Many diseases also affect the cow's milk."

HELP.

Help to make the world some brighter. You can do it, if you will; You can make your own load lighter As you struggle up the hill. If you have no cause for lending Cheer to others in their woe, Get the habit of pretending All is well—and make it so.

LEFT-HANDED COMP.

She—"My husband is forty to-day You'd never believe that actually there is ten years' difference in our ages." He—"Why, no indeed. I'm sure you look every bit as young as he does."

Isn't it queer how easy it is to transform friends into enemies?

Lusted

Mrs. E. D. Hamilton is but slightly improved, having been sick for about two weeks with a severe attack of quinsy.

Farmers in this locality are about through with potato planting. Reports indicate exceptionally good crop prospects in this favored locality.

School in this district closed last Thursday. Miss Marian Robertson has taught a very successful year and has been re-elected. There were three graduates from the eighth grade, Clyde Ruegg, Carl Carlson, Frank Eder.

All friends are rejoicing over the success of an operation performed in Portland on Grandma Hamilton's eyes. She returned Saturday, having regained the sight of one eye.

Maxwell

Fred Shoulz and boys visited Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson last Friday.

The grading for the new depot crew are busy putting in culverts before erecting the building.

James S. Brown, of Melrose, and Miss Burns, who is on a holiday from Spokane, visited Mrs. McPine on Thursday evening.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ingram from residents here, at the loss by fire on Wednesday night of their fine new store.

Mrs. S. Hale was a Gresham visitor the beginning of the week. Wood loading at the depot is still going on. There is quite a lot more to come.

Notices are posted calling the annual school voters meeting for Monday, June 16.

William Harris was a Gresham visitor on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg from Portland spent Tuesday at their place here.

Unity

A large number of friends gave Miss Lottie Wilhon a farewell party last Wednesday night. Among the guests were Miss Goodwin and Mrs. Stoner, both of Gresham. Miss Wilhon is going to Portland to spend the summer.
