IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hansen, of Pendleton, were guests the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern.

The services at the Free Methodist church for next Sunday will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., morning sermon at 11. Evening service at 8 p. m. beginning with a congregation song service. Rev. D. M. Cathey will preach in the morning. Every one made to feel at home. Edwin W. Hight, pastor.

Mrs. M. I. Henshaw, of Seaside visited her sister Mrs. Sig. Knight on last Wednesday.

Alfred Erickson, who lives near Orient, was a business visitor to Gresham Wednesday. Mr. Erickson reports fine crops and good prospects in all lines. He has a patch of M. goon strawberries 50 or 60 feet square from which he has marketed 20 crates of the finest fruit.

J. A. Davidson is in Portland serving on the jury.

Mrs. S. A. Stafford, of Banks, Or., was in Gresham Wednesday looking after business interests. She is spending a few days visiting with relatives and old neighbors east of Gresham.

With good weather in sight there is a prospect ahead for a rattling game of baseball next Sunday at Fairview. Everything is in readiness and the clothiers are hard beaten. The Fairview club has been doing a little practicing daily and the club is stronger than ever, so that an excellent game is assured.

A 16 pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson, of Powell Valley Monday, June 23.

J. N. Mewhirter returned from Seaside last Tuesday. He was accompanied by his granddaughter Miss Jay Mason, who will remain here for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Towle and family went last week by auto to Salem to visit Mr. Towle's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shattuck expect to go to their summer home at Welches next Monday. They will be taken there by Captain O. M. Crosswell of San Diego who is making an automobile tour of the northwest in the interests of the San Diego Panama exposition.

Beginning next Tuesday, charges on parcels by parcel post may be collected by the carrier from the person addressed.

Elliott Bros. who conducted Lewis Shattuck's big sale last winter, have bought out a department store at Oregon City and will become permanent residents and merchants of that place.

A speed contest between Ben Mathews' and Arthur Leland's trotting horses was decided early this morning on the Gresham race track. The race was a half mile, and Leland's horse won. Time was not given.

The Gresham Hardware company will close its doors tomorrow evening and will begin packing up for removal to Salem where the business will be established and enlarged to meet the demands of a larger community.

Ernest Conley and wife spent last night in Gresham as the guests of John Conley and wife, their uncle and aunt. The couple were married at Springfield a few days ago but will live in East Portland where Mr. Conley is ticket and freight agent with the Southern Pacific at the East Morrison street depot.

"The Healing of a Leper" will be the topic under discussion at the Baptist church on Sunday morning. In the evening the sermon topic will be, "Grinding at the Devil's Mills." 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. are the hours. A hearty welcome and the "glad hand" extended to all.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Thom, a boy, Friday, June 27.

Mrs. W. H. Congdon was called to Portland to the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Maud Round, who was taken to the hospital last night for an operation. Mr. Congdon received a message at 12:30 today that she was a little better. He expects to hear again this afternoon.

Mrs. Carrie Hansen, of Salem, and Miss Harriet Alexander who has been teaching at The Dalles, have taken up their residence on their place at Powell street and Cleveland avenue. They will remain for the summer and take care of the fruit. Miss Mary Hansen is expected to be here for a part of the time.

Miss Florence Cleveland of Portland has been the guest for a few days of Mrs. J. N. Farls.

Miss Ruby Emery is at Good Samaritan hospital Portland where she underwent a serious operation last Tuesday. She is reported to be doing well.

An enjoyable social gathering was held yesterday afternoon at the White Crow hotel, when Mrs. S. T. Crow entertained for the benefit of the local Women's Relief Corps. A number of members of the Corps and G. A. R., and their friends were present and spent an hour or two in conversation, after which a delicious lunch was served. A silver offering was taken.

Ladies Aid Jubilee.

A most enjoyable social event of the week was the entertainment of the Ladies' Aid by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons at their home overlooking Beaver Bend, the occasion being the Annual Jubilee of that organization. This is the one time of the year when the members meet by themselves, with as many of their husbands as are able to join them, and enjoy the afternoon with neither work nor serving of others to burden them. Mr. and Mrs. Parsons outdid themselves to give their guests a royal good time and everyone entered into the spirit of the occasion. The afternoon was spent in story telling, conversation, readings and enjoying the beauties of the place as seen from a certain hilltop nearby to which many of the guests climbed. Those who took the trouble were certainly rewarded for their efforts by the panorama of beauty spread out before them, including the Bluffs and fertile valleys of the Sandy, the Columbia and the winding little Beaver. The lofty and majestic mountains in the distance afforded a splendid background for the scene. The afternoon was fittingly closed by a feast of strawberry shortcake served with rich country cream, lemonade, cake and tea which Mrs. Parsons had provided for her guests. A carpet was spread on the lawn and many preferred to remain out of doors. Mrs. Parsons was assisted in serving by Mrs. O. W. Tarr, Mrs. J. C. Duke and Mrs. Lulu Strebin.

Those present were Mesdames V. A. Anmerman, A. M. Anderson, Clara Kane, C. E. Rusher, A. Leland Lulu Strebin, S. S. Thompson, Emma Shultz, F. W. Fieldhouse, Ella Aton, L. Osborne, M. D. Kern, O. M. Oliphant, C. M. Sunday, A. Dowsett, J. C. Duke, O. W. Tarr, Jas. Sterling, C. M. Zimmerman, John Palmquist, D. Turner, Miss A. Hoagland, Miss Elford, Messrs. S. S. Thompson, O. W. Tarr, Jas. Sterling, Melville T. Wire, A. Dowsett, Stafford, Jack and Baby Dowsett. A number of automobiles and rigs were used in conveying the Gresham guests to and from the scene of the festivities.
