AN INVESTMENT

WHETHER your painting is an investment or an expense depends on what paint you buy. Don't buy paint that has to be prepared by hand. In that case you pay extra for painter's time in mixing. Don't buy cheap paints, even though ready mixed. You get just what you pay for—an inferior paint and inferior results.

RUSSELLVILLE GRANGE HALL IS DEDICATED

Russellville grange was the attraction for several hundred persons on Saturday afternoon, the occasion being the dedication of the new hall. The beautiful ceremony, together with an excellent program, occupied the time from 3 o'clock until 6, which was followed by a grange dinner and a midnight dance.

The dedication ceremony was conducted by State Master Spence and officers of the grange, State Lecturer Darnall, J. J. Johnson and others made appropriate remarks while the literary and musical exercises were of a high grade and suitable to the occasion.

The most important feature was the contribution of $576 which was raised by subscription. I. E. Staples, the jeweler, took charge of that part of the program, his persuasive eloquence being effective in securing the money in various sums ranging from one dollar to fifty.

The hall as completed represents an outlay of $3000, the remaining indebtedness upon completion being $1900. The grange is a live one and will pay the balance off in due time. The building is 42x70 feet, with a concrete basement, and is well adapted for lodge purposes. It is a monument to the untiring industry of the "baby" grange of the county and will be an attractive social center for a large and prosperous community.

Columbia Heights

Columbia grange held their regular meeting on Saturday, but owing to the busy time, the attendance was small, but the day was well spent. Anderson; treasurer, Mrs. Ray Emily with Mrs. George Knierium assistant; secretary, Mrs. Wilson.

The society gave their new club the name of the Columbia Ladies' Aid, and will meet once a week, at the Heights, and the next week at Hurlburt. A bazaar is being planned sometime in the latter part of November or the first part of December. The money obtained will go to the church fund. The dedication of the new grange hall at Russellville on Saturday, June 7th, was a grand success. C. E. Spence, master of the Oregon State Grange and many other prominent members of the order were present. Those attending from Pleasant Valley grange were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Snashall, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kronenberg and Mrs. Sarah Frost.

E. S. Jenne is continually adding to the improvements of his already beautiful home, the latest are some fine cement walks.

The Wright-Neill Stock Co., will render a drama, "Little Alabama," at the Pleasant Valley grange hall Saturday evening, June 14. If the play is anything like the last one they gave us, they will keep the people of the valley laughing for a week afterwards. Some are still laughing about the Old Millionaire.

Strawberries are in full swing and a good crop.

One of the most pleasant social events that has taken place in our valley for some time occurred Saturday evening, June 7, when Mr. and Mrs. Berke so ably assisted by their sons and daughters, gave a shower for Miss Ellen Forsgren and W. L. Rhodes. The house was beautiful in pink and white, and music and cards were enjoyed followed by dainty refreshments. About twenty-five guests were present and the shower was a decided success in the way of beautiful and useful articles. The party broke up at a late hour wishing the happy couple a joyous and prosperous life and pronouncing Mr. Berke and family royal entertainers.

MAGAZINE REMINDERS FOR GARDEN GROWERS

The June magazines are crowded with interesting articles on timely subjects. Some of these are referred to by Miss Halle, librarian of the Gresham library, in the following resume of the magazines to be found on the reading tables of the library:

The month's reminder of the June Garden magazine has been posted for all interested in the welfare of their gardens. Several other articles in the same magazine are most helpful. In "Iris for Everybody's Garden" we have a little monograph of hardy border irises that will grow under ordinary garden conditions, giving the longest season of bloom and embracing the whole range of this glorious family, suggested companion plants. Another interesting article is "Thinning the Fruit Set," thereby, getting a better quality with larger size and no "off years." "Radishes for the connoisseur" takes up the points to be watched in growing radishes, and intensive cultivation and extra early radishes.

The Review of Reviews gives a clear view of the happenings of the past month, also the World's Work.

The Century is full of attractive and interesting articles. The training of a Japanese child is told by the author of the "Lady of the Decoration" in her usual vivid style.

In the survey of May 24, the institutional church work for the country by Harry Deimann, is a strong article on the co-operation of the people and the church and concludes with a list of books on rural interests, general and governmental aspects, economic and social, Home and Hygiene, Country Schools, Rural Recreation and Religious Aspects of Rural Life.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Russell were guests at the Pounder home on Thursday.

Mr. Pratt of Portland, who bought a lot of land here some time ago, was out last week to look after his interest.
