SANDY, OREGON

A Growing Clackamas County Town, Full of Live Hustlers

SANDY, June 30—The Woman's club held its final meeting of the season Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. C. D. Purcell, nearly all the members were in attendance to listen to the annual reports and discussions, regarding the various activities of the club during the seasons 1913-14. Following an unusually long business meeting, the hostess assisted by Mrs. Margaret Edwards, served chicken sandwiches, strawberries, cream, coffee and cake, after which the ladies disbanded for the summer, to meet again the second Thursday in October at the home of the president, Mrs. P. T. Shelley.

Illness under any circumstance is distressing to contemplate and is especially so in the case of the suffering of a little child. Every woman's heart must be touched, hence the sympathies of the Woman's club of Sandy are aroused in the case of little Ellis Markey of Lents, and hereby extend the sympathy to Mrs. Deaton grandmother of the suffering lad. The passing of even the infant soul, calls for still deeper condolence, so again the club desires to mingle its grief with Mrs. Emma Thomas one of their members and families in the death of Mr. Henry Aeshoff's little boy.

Mrs. Gilbert, wife of Judge W. B. Gilbert, of the appellate court of San Francisco, is receiving her first impressions of Sandy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell, which we hope will be so favorable as to induce her to repeat them at some future date.

A tiny stranger has today altered the senses of Sandy by opening her eyes for the first time, upon its unparalleled beauties. The fact is that Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Beckwith, are responsible for this happy event, and are open to congratulations, which the good people of Sandy hereby extend, most hearty and most sincerely.

In consequence of the evening being unpleasant the garden party to be given by the Woman's club of Sandy Wednesday evening, June 25, complimentary to husband's and sweethearts, could not be held at Mr. and Mrs. Thomas' home as previously planned, and was therefore transferred to Odd Fellows hall. About sixty availed themselves of the attractions of the evening, games and music figuring largely in the list, while strawberries, cake, ice cream, sandwiches and coffee furnished a feast most satisfying to the inner man. As for decorations, one could not ask for a display more bewildering in loveliness, that with which innumerable fox gloves, roses, pansies, and other floral delights, feasted the eyes, many brilliant Japanese lanterns also in combination with the club's colors, yellow and black, added their charms to the scene.

At a special meeting of the city council L. A. Davies tendered his resignation as city marshal to take place at once. Mayor Meinig appointed J. E. Pomeroy to fill the unexpired term and the council approved the appointment. Mr. Davies will leave soon for Harbor in Curry county where he expects to locate.

There can be few greater pleasures than a stroll through the flower garden of our esteemed fellow townsman, Caspar Yunker, so numerous are the flowers, so fair in tint and outline, and so bewildering in variety. Dear to our childhood memories, we see the pansy in its endless rich shades, the pure lily, the incomparable rose, the shy daisy and violet, the polyanthus, asters, dahlia, cosmos, forget-me-not, hollyhock, pinks, poppies, and others that our space forbids to enumerate. These are not all the old favorites to be found in this garden, as there are in addition, many specimens of the florists painstaking and skilled work, evolved from our beloved old-time flowers, as for instance the amazingly perfect form and hue and endless variety, produced from the ancient rose, the transformation of the holy hock almost into a rose itself, the development, of the aster and dahlia into their present rare and varied beauty, the change so complete that they almost need introduction as new and modern altogether. Many of these we delight in finding here, in buds arranged with symmetrical precision, and design, bespeaking the true flower lover, the patient and skilled attendant upon them and a refined appreciation of nature's beauties. Our little burg cannot be too grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Yunker for providing such a beautiful tract, not for us only, but for tourists passing through, who cannot but pause for a moment's enjoyment of this unusually lovely garden.

Word was received from E. F. Bruns, of Sandy, who is making an extensive tour of the United States. Mr. Bruns is at present in Manitowish, Wisconsin, where he is visiting friends and relatives. He expects to continue his travels throughout the summer and fall, arriving in Sandy about September. Mr. Bruns has made almost a complete tour of the United States. He will travel slowly from Milwaukee, to the coast, visiting the large cities and places of interest on the way. Among the places he will visit are the Yellowstone National Park, and the Glacier National Park. No doubt he can tell interesting stories and descriptions of places to the many friends on his arrival home.

To the writer of these lines Mr. Bruns expresses a desire to be home and see the friends and relatives, and sends greeting to them all. There are many wonderful scenes and places in the United States, and what a privilege it is to see even a few of the great wonders. Next to seeing them one's self is to hear descriptions of them by friends who have seen them. Perhaps Mr. Bruns will enlighten our social gatherings when he gets home by just such descriptions of his travels. Or perchance he might be induced to give a more or less formal lecture to which the public may be invited.

The Sandy ball team elected E. E. Hamilton manager and Lunday captain. The Pleasant Home team will be here the Fourth. The Laurburst team is trying to play in Sandy shortly.

Work on the new telephone line is progressing rapidly. The Pacific States Co., has a crew of fifteen men here. At present they are working on the Sandy Eagle Creek Trunk line, later they will begin work on the Sandy Rhododendron.

The annual report of the president of the Woman's club which was read at the meeting of that body on June 26, will appear in the next issue of the Outlook.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

Pleasant Valley

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, June 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Forsgren when their daughter Ellen was united in marriage to Walter L. Rhoads, Rev. N. J. W. Nelson, of Portland officiating, using the ring service. The home was beautifully decorated with fern, roses and arbutus, and the bride looked charming in white brocaded tulle trimmed in lace, with a veil attractively held in place with lilies of the valley, carrying an arm bouquet of brides roses. Miss Lillian Sell of Powell Valley was bride's maid and wore a becoming dress of silk marquisette. J. W. Batchelor, of Portland, was best man. Both are popular young people of Pleasant Valley. Mr. Rhoads coming here from Plymouth, Ohio, three years ago. Everybody wish them a pleasant, happy, prosperous voyage through life.

About forty guests were present and the presents were many, beautiful and appropriate. A bountiful wedding feast had been prepared and was enjoyed by all.

The happy couple left Sunday for a two weeks' trip and will make their home here in the valley.

Section Line

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cummings, a boy.

Mr. Betz met with a serious accident near Clackamas station Wednesday evening. Mr. Olson and Mr. Betz were driving some cows they had bought. As it was dark, Mr. Betz could not see a cable some well drillers had stretched across the road. He was thrown to the ground, the cable striking him on the upper lip and cutting him badly. Several teeth were knocked loose and he had to ride ten miles to a doctor. Mr. Armspiger had the misfortune to get a finger badly crushed while working in the sawmill. The doctor fears he will have to have it amputated.

Buy it now. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.
